

The Roxboro Courier.

Noell Bros., Proprietors.

Home First: Abroad Next.

$1.00 Per Year in Advance

VOL. XXX

ROXBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, Wednesday Evening, Jan. 15, 1913.

No. 3

BRILLIANT MARRIAGE

Mr. Kendall L. Street and Miss Ophelia Pearl Lewis Wed.

On last Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock Mr. Kendall Lamberth Street and Miss Ophelia Pearl Lewis were married. The ceremony was performed in the Edgar Long Memorial Church, and rarely, if ever has the Church been more beautifully decorated than on this occasion. The altar was a literal mass of potted plants, ferns predominating, with a sprinkling of blooms of lilies of the valley. It was beautiful in its simplicity and was the remark of every one present.

Long before the hour the Church began to fill with friends and interested parties who wished to see this happy couple made one.

Just before the bridal party entered Miss Mabel Harris, who presided at the organ, played an accompaniment and Mrs. Z. V. Gwynn sang an appropriate song. After the singing the ushers, Messrs. C. C. Cunningham, R. L. Harris, D. W. Ledbetter and Dr. B. R. Long, marching to the strains of the Wedding March, came in and took their positions on either side of the altar, Rev. E. M. Snipes having preceded them and took his stand just in front of the mass of ferns. Then came the Dame of Honor, Mrs. H. W. Foushee, of Lynchburg, followed by the bride and groom who came in from opposite directions, the bride on the arm of her father, Mr. W. L. Lewis, and the groom with his best man, Dr. W. A. Bradsher, meeting at the altar where the father gave the bride away. Rev. E. M. Snipes performed the ceremony, using the ring ceremony in a most beautiful and impressive manner.

The bride was most charming in her wedding gown of white brocade charmeuse, with drapery of pleated chiffon, trimmed with rhinestone bands, and tulle veils which covered the entire costume. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses showered with lilies of the valley.

Mrs. H. W. Foushee, the dame of honor, wore a handsome yellow charmeuse, with overdress of embroidery net, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

While, of course, the groom and his male attendants wore the conventional evening suits, full dress.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lewis, and we can truthfully say is one of Roxboro's most popular and charming young ladies. She is of noble character, a leader in church work, a favorite with the young set, and greatly admired by all. Of a truth she is one "whom to know is to love." The groom is to be congratulated highly, for he has indeed won a Pearl of great price. The groom is the son of Mr. T. H. Street, one of the wealthy planters of the County, and is greatly esteemed for his many good qualities and business ability.

The wedding presents were exceedingly numerous, handsome and costly, coming from her friends in all directions.

The bridal party was conveyed to the church in automobiles and immediately after the ceremony returned to the home of the bride's parents and changed costumes for traveling purposes and took the 7 o'clock train for Washington and other northern cities. They will be at home at Mill Creek after about the 20th.

Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lewis gave a reception to the wedding party at their beautiful home on Academy Street last Tuesday evening from 8:30 to 12 o'clock p. m.

Misses Mary Trotter and Sue Noell received at the door, while Mrs. W. C. Watkins received in the parlor and presented the guests to the receiving line. From here the guests were shown into the gift room where the many beautiful presents to the bride were on display.

A three course luncheon was served where plates were laid for thirty two guests, Misses Mary Trotter and Breta Noell serving. After refreshments toasts were given by all present, and these toasts were of an unusually high order, much merriment attesting the pleasure of this part of the program.

The reception hall, parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated in pink and white, and the home never looked more lovely.

Miss Lizzie Burton Entertained.

On Last Saturday Evening Miss Lizzie Burton entertained a number of her friends in honor of her company Misses Clyde and Lucy Umstead, of Willordsville. The feature of the evening was games of various kinds.

Delicious refreshments were served. And then the host was compelled to make their departure, but left declaring Miss Burton a most charming hostess.

THE PEOPLE

Ask for a Square Deal and President-Elect Wilson is With Them.

By Clyde H. Tavenner, Special Cor.

Washington, Jan. 13.—President Taft in his New York "reorganization" speech, declared in fine sarcasm that those dissatisfied with his administration demanded "an ideal state in which the poor and oppressed are to acquire property and cease suffering."

This and similar statements of the President, indicate why his administration was unpopular. He was prejudiced against any kind of reform. His is the same view that is held by Morgan and Rockefeller, and the other money kings who have made their millions as a result of federal laws which gave them monopolies of American markets with power to charge the people for trust products any price that their greed dictated.

Morgan and Rockefeller also believe that all who are not satisfied with the old conditions—the bribery of United States Senators by the oil trust, the failure to send guilty trust magnates to jail as the poor are sent to jail when they violate the law, the infamous Payne-Aldrich tariff laws which permit the big industrial combinations to be ever boosting prices and increasing the cost of living—Morgan and Rockefeller and Taft believe that all who complain of these things expect and demand "an ideal state in which the poor and oppressed are to acquire property and cease suffering."

This is not true. It is ridiculous to assert that because the people demand tariff revision to reduce the cost of living, that they expect or demand "an ideal state."

In asking for an income tax which will compel the rich to bear a fair proportion of the burden of taxation, which they are not now doing:

In requesting the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people, to prevent their election by bribery:

In demanding enforcement of the criminal provision of the Sherman anti-trust law, which is not now being enforced by an attorney-general who was formerly a sugar-trust lawyer:

In desiring legislation, safeguarding legitimate business from the public evils of stock-gambling:

In expecting effective regulation of child labor, an employer's liability law and protection of women wage-earners:

In demanding and expecting of these things the public is not, as President Taft says, and as Morgan and Rockefeller pretend to believe, either demanding or expecting "an ideal state in which poor and oppressed are to acquire property!"

The people are simply asking for a square deal at the hands of those "public servants" they have sent to Washington to represent them.

Lived 123 Years.

We learn from an authentic source that the old lady, Nellie Holt, who died a few weeks since at her home near Longhurst, was 123 years of age. She has a daughter now living who is 90 years old, a grandchild 70 years of age and a great-grandchild 50 years old. We doubt if there is another white family in the State which can show such a record for longevity. The ages as above set forth are true and have been verified by our investigation.

There is also another very old lady living near here, just a few miles North of town, Mrs. Taylor Jackson who is 106 years old.

Mr. Anderson Found Dead.

Mr. Alex Anderson of Cedar Grove, Orange county, was found dead laying on the floor in his room on Sunday morning, the 5th inst. He was an old bachelor and lived all alone, but visited occasionally among the neighbors but had not been seen for several days. Mr. William McDade went over to see him on the 5th and found him laying on the floor, dead. The neighbors were notified and Dr. Hughes was sent for, but he said he had evidently been dead for 48 hours or more, as his body was badly decomposed. He was about 60 years of age.

Federal Judge Is Impeached.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Judge Robert W. Archbald, of the court of commerce, was declared guilty today by the United States senate sitting as a court of impeachment of five of the thirteen articles exhibited against him by the house. On eight of the charges he was acquitted.

After he had been declared guilty on the five counts a resolution was passed removing him from office and disqualifying him from ever holding office under the federal government.

Guy Timberlake's Death.

On Jan. 5th, 1913, the chariot of God swung down and claimed for its victim Guy, the 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Timberlake. He had been ill for 5 weeks and his death came not unexpected. He died like he lived peacefully and quietly, and the expression of his face wore a crown of lovingness. His last words were "Tell all my dear friends to meet me in heaven." He was a member of Mt. Zion M. E. Church and lived a Christian life of the purest type, and was loved by all who knew him. He was so kind and affectionate towards every one that the stroke in his death makes the grief greater. He leaves father, mother, 4 sisters and 8 brothers to mourn his loss.

May the Lord comfort and sustain, by His grace, the sorrowing ones.

Mollie Noell.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given by the Town of Roxboro, that application will be made to the General Assembly of North Carolina, now in session, to amend the charter of the said town, so that the Board of Town Commissioners may have authority to require the property owners on any street of the said town to be taxed with the cost of concrete or other improved sidewalks, when a majority of the property owners on said street petition the Board of town Commissioners for same, provided the town pays for the grading of said street to be improved.

This January, 10th, 1913.
Marcus C. Winstead,
Mayor.

Annual Meeting of Bank of Roxboro.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Roxboro will be held in office of the Bank on Saturday Jan. 25th, 1913, at 1 p. m.

E. B. Reade,
President.

Subscribe to-day for your County Paper, The Courier.

LOWEST PRICES ON

Alpha Cement	Hearth tiling	Pulpits
Blinds	Heart flooring	Rough lumber
Boxing	Inside flooring	Sash
Brick	Ivory wall plaster	Sash cords
Cahill grates	Laths	Sash weights
Casings	Line	Screen doors
Ceiling	Locks & hinges	Screen windows
Church pews	Mouldings	Shingles
Colonial columns	Oak mantels	Stair balusters
Cypress siding	Pine mantels	Stair rews
Door frames	Plastering hair	Stair rails
Felt roofing	Plaster of Paris	Tin shingles
Gable ornaments	Porch balusters	Ventilators
Gable sashes	Porch brackets	Weatherboarding
Gav'd roofing	Porch columns	Window Frames
Glass	Porch rail	Wood & glass doors

Everything to Build with.

Watkins & Bullock,

PHONE 94.

PHONE 94.

Begin The New Year Right OUT OF DEBT!

While our collections have been better this fall than very before there are still a number of accounts on our books unpaid which have been standing longer than they should. If one of these accounts is yours we urge you to settle it as soon as you possibly can. You do both your creditor and yourself an injustice to be indifferent about what you owe and not pay your bills promptly. It is a great pleasure to deal with and extend credit to those who pay promptly but deliver us from those who never pay or are even indifferent and slow about meeting their obligations. We thank you for the business which you gave us during 1912 and hope that we have so merited your good will as to be favored with even a greater share of your business in 1913. Our New Year Resolution is to improve our service all we can and to serve those who favor us the very best we can.

Harris & Burns

This year make our Store

Your Headquarters for

HARDWARE.

We are prepared to serve you to best advantage in Shelf Hardware, Farm Machinery, Plows, Cultivators, weeders, in fact anything you are going to need on the farm.

LONG, BRADSHER & CO.

W. T. PASO