

State Library

The Roxboro Courier.

Noell Bros., Proprietors

Home First Abroad Next

$1.00 Per Year in Advance

VOL. XXXIII

ROXBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, Wednesday Evening February 2, 1916

Number 5

Profit a Thing of the Past

It is not with us a question of profit now, but an object to turn merchandise into cash, and at the same time enable us to always keep before you a brand new stock.

Our line of shoes is second to none ever brought to Roxboro and we are offering them at prices never before offered. Ladies, Misses and Childrens Coats, be reasonable you price them. Men's and Boy's Suits for less money than they can be bought wholesale.

We will save you MONEY on dress goods and Silks. Try us and see if it will not pay you to tie to us. "Saving Money is Easier Than Making Money". Try Us.

MORTON & SATTERFIELDS
New Stores in Post Office Building

Coca-Cola

The original cost no more than an imitation. Get it in bottles 5c everywhere.

Coca-Cola

Call for it by name Coca-Cola and see that you get the genuine.

Our name on the crown insures you that it is good.

Roxboro Bottling Works

We have a Sanitary plant, open at all times for your inspection.

Long, Bradsher & Co.

We have a good stock of Oliver Chilled, Bay Dixie and Farmer's Friend Plows and castings.

This class of goods, the chances are will advance and we believe it will be good business and will pay the farmers to lay in their supply immediately at the old price.

Long, Bradsher & Co.

HON. H. A. FOUSHEE IS TAKEN BY DEATH

WAS DEMOCRATIC LEADER

Esteemed Durham Citizen and Former Judge Yields to Prolonged Illness. Personality Overflowed With Milk of Human Kindness. The Soul of Humor in All His Relations; Universally Popular.

Judge Howard Alexander Foushee, two years a judge on the North Carolina Superior Court bench, distinguished lawyer and a leader in the councils of the Democratic party died at his home this morning at 10:50 o'clock. For seven years he cheerfully carried the cross of a delicate physical organization and the nagging inroads of the disease of primary anaemia made his death inevitable at an age of comparatively vigorous manhood. He was only 46 years old. A personality overflowing with the milk of human kindness and possessed with outspoken characteristics of an honesty and fidelity in the execution of tasks in engagements of common fellowship with humanity—his attachments to people everywhere won for him universal popularity.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Annie Wall Foushee; three young children, his father, A. R. Foushee, of Roxboro, and his brother, W. L. Foushee, a member of the law firm of Foushee & Foushee.

Howard A. Foushee was born May 13, 1870, at Roxboro, Person county. He was the oldest son of Alexander R. and Elizabeth Foushee.

Howard Foushee attended the public schools of Roxboro and later acquired valuable training under Thomas Horner, of Henderson and entered Wake Forest College in 1885 and graduated with the degree of Master of Arts in four years. He was valedictorian of his class and honors were thickly bestowed. The Greek medal was won by him and his repotorial ability gave him a place on the editorial board of the "Wake Forest Student."

Upon leaving college, he taught school for four years in Selma, Charlotte, Durham and Chowan Institute in Murfreesboro. He studied law under Judge Winborn and later at the University of North Carolina. He was licensed to practice his profession in the fall of 1893. He formed a partnership with Judge James S. Manning, now of Raleigh, then a member of the Durham bar.

His marriage to Miss Annie Wall, the only daughter of Henry Clay Wall, of Rockingham, was solemnized on April 13, 1904. His widow survives and these three children—Annie Wall, Francis Beak and Alexander R. Foushee.

Judge Foushee was closely identified with the business and political life of this community. His friends were legion. He rendered singular service to the Democratic party. He was the standard bearer in Durham county in 1896 that wrested the county from Republican rule. His services as chairman of the Democratic executive committee were invaluable. In 1896 he was nominated for the legislature and in 1898 by acclamation and was elected. He served in the lower branch of the General Assembly in 1897. In 1899 he was selected as the party's candidate for the Senate from the Senatorial district comprising the counties of Durham, Orange, Alamance and Caswell. Four years later he again represented the district in the Senate. In 1908 he declared publicly in favor of Judge H. G. Connor for speaker of the House. From 1893 to 1909 he was law partner of Judge J. S. Manning.

His partner was appointed to the Supreme Court bench in May 1909. His brother, W. L. Foushee, then practicing in Richmond, came to Durham and the law firm of Foushee & Foushee was formed. This partnership continued until the resignation of Judge Crawford Biggs in September, 1911. Then Howard Foushee was appointed to the bench by Governor W. W. Kitchin. He was nominated and elected by the people in 1912. He served two years and his failing health forced a retirement. His wisdom, patience and courtesy on the bench were the qualities prevailing in his dealing with the lawyer and the public.—News & Observer

UNION SERVICE

LARGE AND ATTENTIVE CROWD ATTENDS THE UNION SERVICE AT THE METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY NIGHT.

The first of the Union services which was held at the Methodist church Sunday night was a decided success, the church being filled to its capacity by eager listeners. It was delightful to see the spirit of unity displayed at this service, but it is only another evidence of the cordial relations existing among the people of Roxboro, and this spirit is not confined to the churches.

The singing was greatly enjoyed, being participated in by members of all the choirs of the town, especially was the solo by Mrs. Carrie Pettigrew Bradsher much enjoyed. The sermon was preached by Rev. D. F. Putnam, pastor of the Baptist church, and few abler sermons have been heard here than that by him on last Sunday evening. We do not recall a sermon preached here which we heard more universally complimented than this sermon by Mr. Putnam.

Altogether it was a deeply spiritual meeting and the members of all churches were helped by this service. The next Union service will be held on the coming fifth Sunday at the Baptist church, due announcement of the program will be given in these columns.

A Handsome Building.

The building which Judge J. C. Pass is erecting for the Crowell Auto Company, distributors for this territory for the Ford Company, is nearing completion, the front being about completed. This is easily one of the most handsome buildings in the town, being large and roomy. Notwithstanding the tight times, when these people came here and wanted to open up this business Judge Pass came to their rescue and contracted to erect just such a building as they wanted. Would that the town had more such men.

In Memory of Cora Dunn.

On December 21, 1915, the angel of death, quietly and peacefully came to the widowed home of Mrs. Cora Dunn and took her home to rest in the arms of Jesus. For eighteen months she had been a lonely widow, left to toil and labor for five little helpless children. Being their only protection her burden has been heavy. About three weeks before Mrs. Dunn died I was told that she was very sick and I called in to see her. She told me that if it was not for her little helpless children death would have no sting.—M.

Ministerial Association.

On Monday morning, Jan. 4th, 1916, a local Ministers Association was organized for Roxboro and Person county. Pastors O. W. Dowd, J. H. Bass, C. R. Ross, J. J. Boone and D. F. Putnam were present and organized by electing O. W. Dowd president, J. H. Bass vice-president, and D. F. Putnam secretary and treasurer. A committee was appointed to formulate a constitution and rules of order to report at next meeting, which will be held at the Baptist church on Monday after the first Sunday in Feb., at 10 o'clock A. M. All other ministers who have pastoral charges in Person county are cordially invited to attend this meeting and become members with us.—Secretary.

Be sure to pay your account at Harris & Burns' and get your share of chances at the $200 cash prize.

CHANGE IN THE ROXBORO LUMBER COMPANY.

On the first of the month Mr. Preston Satterfield bought an interest in the Roxboro Lumber Company and will become manager of same. This is an old established business, but under the management of Mr. Satterfield will doubtless enlarge its scope of business. While the lumber business is new to him, he is easily one of the foremost of the young business men of the town and his friends will be sadly disappointed if he does not succeed in his new role. He will succeed, for there is no such word in his vocabulary as fail.

Death of Mrs. Sid Wrenn.

Mrs. Sid Wrenn died at the home of her husband a few miles south of town on Monday morning. Mrs. Wrenn was a daughter of Mrs. R. C. Carver. She had been seriously ill for a long time, suffering with that dreaded disease, tuberculosis.

Have You Paid Your Account And Got Your Chances At the $200 Cash Prize

Let us remind you that for every dollar

Paid On Account

or for merchandise purchased that you get a chance at this prize.

This Sale Closes Feb. 12

THE PRIZE WILL BE AWARDED FEBRUARY 14

If you owe us an account you know that it is time you were paying it. Why not do it before Feb. 12th and get these chances. It costs you nothing and you may be the one who is so lucky as to get this Grand Prize.

We are selling some of the lowest priced goods that you have seen and you can get just as many chances as you want this way and save a lot of money on your purchases. We still have a big stock of good bargains and just as sure as you live goods are going to be higher.

Come and let us show you.

Harris & Burns

"Roxboro's Best Store"