

From Allensville.

The tobacco crop is housed and some of it being put on the market, and in spite of all that the newspapers and tobacco buyers could say last spring by way of cautioning the farmers not to plant a full crop of tobacco it seems they took the advice just like farmers generally do and planted just a little more than usual, and the consequence is a very low price is now prevailing. Unsatisfactory prices at Roxboro caused several loads last week to go to Oxford and Virginia, but they came back with the same old story, low prices, and Uncle Taunch Slaughter said it wasn't a plague gone bit higher at Oxford than Roxboro. So from this on I guess you will see the great majority of the tobacco heading for Roxboro, for Uncle Taunch generally knows what he is talking about, and he says you will save hauling and get just as much money to sell in Roxboro.

Richard was in attendance at Providence on the 17th. Bro. Putnam started a protracted service there on that date, but the crowd was small and very little interest shown. However, I hope they will have a good meeting. Service is at 3 o'clock and 7 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. Richard and the little Richards, with Old Richard to accompany them and pay the bills, are to go to Raleigh about Wednesday and take in the fair.—Poor Richard.

President of Fair Association Thanks The People.

To the people of Person County: I take this method of expressing to you my sincere thanks for the help and patronage given to the Person County Fair Association. This session was a great success in every way and the aid of the many ladies who gave their time and energy and the faithful attendance of the marshals and people from the country, and the young men who gave their time, attention and took in the races are due the sincere thanks of this association. This association was started for the uplift and betterment of our county, and the services rendered by these ladies and gentlemen was a patriotic one to be appreciated by all our people.

All articles, for exhibition have been delivered, except a few which have not been called for. And if there is any complaint on the part of anyone we earnestly request such complaints to be made at once to me or Mr. C. C. Cunningham, secretary, and they will be immediately adjusted. We have tried to look carefully after every detail and they were many.

I rejoice that during the entire time good order prevailed and there was no accident or anything to mar the pleasure or success of the fair.

Now with the hearty co-operation of all our people I expect the next fair to be larger, better and more interesting in every respect. We want to make it an annual meeting of which everyone will be proud and glad to help.

Again thanking the people, I am,
Respectfully,
J. H. Carver
President.

Morish Items.

People of this community are busy sowing wheat and clover, while a very few are stripping and selling tobacco.

Miss Mary Carver of Rougemont spent last week visiting the family of Mr. W. A. Malone. Miss Cora Meadows left Wednesday for Wake County, where she will teach this winter.

The prizes offered at Bethany Baptist Sunday School by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Currin, in quarter ending September, for regular attendance and good lessons was won by Misses Mamie and Maude Meadows, Iola Gray, Carrie Bowling and Ila Arrington.

The death of little Clyde, the nine months old child of Buck Coleman, (col.), which occurred Saturday October 9th, about 5:00 o'clock p. m., is both shocking and mysterious. His mother put him on a pallet in a room heated by a stove and left him to gather ground peas a little distance north of the house. Happening to look towards the house she saw much smoke and hurried to the house to see the trouble, she found her babe nearly burned to a crisp, all but the head and upper part of its body. He was not dead but died in about two hours after the mother came to his rescue. The Dr. and others were called but of no need, the work of the fire was so complete no human aid could save. The father reached home from Roxboro in time to see him depart this life. He was buried near Coleman's home in a new grave yard Sunday. Much sympathy goes out to the stricken ones.—M. C.

County Teachers Meeting.

We your committee appointed to arrange program for the next Teachers Meeting beg leave to submit the following report:

Opening exercises, Mrs. J. A. Beam.

How to Secure and Hold Attention During Recitation, Miss Annie Broach.

How I teach Reading, Miss Lelia Russell.

How to Teach Arithmetic, with Special Emphasis on Fractions, Miss Eugenia Bradsher.

How to Stimulate Supplementary Reading, Miss Ruth Fulcher.

How to Encourage a Deeper Interest in North Carolina History, Mrs. J. A. Beam.

The Essentials of a Good Teacher, Miss Helen Graves.

As it is necessary, if these meetings are to prove as helpful as possible, that each teacher shall contribute something toward that end we earnestly desire that especially those assigned a place on the program will not fail us with a discussion on his or her subject.

J. A. Fogleman, ch'mn,
Miss Ruth Gentry,
Miss Olga Long,
Committee.

Says Simple Laxative Better Than Castor Oil

Case of Chronic Constipation Yields to Mild Laxative Compound.

Writing from the house of the Good Shepherd, at Sunnyside Ave., and 50th St., Seattle, where she is the guest of her life-long friend the Reverend Mother, Mrs. Mary Austin, widow of a wealthy San Franciscan, who lost everything in the fire of 1906, says she experienced speedy relief from the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and that she found this gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative more effective than several doses of castor oil.

The active principles of certain laxative herbs are combined in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to act on the eliminative organs in any easy, natural way, without griping or either discomfort. Its freedom from opiate or narcotic drug of every description, combined with its gentle action and positive effect, make it the ideal laxative for family use. Druggists everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle. A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should be in every home for use when the occasion arises. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.
