NO LOSERS-Cash Commissions to Non Prize Winners

A GRAND FREE OFFER

The Roxboro Courier will give away $500 in free prizes. We offer a high-grade, reliable piano, regularly selling at $300 FREE TO YOU FOR 7 WEEKS WORK--and only ask your SPARE TIME at that. This piano has been purchased of MAYNARD BROS., Piano dealers, of Salisbury, N. C., and will be on exhibition here, the $75 Victrola Talking Machine is too widely known to need extensive description. The $40 Talking Machine would be a joy to any home. The $25 and $10 Gold Watches come in the widely known Elgin make, guaranteed 20 and 10 year gold filled cases, and are sold by and will be on display at THE NEWELL'S JEWELRY STORE, Roxboro. $35 in Special cash prizes will be given also.

THE PLAN.

The contest is nothing more nor less than a subscription campaign. The Courier wishes to get as many new readers as possible. Furthermore, we wish to collect every old account and to get folks in arrears to bring their back 'dating up-to-date. Every paper with any circulation of moment, has names of patrons who are "perfectly good" but a stern U. S. Mail service says, "get your newspaper accounts collected to date." The Courier would rather pay out several hundred dollars to enterprising folks right here at home, than to import a bunch of high salaried collectors and canvassers who would take the money out of the community when their work is done. The contest plans gets RESULTS, and keeps the money circulating right in this section.

TO BOOST YOUR VOTE.

In every issue of The Courier will be printed a ballot good for 25 votes. Anyone can write the name of their favorite in the race on this ballot, and that counts 25 votes for the lady named on the ballot. The first nomination ballot sent in by you (or for you by a friend,) starts you in with 1000 votes. After a name has been placed in nomination each ballot is good for 25 votes.

Every subscriber NOW getting The Courier, that pays you $1.00 on account gives you 3,000 Votes--$2--8,000 Votes--$3.00--12,000 votes, etc. Every new reader you get to TAKE The Courier gives you a similar number of votes per each $1.00 collected. (SEE THE VOTE SCHEDULE PRINTED IN THIS ISSUE.)

Therefore, to boost your vote in the contest, GET AS MANY NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS, RENEWALS AND COLLECT ON AS MANY OLD ACCOUNTS, AS POSSIBLE, along with all ballots cut out of each issue of The Courier.

HOW AWARDED.

The $300 Piano will be won by the worker in the race who has the MOST VOTES when the final count is made on Dec. 20, at 8 P. M.

The $75 Victrola Talking Machine will be won by the candidate having the SECOND MOST votes.

The $40 Talking Machine will be won by the candidate having the THIRD MOST votes.

The $25 Elgin Gold Watch will go to the candidate having the FOURTH MOST votes.

The $10 Elgin Gold Watch will go to the candidate having the FIFTH MOST votes.

$35 in Cash Special Prizes will be given during the contest.

ALL GET SOMETHING.

That The Courier does not ask you to work for nothing is demonstrated by the liberal offer (unusual even for large daily papers to offer,) of a CASH COMMISSION TO EVERY PERSON TAKING PART, that competes to the end, fails to win one of the five Grand Prizes, or a special cash prize, and turns in even as little as $25 in cash subscriptions.

(COSTS YOU NOTHING TO TRY.

IT COSTS YOU NOTHING TO TRY in this race. All will be treated fairly. THE COURIER GUARANTEES THIS. Subscription blanks and all information is FREE.

No Guess Work

About This

But an Absolute Certainty

What take it one day with another our store is the busiest place in Roxboro. Another certainty and no guess work is that there are many good reasons for this but the best is that we have the goods the people want, sell them at reasonable prices and give the best service we possibly can.

If it is something to wear or furnish your home it will pay you as well as us for you to inspect our offerings before you buy. It means that we will do business. We are anxious for your trade and always pleased to serve you.
