SUPERIOR COURT IN SESSION

Criminal Docket Completed Tuesday Afternoon.

The April term of Person County Superior court commenced Monday morning with Judge Cook presiding.

There were only a few cases on the criminal docket, which was completed Tuesday afternoon.

The civil docket was taken up Tuesday afternoon, and will probably be completed the latter part of the week.

We will give a complete report of the cost etc. in our next week's issue.

Wanted—Seed corn, will pay $1.00 per bushel in merchandise or fertilizer, J. L. Garrett.

Rev. L. Johnson Here Next Sunday.

On next Sunday, morning and evening, Rev. L. Johnson, D. D., will preach in the Baptist church. Dr. Johnson is one of the strong preachers of the Baptist denomination and the public is cordially invited to hear him next Sunday.

Commencement Address.

The people of Roxboro and the County generally owe Prof. A. B. Stalvey a lasting vote of thanks for giving them the privilege of hearing Mr. F. P. Hobgood, Jr., who will deliver the address before the graduating class of the graded school on May 28th. Mr. Hobgood is easily one of the finest, most polished, attractive speakers of the State and those who fail to hear him will miss a rare treat.

WHAT THE SPECIAL OFFER MEANS.

An unusually and attractive offer is made to the contestants this week and ends Saturday May 8th. Each subscription turned in by Saturday May 8th will count several thousand extra votes, as is shown below by the scale.

Reg. Votes	Extra Votes	Total Votes

Each two year subscription will count 12,000 votes on the regular scale and 31,000 extra votes, thus giving a total of 43,000 votes, etc. Figure it out for yourself, and see just what this Special Offer means to you. An Enjoyable Spelling Match.

Easter Monday afternoon at Pine Grove, where Miss Ruth Fulcher is teaching school, the people of the neighborhood gathered for a "spelling match".

Every one present took a part. Miss Ruth Fulcher with half the party on one side, and Miss Anna Maye Harris of Jacobville, who has been teaching at Hyco Ridge on the other side with the other half. Some good spelling was done on both sides, even the little boys and girls spelled well. Now and then one would drop out until only a few of the very best spellers on each side were left. A lively rivalry ensued for a while, both sides standing well but finally Miss Harris won the victory. Then came the "Easter Egg Hunt", which the children enjoyed very much.

Leo Frank Loses In The Highest Court of Land.

Washington, April 19.—Leo M. Frank, under death sentence for the murder of Mary Phagan, an Atlanta factory girl, lost another step in his fight for life in the supreme court of the United States today.

In a decision, to which Justices Holmes and Hughes dissented, the court dismissed Frank's appeal from the federal court of Georgia which refused to release him on a writ of habeas corpus.

Frank contended that alleged "mob violence" at his trial and the fact that he was absent from the courtroom when the jury returned its verdict had removed him from the jurisdiction of the courts of Georgia.

The majority opinion of the supreme court today rejected all those contentions and declared Frank had enjoyed all his legal rights in the Georgia courts.

Seemingly, no other avenue of escape from the death penalty is open to Frank through the courts. The state pardon officials might relieve him.

Hauling Fertilizer

At one time it looked like the farmers of this County were going to curtail the use of fertilizer this year, which meant a cutting down in the tobacco crop, but from indications during the past few days there seems to be little hopes of any decrease. Well, of course the farmers know their business, nevertheless, we regret to see this vast amount of fertilizer being hauled out for prospects for high priced tobacco are mighty slim, as we see it. Better raise more corn, clover and hogs.

From Allensville.

I have read very carefully the law in regard to the bond issue for Roxboro and such other townships as may wish to vote it, and while I worked and fought hard against the bond issue of one year ago I would be willing to work and fight equally hard for a fifty thousand dollar bond issue for Allensville township. According to my way of seeing it one year ago we were promised worse than nothing if the issue was carried, and I know many of our best men saw it in the same way, because the amount was too small to amount to any good towards permanent road improvement. But with a fifty thousand bond issue for each township, except Roxboro and seventy five thousand dollars for her, it would sound more like getting good roads; and the tax to pay these bonds would be nothing like what most of us waste each year for trifles. Nothing outside of a bond issue, I don't think, will ever give us good roads.

Nearly every one admits our road money is now wasted and will continue to be as long as our present system lasts, so the sooner we make a change the better, provided that change is a wise one. The increase tax for the average farmer I think would not be more than from two to five dollars per year. Of course, some would pay less and some more according to poverty or wealth, and this is not much compared with hauling over good and bad roads.

With the bond issue of one year ago there was nothing certain as to where or when we would be benefited if the act was passed, but under the present act our money would be used just where we had voted it to be used and nowhere else, and if we should be successful in selling these bonds the work would commence at once and within two years we should have many, if not all, our roads in Allensville township worked.

I believe Roxboro township is going to vote these bonds, then why not Allensville do the same thing and give us a good road from Roxboro to Oxford, as Grand
