PROHIBITION BILL GOES INTO EFFECT TOMORROW

The Most Drastic Prohibition Law North Carolina Has Ever Had Goes Into Effect Thursday.

The old law, which only allowed one person to receive one gallon of whiskey at a time, has not been enforced in Roxboro. On several occasions to our own knowledge one person has received more than one gallon at one time, a complete violation of the old law, and these persons have been allowed to go unharmed by our officers.

It is the duty of our police officers to see that this law is enforced, and that the men violating same are punished. And it is also the duty of our Town Board of Aldermen to see that the police officers enforce this law. It is not a difficult matter to attend to this and it should be done.

This new law is a good one and will help make North Carolina a prohibition state in reality as well as in name, that is if the officers of the towns and cities will see that the law is enforced.

Reading Matter a Little Short.

We are not much giving to apologies, but you will notice our reading matter is a little shy this issue. Our advertisers, at the last moment, crowded pretty hard, but inasmuch as these things do not happen often we could not say them nay. However, you will find these advertisements good reading matter, probably better than what we would have written, at any rate if you will read them and give the advertisers a call you will at least make money by the transaction. Remember, when a merchant has anything which he especially thinks is worth while you will hear about it through these columns.

Brooks—Clement

We have received an invitation to the marriage of Miss Haynie Brooks and Mr. Macon William Clement at Concord Methodist church, on April 6th. Easter Sunday.

Friends, while celebrating the time we keep in memory of the resurrection of Christ, study your Bible with me to see if we thoroughly appreciate His life, His death, His resurrection and ascension.

We see that Jesus has borne our sins in His own body on the cross. "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all." Is 53-6.

The first half of this verse shows us our need of salvation, the second, the provision God has made for it. Have we gone astray like a sheep? Have we turned to our own way? If we have and have not repented, what are we? Look at the provision God has made for our salvation. Who is the one in this verse upon whom our iniquity has been laid? What then has God done with our sin? Is it any longer on us?

Jesus is a risen Savior, able to save to the uttermost. In believing in Jesus as a sin-bearer one merely gets pardon from sin, there is something else needed—we must have deliverance from sin's power—this we can get by believing in the risen Christ.

"Wherefore He is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them." Heb. 7-25.

To what extent is Christ able to save? Why is it that Jesus Christ is able to save to the uttermost? Are we willing to trust him as a living Savior, one to whom we can look day by day for victory over sin? It is not enough to know Jesus as a risen savior, we must know him as Lord also.

Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ." Acts 2-36.

What has God made Jesus? Are we willing to accept Him as our Divine Lord, the one to whom we'll surrender our heart, every thought word and act. No conversion is clear and satisfactory until one has been led to confess Christ before the world.

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God has raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made into salvation." Rom. 10-9,10.

It is not enough that one should be saved, one ought to have the assurance that he is saved, and be able to say confidently and joyously, I know I am saved, I know I have everlasting life. "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life, and he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him."

To accept Christ is not enough, one must know how to live a christian life. There are six very simple things to make a christian life a success. Confess Christ as your sin-bearer, risen Savior and Lord.

"Whoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my father which is in Heaven." Mat. 10-32. Study the word of God regularly and hide it in your heart. "Thy word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee." Is. 119-11.

"Pray without ceasing." Thess. 5-17.

Surrender your will to God and obey Him in all things. "And we are witnesses of these things and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey Him." Acts 5-32. "Be a constant and generous giver." 2 Cor. 9-6-8.

Go to work for Christ and keep working for Him. Mat. 25-14-30. —A Friend.

Mrs. Sallie Clayton Dies Suddenly.

Again has our town been shocked by the news of a sudden death. On last Saturday morning at about 8 o'clock Mrs. Sallie Clayton, widow of the late Mr. Haywood Clayton, dropped dead. Mrs. Clayton was in her usual health, having spent the day before visiting a relative near Woodsdale. Saturday morning she arose, went about her usual domestic affairs and made no complaint as to feeling unwell. When breakfast was announced she went to the table, soon thereafter was seen to reel over, and when help rushed to her was found to be in a dying condition. Mrs. Clayton was a most loveable lady, being especially fond of her children, and no mother ever gave more loving attention or consideration than did she.

She leaves five sons, Burley G., Eugene, Elmer, Hennie and James. Her husband died about 9 years ago, and only about one year ago a son, Hill, met a tragic death in Richmond by being run over by a freight car.

The funeral services were conducted from the Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. N. C. Yearby. Pall bearers: F. H. Hamlet, N. S. Thompson, W. H. Harris, A. W. Clayton, R. A. Burch and J. G. Moore. Floral bearers: W. R. Woody, C. W. Long, Edwin Harvie and W. Y. Pass.

Don't Pay to Advertise.

That is what one of the merchants here said to us the other day. Honestly, we felt sorry for him, because we knew if he expected to succeed that he was on the wrong track, but we told him if he honestly did not think it paid to advertise then we did not want his business, for we do not want any man's money who does not think he is getting value received. But he is a good fellow with good sense and it will not be many moons before you will see his ad in these columns.

HORSE FOR SALE CHEAP.

Rev. P. H. Fontaine Called to His Reward.

On Monday morning Rev. P. H. Fontaine, who had been seriously ill for several days with pneumonia, breathed his last at his home at Bethel Hill. Rev. Mr. Fontaine was a Baptist Minister and renown, being recognized as a born leader and a man of strong parts, not only in the pulpit, but as a man. Only a few weeks since he and his good wife celebrated their golden wedding, and few, if any, thought his end was so near. Truly Bethel Hill, Person County, Va., and the State, has lost a valued citizen, for his like does not appear every day.

Missionary Conference

The Missionary Conference which met with the Methodist Church on last Friday evening was an event of much interest to the ladies of the Methodist church and the people of the town. In a most appropriate manner and with beautiful words well chosen the pastor, Rev. N. C. Yearby delivered the address of welcome. Mrs. B. N. Mann, president of the society, presided at all the meetings.

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Dr. F. N. Parker of Trinity College delivered an address of unusual ability, which was greatly enjoyed by a very large congregation. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock, Miss Lillie Duke held a meeting for the young people. During the meeting Mrs. N. H. D. Wilson held a meeting for the Bright Jewels. The exercises came to a close Sunday night with an address from Mrs. R. B. John, of Smithfield, and this address was a fitting climax for this great meeting.

Probably no one lent more to the enjoyment of the large audiences at each session than did Miss Rosa Warren of Durham, who sang appropriate selections at each session. Miss Warren has a voice of rare culture and sweetness and completely captivated all who had the pleasure to hear her.

Revival Services.

Revival services will begin at the Methodist church Sunday, April 4, Dr. G. T. Rowe of High Point, N. C., who is to assist the pastor, will be here Monday and preach that night. Mr. D. Ward Milan of Atlanta, Ga., will lead in the singing. Services will be each afternoon at 3:30, and night at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to attend all these services.
