Inactive Kidneys Cause Disease

"I shall not soon forget the benefits I derived from the use of Foley Kidney Pills."—Al. A. Godfrey, Forest Grove, Oregon.

Too much work and too little work seem to have about the same effect on persons past middle age. Proper action of the kidneys is necessary to good health. They act as a filter and remove from the blood poisonous waste matter which if permitted to remain in the system leads to many complications.

Many nervous, tired, run-down men and women suffer from pains in the back and sides, dizzy spells, bladder weakness, sore muscles and stiff joints and fail to realize that rheumatism, diabetes or even Bright's disease may result.

If you have cause to believe that your kidneys are weak, disordered or inactive you should act immediately. Foley Kidney Pills have been used by young, middle aged and old with complete satisfaction. They act quickly and surely and have given relief in cases of ten years' standing.

Our stock of Toilet and Talcum powder is large and varied. Prices to suit all 10c to $1.25. Hambrick & Austin.

Allensville News.

On Dec. 10th, Bro. Beam held a teachers meeting at the O'Brian school. The meeting opened with a song by all the teachers, the one selected for the occasion being America, after which prayer was offered. Miss Mary Wilkerson had a class do some spelling, then Bro. Beam announced that Miss Evie Street would give a lesson on how to start our little ones in reading and spelling. It was no trouble to tell from the time she started her discourse that she was thoroughly acquainted with the task set before her. She is a woman of rare talents, and not only competent of teaching in our public schools but would do credit to any of our high schools. After her discussion dinner was announced, and after Bro. Street had thanked the Lord for so many great blessings and especially for the nice dinner then setting before us, we were told to help ourselves, which we did.

After a short recess we again met and heard speeches from Miss Mary's students. After which Bro. Street gave us a sermon on Community Spirit. He was at his best, in fact he did the best I ever knew him to do, and those who have heard him speak know what that means. Being a little short on speakers Poor Richard was then called on for a speech. He came forward with his little boy on one side and his little girl on the other, and started off by telling the audience that perhaps they thought he was going to have a Punch and Judy show, but said such was not the case, whereupon he asked Effie to say the first Psalm which she did. Then he asked Victor to give us the ten commandments which he did. Richard then started out to tell his people, the people of Allensville what they were most in need of, and that was of course a high school.

He tried to show them that a lack of confidence in themselves was the greatest trouble. And that regardless of what they thought of the speaker or Bro. Beam, they were bound to admit that Bro. Beam was the strongest man along educational lines that it was possible to get as superintendent and proved it by the great work which he had done at Bethel Hill. He also told them that in spite of hard times, no doubt but Allensville was in a better shape financially than the people around Bethel Hill were at the time Bro. Beam started the high school, and what the people of Bethel Hill can do also. And sooner or later there will be a big high school building here. Bro. Beam then came forward full of enthusiasm and told them that he too had a vision of a high school at Allensville, with roads radiating in every direction and with great wagon loads of happy, laughing, merry children going to this great school known as Allensville High School. With this the meeting closed after the benediction, all going away feeling that the day had been well spent.

From the best reports I have been able to get, I think we have the most satisfactory lot of teachers that we have ever had any one season. I hear no complaint from any of the schools, and one thing for certain they are a mighty handsome bunch to look upon.—Poor Richard.

THE ELECTRICAL WAY in the home is the way that takes the drudgery out of house work and does away with the old fashioned back breaking methods. The housewife that uses electricity, that most modern and willing of servants—applies scientific management to her home. She gets a maximum of result with a minimum of effort.

The electric lamp socket affords more than electric light.

The same electric current that brings light into the home can be used to clean it, wash, iron and mend the clothes; prepare the meals and do a hundred and one other useful things. Make yours a "HOME ELECTRICAL."

For a Christmas gift, electrical devices are the most useful and practical.

If your home is not already wired for electricity, you are needlessly keeping from yourself the greatest convenience in the modern world.

Roxboro Light & Power Company

Business is getting better and better. Conditions throughout the country everywhere are improving rapidly. Concerns that have refrained from building and extending are now pushing things to the limit of their capacity. As a direct consequence, the lumber market is climbing. Lumber manufacturers who heretofore have offered their product at a sacrifice are now unable to take care of orders at a good profit. Even now, they will not quote a price for future delivery. Fortunately, we put in a big stock some time ago when lumber and building material was cheap. We still have some of this left and for a short time we will be able to take care of your wants at the same cheap price. This cannot hold long however, and we urge you to anticipate your wants and buy what you will need NOW.

We can save you money if you will let us.

Will you do it?
