HAD TO BE MANUFACTURED

Professional Humorist Could Not See Anything Funny About Political Convention Crowd.

"Sam" Blythe, whose josh stories about politicians and things political are well known, arrived in Chicago to "do" the Republican convention. Immaculately clad in a light gray suit, with a hat and cane to match, the gray-haired young man made an interesting figure in the lobby of the Congress hotel. And he seemed to know everybody on the floor.

He was approached by a younger newspaper man, who stood somewhat in awe of the older man's prominence, and addressed as follows:

"How are you, Mr. Blythe?"
"Hello," said Blythe.
"You are Mr. Blythe, aren't you?"
"I sure are!"

"Well, I'm Blank of the Yankee Doodle and I've got a column of funny stuff to write and I want you to tell me a funny story about some of this gang."

"Son," quoth Blythe seriously, "if you can find anything funny in this sad outfit you're pretty good!"—Chicago News.

TRUE LOVE

"Does your doggie love you?"
"Betcher life he does! I'd kick the stuffin' out of him if he didn't."

UNNEEDED NERVOUSNESS.

The customs officials at Leith, Ireland, seized, several weeks ago, several cases of rifles shipped from Germany, scenting insurrection in the threats of some men in Ulster to resist home rule by force of arms, if they couldn't defeat it any other way. Things looked ominous from another direction for the peace of the British empire. After several weeks of nervousness, during which the rifles reposed peacefully in the customs storehouse, it developed that they had been shipped to a theatrical company, which intended to send instructions as to their destination, but which, like many another theatrical company, had ceased to tour after being on the move for some weeks. Then everybody breathed easier, and perhaps smiled when nobody was looking.

CAT COMMITS SUICIDE.

Despondent because her four children were taken away from her, "Spots," the pet mascot and station house cat at the Penn avenue police station, committed suicide yesterday by leaping in front of a street car. The kittens had been taken away one by one, and the old cat wandered about day and night in a melancholy mood. Yesterday she ran to the street car track. A car was approaching, but the motorman stopped in time to avoid killing "Spots." The cat was chased back, but later jumped under the wheels of a car.—Philadelphia Record.

M. A. IN EITHER CASE.

Elsie Janis, the talented young actress, was urging a friend, one evening at a roof-garden supper in New York, to remain another year at college before marrying the young man to whom she was engaged.

"You will always regret," urged Miss Janis, "that you left college before getting your degree."

"Oh, well," her friend answered mischievously, "maybe I'll soon be a M.A. anyhow."

PAYS TRIBUTE TO VETERANS.

Mrs. Carrie Feldkamp is an old lady at Corryville, a suburb of Cincinnati, who makes it a point to place a flag upon the breast of every veteran who dies. Her husband and two brothers were in the war, and she says they told her of so many kindnesses done to them that she likes to repay the obligation with a flag.

In Memoriam.

On the 9th of Oct. 1912 in the town of Goldsboro, N. C., Bro. Linsey Pugh, fell on sleep, leaving a wife and one sister living in this County Mrs. Mattie J. Wilson. She being the last of a group of children Linsey included, coming to this community years ago, small children, fatherless and motherless poor in this worlds goods and cared for by their relatives. Linsey commenced coming to mill Creek Sunday school and impressions made upon him there, caused him soon to become a christian and became a member of the Missionary Baptist Church, it sweet to hear him relate those impressions, he lived a christian here. Also in Goldsboro, was a member of the first Church, Rev. G. T. Watkins pastor. Short time before his death he left the first church and joined the Free Will Baptist church and by his consecrations and piety soon held several leading positions in that church.

We bore with humble submissions and offer our sympathies to his bereaved companion and his only sister.

HANDICAPPED.

This is the Case With Many Roxboro People.

Too many Roxboro citizens are handicapped with bad backs. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sick kidneys.

The following statement should convince every Roxboro reader of their efficiency.

R. G. Taylor, 151 Hillsboro St., Oxford, N. C., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills about a year ago and was greatly benefited; I had suffered for several months from lameness across the small of my back and the secretions from my kidneys were irregular in passage. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief as soon as I began taking them and I have not had any cause for complaint since. I consider this remedy worthy of my endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

You simply can't afford to miss this wonderful series—an inside story of the Civil War now published for the first time and containing all the freshness of a contemporary happening. These letters will grip you hard, and hold your interest from first to last. Fill out the coupon and send it now before you forget it.
