Number 43.

COURT IN SESSION

Criminal Docket Completed Tuesday—Winstead Fined $500 and Cost.

The October term of Person Superior Court convened Monday morning 10 o'clock with Judge Rountree, of Wilmington presiding. After court had been opened the grand jury was sworn by the clerk, after which they received their instructions from Judge Rountree.

There were only a very few criminal cases on docket to be tried at this term. One negro, Dixon, was sent to the roads for 6 months for stealing a cow. Another was fined $20.00 and cost for carrying concealed weapon.

Tuesday morning the case of State vs. Winstead was called and two charges were recorded against Winstead: for carrying a concealed weapon and that of an assault with a deadly weapon. His attorneys announced that he would plead guilty on both charges and have the Judge to hear the evidence. The entire morning was taken up with hearing the evidence and speeches from Messrs. Sam Gattis and A. L. Brooks for the state and Messrs. W. D. Merritt, L. M. Carlton and V. S. Bryant for the defendant. After hearing the evidence Judge Rountree fined the defendant, $250 and cost in each case.

The civil docket was taken up Tuesday afternoon and will probably be completed this afternoon. The Rogers-Hall case was called for trial this morning.

Messrs. W. W. Kitchin, V. S. Bryant and A. L. Brooks are the sitting attorneys attending this court.

Gov. W. W. Kitchin Here on Next Monday.

If there is any one man in North Carolina who is more loved by our people than another that man is Gov. W. W. Kitchin. For years he lived here as one of you, and for a number of years he was your faithful and trusted representative in Congress, and our people have a right to love him, for he is, and always will be, one of us. He will speak to you at the court house on next Monday, November 2nd. Hear him, he will tell you something.

A Correction.

In our last issue we returned thanks to our good friend Mr. J. H. Carver, for a box of fine cigars, which we surely did enjoy. However, we learn that while Mr. Carver was the bearer of the gift that it came from the fair managers, Mess. J. W. Chambers, C. C. Cunningham and Joe H. Carver. We greatly appreciate this gift, not simply because the cigars were good and we enjoy a good smoke, but for the friendship which prompted the gift.

Jackson-Foushee.

Married-On Wednesday afternoon, October, 14th., at the home of Mr. Haywood Foushee, the brides father, Mr. Robert Jackson and Miss Carrie Foushee were united in the bonds of matrimony, in the presence of a large gathering of admiring relatives and friends, who had gathered for the occasion. Rev. D. F. Putnam performed the ceremony, after which the happy young couple, went immediately to the home of the grooms father where a large number of their friends were invited to supper, given for them. The couple has already begun house-keeping, and begin life together with bright prospects. We extend to them best wishes for a bon-voyage in life's way.

Mr. Bun Mangum, and Miss Flora Dean, of the Mt Tirzah section, were married at Hotel Jones, Sunday Oct. 11, by Rev. D. F. Putnam.

Hon. R. B. Glenn Speaks.

According to previous announcement Hon. R. B. Glenn spoke here on last Saturday evening, and of course made a great speech. As a campaigner he has few equals and his services are in great demand. He gave a short epitome of the acts of the Democratic administration, and all who heard him were fully convinced that the Wilson administration had made good. We wish every man in the County could have heard him, for his speech was an eye opener to those who have not kept track of the doings in Congress since the Democratic party came in power. It was a great speech and will tell on next Tuesday.

E. H. Satterfield Praises This Market.

Mr. E. H. Satterfield, recognized as one of the very best farmers in the Prospect Hill section, was in town Monday with a load of tobacco, and as he received about twenty-five per cent more for his load than he expected is evidence that he was satisfied. He favored us with a call and stated that his crop this season was more than an average crop. He states that in his section more wheat than usual will be sown and he thinks few farmers but what will give more attention to raising home supplies.

Death of R. E. Cheek.

On last Thursday evening at two forty five o'clock Mr. R. E. Cheek breathed his last. He had only been ill just one week, having been taken suddenly ill on Thursday night. While his friends knew of his illness, still few of them thought he was seriously sick, though his physicians were uneasy about him from the first. His death was caused by heart failure, having been subject to this illness since childhood.

Rupert, as he was known to everybody here, was a quiet, unassuming, loveable young man, devoted to his parents and loyal to a marked degree to his church and church work.

His death was peculiarly sad having been married a little less than a year, leaving a wife and twin boys to mourn his unexpected death, besides father, mother, four sisters and one brother. He was 29 years old.

The funeral exercises were conducted from the Baptist church, conducted by his pastor Rev. D. F. Putnam, assisted by Rev. Mr. Upchurch, a schoolmate of the deceased, and his body laid to rest in the cemetery on Saturday morning, followed by a large concourse of friends and loved ones. The floral offerings were numerous and decidedly beautiful. The sympathy of loving friends goes out to the entire family, and especially to his young wife and infant boys. His married life, so short, but beautiful to see the devotion and love shown one for the other. May He who has promised to be a father to the orphan and a friend to the widow comfort in this sad and lonely hour.

Tobacco Is Selling Well

Honestly and truly tobacco is bringing a satisfactory price and we believe our farmers will make no mistake in getting it on the market. There is a world of common tobacco in this crop, and as usual, common grades are not bringing fancy prices—they never do, but tobacco with color and body is selling well.

We do not take much stock in advising farmers, for they are sufficiently able to judge for themselves, but you will remember for several years tobacco has sold better before the holidays than after, and there are many reasons to expect the same this year. With the war likely to last for some time there is no reason to hope for better times to come from across the big waters, and our home manufacturers may get their quote and then down will go prices.

Trial of T. D. Winstead.

On last Saturday the preliminary trial of Mr. T. D. Winstead was heard before Mr. J. W. Younger. This was only a matter of form, and Mr. Winstead was bound over to court in a bond of one thousand dollars.

One man from here who attended the fair at Raleigh on last Thursday, making the trip in his Reo car, said he passed fifty machines in making the trip and just exactly forty nine were Fords—and this is not an ad for Mr. Ford, either.

WAR, NOT DEMOCRATIC PARTY, CAUSING LOW-PRICED COTTON.

It is utterly amazing to hear Republican politicians, who really know better, attempting to attribute the present price of cotton to the Democratic administration of Woodrow Wilson. Every intelligent person knows that at least two-thirds of all the cotton grown in the South is exported to Germany, Belgium, France, Japan, and England. There is now no market for our cotton in any of these countries except Japan. They are now engaged in an unparalleled and unprecedented war—a war that staggers civilization, and is leaving in its wake misery, poverty, suffering, and death—so sad and dark and awful that good and pious men wonder why God in His infinite love and mercy permits it to continue.

Wars of Alexander the Great, Caesar, Hannibal, Napoleon, and our great Civil War were but skirmishes as compared to the colossal drama of death being enacted in Europe to-day. Think of it! Every continent on earth is involved in this campaign of cruel destruction, save and except America! Is it any wonder, then, in view of the situation abroad and this almost complete paralysis of our cotton trade, that the South is a keen sufferer by reason of this war? Last year the South received from England, Germany, France, Belgium and Japan, all of whom are now at war, approximately six hundred million dollars in gold for its cotton crop. These countries were then at peace, and the ocean was free from the terrible armed fleets of battleships that now prey upon commerce. This stream of gold that has been yearly pouring into the pockets of the Southern farmer has dwindled almost to a vanishing point, and every intelligent man who stops to think knows why this stream of gold has been interrupted.

Say, fellow Democrat, vote straight, watch your ticket and see that it is a straight Democratic ticket.

Person County Men Win Prizes at South Boston Fair.

The premium list of the Halifax (Va.) County Fair which has just been published shows several of our local exhibitors to be winners of substantial prizes. Mr. J. J. Hawkins of Hurdles Mill won first on single ear white corn, premium $10, and second on ten ears white corn, premium $5, and Moore Bros. of Roxboro won first on turnips.

In the Tobacco Department where there are special prizes offered for Person County farmers, Mr. W. A. Black won first on bright wrappers, premium $15, and Frank Pettiford got first on cutters, premium $10. Some of these exhibits were brought from the Roxboro Fair and it is the intention of the management of the Halifax Fair to make it easier for Person County people to compete at South Boston next year. A representative will attend the local show and take entries and see to their transportation.

Reports from visitors to South Boston indicate that they have a better Fair than ever before and plans are now being laid to make it better than ever next year. They have nicknamed their Fair, "The best County Fair in Virginia" and are prepared to defend the title against all comers. The weather was very favorable and the attendance very good. Luckey the Aviator proved to be a great attraction. He made a cross country flight to Virginia on Tuesday and was seen by many in North Carolina. He continued to make two flights a day throughout the week.
