VETERANS CROWD RICHMOND STREETS

Wearers of Gray Arrive on Every Train. Unveiling of the Beauregard Bust.

Richmond, Va.,—Richmond's streets were crowded today as in the 60s with the wearers of the gray uniform of the Confederacy, who came by hundreds on every train for the 1915 reunion of United Confederate Veterans.

General headquarters is alive with activity, registering old soldiers, issuing official badges, directing them to headquarters and assigning them to hotels, homes and camp stewards, as the case may be.

A striking incident of today was the unveiling in the Louisiana room of President Davis' mansion a bust of General Beauregard. Unhappily a Lousianian, in passing the bronzed plaster bust, knocked it off its pedestal and it was shattered. The Louisiana Woban's Association, in charge of the occasion, at once announced that the bust would be replaced and the unveiling proceeded.

LOST—Between Allensville and Mt. Zion churches, one Ford Car number. If finder will notify me I will gladly come after it.—J. J. Boone.

Washington Petitions For Frank's Clemency.

Washington, May 30.—Revenue Officer Ed. James, assisted by two deputies, yesterday discovered two "stills" in Chocowinity township, about five miles from Washington. They also discovered a quantity of liquor and a number of jugs and bottles. No one was at the still at the time of the raid. The officers left town again this morning, having received word of the location of another still in the vicinity of the other two. They also expect to discover the operators of the two stills which were found yesterday.

A petition to the Governor of Georgia, asking that the sentence of death to Leo Frank for the killing of Mary Phagan be commuted to life sentence, was sent from Washington last night. It was signed by seventy-five prominent citizens, including Congressman John H. Small, Judge S. C. Bragaw, Judge George Brown, Mayor Kugler.

Mr. Hall At Home.

Mr. Otis Hall, who was so seriously hurt in a railroad accident at Farmville, Va., several days since, arrived at home Monday night. Aside from a few bandages he seems to be all right, and no doubt will soon be fully recovered.

ROXBORO GRADED SCHOOLS CLOSE.

Hon. F. P. Hobgood, Jr., Delivers The Literary Address.

The commencement exercises of the Roxboro Graded School were held in the auditorium Thursday and Friday. The exercises Thursday were rendered by the primary grades and music pupils and were very interesting, the "Flower Operatta" by 20 girls was especially interesting. At 11 o'clock Friday morning the graduating class held their class day exercises. These exercises were much enjoyed by all and have received many warm commendations.

The final exercises were held Friday evening with the following program:

Prayer, by Rev. N. C. Yearby. Swing Song, chorus class.

Announcement of distinctions in attendance and scholarship, Prof. J. B. Alderman.

The following were the prize winners: Research club English medal, Robert Paschal Burns; Athenian literary society medal, Eglantine Merritt and Louise Thompson; Music medal, Effie Burton; R. E. Long scholarship medal, Robert Paschal Burns.

After the medals had been awarded Mr. S. G. Winstead introduced the speaker, Hon. F. P. Hobgood, Jr., of Greensboro, who delivered the literary address. The address was scholarly and interesting and was greatly enjoyed by his hearers.

Diplomas were then awarded the following: Margaret Dickens Bradsher, Olive Clarisse Brooks, John Irving Brooks, Robert Paschal Burns, Effie Thomas Burton, Joseph Manly Cheek, Ruby Lottie Hall, Robert Theodore Hambrick, Robert Wesley Lunsford, Addie Maie Rogers, David Clyde Swartz, Joseph Howard Swartz, Ralph Benjamin Tapp.

Revival Services.

Beginning next Sunday night revival services will be held at the Baptist church. Rev. C. E. Madrey of Raleigh will arrive Monday and will do the preaching there being two services each day, probably at 10 o'clock, a. m., and 8. p. m. Rev. Mr. Madrey is one of the strongest preachers of the Baptist denomination and the people are invited to hear him during this series.

Childrens Day.

Last Sunday Childrens Day was observed by the children at the Methodist Church. The exercises were very enjoyable, all of the children acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner. To Miss Mary Trotter and Mrs. Foreman belongs great credit for their splendid training. The musical program, under the supervision of Miss Mabel Harris, was unusually good.

Death of Mr. W. E. Farley.

On last Wednesday evening Mr. W. E. Farley died at his home a few miles west of town. He had been in declining health for the past year or two and his condition had been serious for some time. His friends were not surprised to hear of his death. He leaves a wife and several children.

Mr. Farley was one of the County's most successful farmers and was widely known. He was one of the most congenial and courteous men of our knowledge, and to many the announcement of his death will bring real sorrow.

Death of Mr. J. J. Brooks.

The death of Mr. J. J. Brooks, of Woodsdale Township occurred last Wednesday. Mr. Brooks was paralyzed on Wednesday May 19th and only lived one week after stroke. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Hall, and his body was laid to rest at Shiloh Church near Daysville, N. C. Large concourse of friends and relatives attended the burial and the floral tributes were many and beautiful.

Mr. Brooks was a prominent farmer and merchant, and was well known throughout this part of the state. He leaves surviving him widow, Mrs. Carmelia Davis Brooks, and six children, T. C. Brooks, attorney Roxboro, J. D. Brooks, merchant, Oxford, R. P. Brooks, merchant, Woodsdale, G. W. Brooks, Morganton; Mrs. G. C. Hampton, Hendersonville and Mrs. S. H. Brooks, Wyco, Va., Miss Sallie Brooks, Woodsdale.

Mr. Brooks was 89 years of age.

Honor Where Honor is Due.

As a member of the Athenian Literary Society, I wish to mention a few things that have been overlooked in the awarding of the medals by that organization. This society was organized in the eighth grade of the High School last fall and only those who attained a required average were eligible as members. It decided to award a medal to the student making the greatest improvement during the session and one to the student attaining the highest average in scholarship.

It was found that Paul Barnett had made a decided improvement over all other students in the grade. An almost unprecedented circumstance arose when it came to the decision of the winner of the scholarship medal, for it was found to be a tie between Eglantine Merritt and Louise Thompson. Therefore, one not having excelled the other and sharing the honors equally, it was only justifiable to award a medal to each. Laura Newton who has so well proved the wisdom of her choice as president of the Society, was an exceedingly close competitor for the scholarship medal.—Member.

Teachers Off For Their Homes

Since the close of the school the following teachers have left for their homes: On Saturday Miss Juanita Williams left for Apex, Miss Louise Connelly for Connelly Springs and Miss Ethel Ward for Marshal.

Tuesday morning Miss Mary Trotter left for Reidsville and Miss Alma Owen for Lexington.

All of the above were re-elected and have accepted and expect to return for the fall term.

Off For Richmond.

Last Sunday morning Mr. J. A. Long, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Long and Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Teague left for Richmond, making the trip in his Hudson.

Mr. J. W. Brooks, with a party of four, made the trip to Richmond in his Overland.

On Monday morning Mr. R. A. Burch left in his Studebaker with a party for the Re-union.

FRIDAY JUNE 25TH, LAST DAY OF CONTEST

Only Nineteen More Working Days Remain Before The Handsome Prizes Will Be Awarded The Contestants.

There now remains but nineteen more working days before The Courier's big prize contest will come to a close. Although there are only a few more days left in which to work, a tremendous number of votes can be secured during the time left.

DO NOT WAIT FOR THE LAST WEEK

A good many of the contestants tell us that so and so tells them to wait until the last week of the contest to do their best and hardest work for at that time they will receive more votes for their subscriptions.

We want to say that there are always some wise ones in every town who pretend to give advice that will benefit others. But in this connection we assure the contestants and their friends that the offers made this week will bring you more votes for subscriptions than you will receive the last week of the contest for the same subscriptions. The contestants should pay no attention, whatever, to advice coming to them from outside. Your informants are absolutely ignorant as to any and all offers that will be made in this contest, and by taking advice from persons who know nothing whatsoever about this contest you are liable to miss the prize that you prefer.

SPECIAL OFFERS FROM JUNE 3, TO JUNE 12TH.
