FRICK'S FRENCH CHEF TO WAR

Millionaire's Noted Cook Causes Dismay By Going Home to Fight for Country.

Boston.—Inspired by patriotism of so high an order that he willing gave up his highly paid position, the famous French chef employed by Henry Clay Frick at his North Shore summer home resigned his place and announced his intention of returning to France to fight.

The consternation in the Frick family at this unexpected move, however, was duplicated in several other homes, where nearly all the men servants have either gone or have announced their intention of leaving.

Henry C. Frick.

The Frick chef is the highest salaried-servant of the lot, receiving a salary that is said to rival that of some bank presidents and many business men who are considered in comfortable circumstances. Many of those, however, who are going back to Europe are well paid, and in addition live in quarters that will make life in the army seem especially miserable.

The fashionable residents of the North shore are in a quandary as to what to do without their servants. The maids are left, but in few instances do these know how to cook, and more than one society woman, it is rumored, is making experimental trips into the kitchen.

The French predominate among the North shore servants, but some are German and a few Italian and English. The war has been responsible for no little wrangling among them.

WOMAN FELL SIX STORIES

Tumbled to Her Death and Fatally Crushed Neighbor Sitting on Steps Below.

New York.—In trying to step from the fire-escape platform of one building to that of an adjoining one to enter her rooms, Mrs. Mary Falvey slipped and fell six stories to the sidewalk. On the doorstep directly beneath was sitting Charles McNally, a neighbor. He was talking to Mrs. Falvey's six little children, who had remained below while their mother went to open the door, from the inside, having forgotten her keys.

When Mrs. Falvey fell she uttered no cry and there was no warning below that she was falling. Her body struck the back of McNally's neck, doubling him over so that his forehead hit the sidewalk. The back of Mrs. Falvey's head hit the doorstep and she rolled off McNally's body, striking the feet of her children. Both were dead of broken necks when picked up.

Miners Sentenced to Jail.

Fort Smith, Ark.—Seven miners, including Peter R. Stewart, former president of the Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas district of the U. M. W. of A., were found guilty of contempt of court at Fort Smith and sentenced to serve from thirty days to four months in jail. The men were charged with being implicated in riots in the coal fields several months ago, after the operators had obtained an injunction to prevent their interference with the operation of the mines.

GERMANS DEFENSIVE BOTH EAST AND WEST

RUSSIANS GAIN ADVANTAGE IN GALICIA AND ARE PRESSING IT—TEUTONS RETREAT.

ARGONNE REGION IN DOUBT

Germans Claim Success in Only One Point.—French Retake Positions They Had Lost.

London.—The German and Austrian armies are now on the defensive on the east and west. They have given up, at least for the present, their effort to break through the Allied lines around Ypres, in Belgium, where the British and French have taken the offensive, and, according to the reports from French headquarters, have commenced to advance. In the east they have fallen back over their own frontiers in East Prussia and in Poland, while Russian cavalry had penetrated Silesia to the north of Kalisz and cut the German railway.

The Russians also are following up their advantage in Galicia, and it is said, have cut the retreating Austrians off from Cracow, while the Germans are retiring through Poland. At only one point at two battle fronts do the Germans claim success. That is at the west of Argonne region, where they have taken from the French an important height near Vienne-Le-Chateau.

French troops have re-taken the positions which they had lost during the course of the week. That is notably so in the Aisne Valley around Soissons, where they have regained the ground which the Germans by fierce assaults have taken from them.

The Belgians, holding the line reaching to the coast also have made progress.

The fighting was carried on in a fog, which interfered with the work of the armmen and likewise with the artillery.

While the Allies' offensive in the west has given hope in London that the Germans will fall back to a line further removed from the sea, all uneasiness has not passed, for they previously have shown wonderful recuperative powers. The presence of the Russians in East Prussia and Silesia, however, will, it is believed here, prevent the Germans from sending any more troops to the west, if it does not compel them to withdraw some already at that front.

The Austrians apparently have sent stronger force against Serbia, and have driven the Serbs out of Slavonia. Of what is going on in Bosnia, which the Servians and Montenegrins invaded almost to the capital, Sarajevo, nothing has been disclosed for weeks, but operations against their northern border might have had an effect on the Servians plans there.

Nothing of moment has occurred in the Near East, but Turkey is being attacked in isolated spots by the Russians and British. The Turks also are apparently coming very close to war with Greece, the situation having been aggravated by the sinking of a Greek steamer by the Turks and the threatening of Greeks in Asia-Minor. Neither Bulgaria nor Roumania has yet made any move.

The Union Defense-forces continue to round up the rebels in South Africa. Those in the northern part of the province which have been a worry to the government have been completely routed, while those in Transvaal, where another 400 have been captured, are scattering.

In Orange Free State, however, several small commandoes have been looting towns and damaging railways.

Made Vigorous Attack.

Paris.—A Havas dispatch from Nish, Serbia, says: "The enemy made a vigorous attack November 4, southeast and south of Shabats, but by a counter attack we put the Austrians to flight. They left 500 dead and 200 wounded. During the same night and again on November 6 the Austrians attacked our positions at Borgas and Goutchevo, but were repulsed with heavy casualties."

Big Russian Victory.

London.—The Rome correspondent of the Weekly Dispatch says: "According to the Russian embassy the Russians took 30,000 Austrian prisoners, 200 guns, six trainloads of supplies and 40,000 rifles in a victory on the San in Galicia. The Russians attack on Przemysl has been renewed violently. On the East Prussian front thousands of bodies of Germans have been burned because the frozen ground prevents burial. As no armistice is granted for the removal of the wounded many die of cold."

Out After Japanese.

Amsterdam, via London.—The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger commenting on the fall of Tsing-Tau says: "Germans will never forget the heroic fighting at Kiao-Chow and those who defended the colony. Never shall we forget the brutal violence of the yellow robbers nor England who instigated them. We know we cannot settle our account with Japan at present. Our mills will grind slowly, but even if years should pass before the right moment comes, a shout of joy will respond 'doe to you, Nippon.'"

It Really Does Relieve Rheumatism.

Everybody who is afflicted with Rheumatism in any form should by all means keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment on hand. The minute you feel pain or soreness in a joint or muscle, bathe it with Sloan's Liniment. Do not rub it. Sloan's penetrates almost immediately right to the seat of pain, relieving the hot, tender, swollen feeling and making the part easy and comfortable. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.

The Call To Economy.

In all the plans suggested and schemes proposed in the present money scarcity and low price of cotton, nothing appears so clear as the call to economy. It is useless to depict the waste that goes on daily around us. We do not speak of the waste of life, of energy, which various bodies and societies seek to stay. Tuberculosis, fevers, drainage, are all receiving constant and intelligent attention. And, too, other diseases are being fought by science in resultful ways. But the waste we now directly point to is in our domestic economy. This is the individual waste. It does not come from physical conditions. Inoculation and drainage will not stay its ravages. We see daily evidences of it in the tools and implements left unsheltered on the farm, in the stock unhusbed, in the great mass of unconsumed food that goes daily from our tables in town and country. New England has grown rich and has money in abundance for its schools, colleges, churches and pleasures simply because there has been no waste in the kitchen or at the table. The homes there have not been penurious, nor parsimonious, but they have been rigidly economical.

Two ideas are involved in economy. One is to have thereby something for the future. The other is to secure happiness by reason of being above want. Our people are spending too much; they are wasting too much; they are not saving as they should. The unhappy farmer today is the man whose store account is larger than his cotton crop. The happy farmer is one whose cotton crop is larger than his account, no matter what the price. And the same thing is true of the man in the city. It is the old, old story, "Debt is a hard taskmaster." Dickens describes it with great vividness when he places Wilkins Micawber in jail for debt. That optimistic, but impecunious, debtor wrote upon the walls of the old Fleet street prison in London the following: "Income 20 shillings, outgo 19 shillings and six pence, result happiness. Income 20 shillings, outgo 20 shillings and six pence, result misery." It is a homely illustration, but it has in it the germ of a great truth. Spend less than you make and have less care and real sorrow. Spend more than you make and have less joy and less comfort. Stop the waste that daily goes on around us.—News and Observer.
