ROXBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, Wednesday Evening November 18, 1914.

Number 46.

Bradsher—Newman.

An event of much interest to the people of Leasburg and surrounding community was the marriage of Miss Emma Newman to Mr. Raymond Bradsher on Wednesday afternoon Nov. 11th.

The unusually beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Martin in the Methodist church.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and autumn leaves and lighted by soft candle lights. The wedding party entered to the march from Magnee's Oper Lohegrin, played by Miss Huldah Hester and left the altar to Mendelssohn's Triumphant Wedding March. The two bridesmaids, Misses Bertie Bradsher and Mattie Pulliam entering by separate aisles, took their places by the altar, where the ushers Mess. Robert and Lewis Newman awaited them. The maid of honor Miss Hallie Newman, entered alone followed by the bride on the arm of her father, who was met at the altar by the groom with his best man, Mr. Fletcher Stephens.

The bride is a young woman of singular attractiveness, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Newman of Leasburg.

The groom is a promising young farmer of Leasburg, who has made his home in Person for several years past.

Many lovely presents testify the popularity of the young couple. The wedding came as the happy culmination of a long romance, though both parties are still very young. Leasburg is glad to welcome them as permanent residents.—X.

A Card of Thanks.

We desire to return our heartfelt thanks to the good people of the community of Timberlake for their kindness and attention to our wife and mother during her long sickness and death.

Neighbor vied with neighbor in love, sympathy and good deeds, while we will never be able to recompense them in this life we pray God that their Samaritan acts may be as bread cast upon the waters.—J. S. Noell and children, Timberlake, N. C.

Foushee—Whitt.

On Nov. 8th at 3:15 o'clock a beautiful wedding took place at Mr. and Mrs. D. Whitt's, when their attractive daughter, Nannie Graves became the bride of Mr. Charlie Lewis Foushee.

The ceremony took place in the parlor which was decorated in ferns. Rev. J. J. Hall, officiating. That beautiful song Juanita was played by Miss Hallie Jackson and sung by Mrs. A. E. Jackson. Then entered Miss Ruth Foushee on the arm of Mr. Sterling Wade, dressed in blue, then Miss Lelia Whitt on the arm of Mr. James Foushee, dressed in lavender satin with hat to match. Just when the last notes died away the bride and groom entered. The bride wore a blue suit trimmed in white with hat and gloves to match, she carried a huge bouquet of white chrysanthemums tied with white ribbon.

The bride is one of the most popular young ladies of this section, while the groom is one of Roxboro's prosperous farmers.

The happy couple left for the home of the grooms parents, where a delightful supper was given and a large crowd being present.

We wish for them a long and "Happy Life."

Farmers Union.

Last Saturday a body of farmers met in the court house at Roxboro and organized a mercantile firm, called the Roxboro Supply Co. This firm will do business with the Rockdale co-operative plan with headquarters at Roxboro, W. T. Swanson is President, A. L. Rudd, Secretary and Treas., C. B. Brooks, W. R. Day, and P. Featherston are the Board of Directors.

This is a Farmers' Union plant and will be located on their dry-prizely lot. The aim is to open business as soon as a suitable building can be erected.

The farmers of Person County seem to be up and doing.

Eighth Grade News

The Athenian Literary Society was organized in the Eighth Grade a few weeks ago for the purpose of stimulating literary work and to encourage the students by offering two medals, one will be awarded to the pupil making the highest average during the session and the other to the student making the greatest improvement. Only those students making an average of eighty per cent are eligible as members. It is desired to give the students of a lower average some incentive for better work. The colors selected are green and gold—the flower yellow chrysanthemum. The motto is: "Ad astra per aspera"

The members are as follows:

Pearl Carver, Cary Crowder, Charlie Harris, Lillian Harris, Mary Hudson, James Johnson, Ruth Loy, Velma McBroom, Eglantine Merritt, Laura Newton, Elizabeth Noell, Henry O'Briant, Louise Thompson, Kathleen Williams, James Yancey, and Mildred Younger.

The following officers were elected:

President—Laura Newton. V-President—Mildred Younger. Secretary—Eglantine Merritt. Treasurer—Kathleen Williams. Censor—James Yancey. Critic—Miss Hudson.

At the meeting held on Nov. 12th, Messrs. Alderman and Stavely, Miss Owen, Rev. Putnam and Yearby and the seven members of the school board were elected as honorary members. An open meeting will be held soon and we hope to see all our honorary members present.—Secretary.

Making Changes

For New Store

Mr. Kimery has the contract and began work Monday morning on some changes in the two stores in the Post office building. These two rooms will be made connecting and a stairway will run from them to the rooms above. When completed these rooms will be occupied by some live merchants who will carry a general line of merchandise, but special stress will be made in a line of goods which will appeal to the ladies.

Flag Presentation.

On last Friday evening the Junior Order presented the Roxboro Graded School with a bible and flag. At 2 o'clock a large congregation gathered in the auditorium and listened to the exercises by the Order and the school children, followed by short speeches by some of the citizens. At the close of the exercises the crowd gathered in front of the school building and witnessed the raising of the flag and now Old Glory floats from the top of the building.

Store Burned.

Monday night the store building and contents of Mr. N. R. Villines at Jalong were burned. We have not learned how the fire originated and what was the amount of the loss. This loss falls heavily on Mr. Villines, as this is the second time he has suffered a loss by fire, his store at this same place having burned about two years ago.

Off For Conference

Revs. N. C. Yearby, J. J. Boone and C. R. Ross are in Washington, N. C. this week attending Conference. We learn the past year has been very satisfactory with each of them, and their churches are expecting them to be returned to their fields.

A nice line of sporting goods and prices right at Farmers Hardware Co.

Dr. Teague Will

Do General Practice.

We have not made an announcement which will meet with more favor than the announcement that Dr. R. J. Teague has decided to enter the field of general practice here. For a number of years he has been doing special work in his profession with his office in Durham. Recently his physician advised that he must have more out door exercise, as the close confinement of his office was not good for him. Acting upon this advice he has, we think, wisely decided that Roxboro is good enough for him—and it is good enough for any one, and he will open an office in his old office over the Davis Drug Company.

There are few men in the State so well fitted for the practice of medicine, he having studied his profession in Germany and England, and stands in the front ranks of the medical profession.

Our people are to be congratulated upon Dr. Teague again offering them his services.

Chautauqua For Roxboro.

There is a possibility that Roxboro may have a Chautauqua Assembly next summer. The association that would come here has held session in quite a number of our neighboring towns, Reidsville, Henderson, Burlington, Leaksville, in all thirteen in North Carolina and two hundred in eleven states from New Hampshire to North Carolina. These Chautauques are organized by the co-operation of public spirited men and women in each community and under the direction of Paul M. Pearson. The same spirit is back of it as the mother Chautauqua in New York. There is something in it that meets the needs of the people—all the people. The program is inspirational, educational and also means a good time to everybody. These assemblies have a unifying influence in a community and bring out its best interest and advertise the town; people come from far and near to attend the sessions.

The lectures are informing, the concerts are the best music and the entertainments are clean and refreshing. In the mornings Junior sessions are held for the children. These are conducted along the line of the organized play ground movement, the children are taught new games, also lessons in good citizenship.

Many great men give much of their time to Chautauqua work. Among those who have been with this Association are; the founder Bishop John H. Vincent, Judge Ben Lindsay of the Juvenile Court of Denver, Secretary of State Bryan, Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Dr. Russell Conwell and many others.

There is every good reason why Roxboro should have a successful Chautauqua week next summer.
