THE LATE HON. HOWARD A. FOUSHEE.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS IN SESSION MONDAY

The County Commissioners were in their regular monthly meeting Monday morning, with all members present.

The regular routine of business was taken up and passed upon, there being no special business to come before the board.

It was decided by the board to have the Roxboro Township line surveyed. This is to be done in order to let the people who live close to the line, find out definitely in which township they inhabit, in order that the proper taxes may be paid, there being a difference in taxes in Roxboro township and other. Mr. A. F. Brown was authorized to do the surveying.

The regular road meeting will be held on the third Monday, February, 17th.

This meeting was an usually short one, the board being in session less than two hours.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

By order of the Republican Executive Committee, the Republican County Convention is hereby called to meet in Roxboro on Saturday, February 26th, 1916 for the purpose of naming delegates to the State Convention and District Conventions.

The voters of the various townships will meet at their respective voting precincts on Saturday February 19th, 1916, for the purpose of naming delegates to the County Convention. This Feb. 5th, 1916.

J. T. Woody, Chairman

UNION REVIVAL NEEDED

I want to meet with all the ministers and interested laymen the several churches of Roxboro, and country around to consider the matter of holding a great Union Revival some time this year. We want to hear from you, and lets come to some agreement on this great question of saving souls. For this purpose I shall be delighted to have you meet with us in the Methodist church 7 p. m. Wednesday Feb. 16th. We are going to discuss this question at that time, come. O. W. Dowd.

SUPERIOR COURT IN SESSION THIS WEEK

The February term of court for Person county convened Monday morning at 10 o'clock with Judge W. A. Devin of Oxford, presiding, and Solicitor Sam Gattis prosecuting.

Judge Devin's charge to the grand jury was one of the best heard in this county in sometime.

The criminal docket will probably be completed some time today. The civil docket will take up the remainder of the week.

A full account of all cases will be published in next week's issue.

IT PAYS TO TRADE AT HOME

That dollar which you sent to Durham, Richmond or elsewhere for printing, when do you expect to see it again? Had you given your order to The Courier the chances are that you or some of your allied interests would have had it in your drawer before night. Send us your next order and you will get just as good work and we will appreciate it just as much as the next one.

CHICKENS AND EGGS

The following merchants are perhaps the largest chicken and egg buyers in the county. Sell to the nearest one to you, top market price guaranteed at all times. We are your friends, give us your business. Our price today 8c cash or 10c per pound in trade for hens, same on large chickens. 15c pound for very small chickens. 25c for old roosters. Top market on eggs. A. H. Gentry, L. K. Buchanan, Street & Gentry, J. W. Clayton, W. A. Woody, J. S. Woody, Jno. Q. Yarbrough, Carver & Fox, Garrett Bros., L. H. Chandler, Duell Mangum.

DEATH OF MRS. ROYSTER.

Mrs. C. G. Royster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Andrews, died at the home of her husband at Bullocks on last Monday evening and was buried there on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Royster was raised here and was a very popular young lady, being of a genuinely happy disposition and many lovable ways. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews were with her at the time of her death.

The Final Days Of Our Great Cash Sale Will Be the Best

Only a few more days are left of the most successful special sale ever held in Roxboro. This sale has far exceeded our anticipations and we are delighted with the results. Still we are anxious and determined to make the last days the best of the sale. To do this we know that we have to make an extra effort and give extra bargains. We still have a big stock and in it are lots of the the very best of merchandise which we are determined to move before the sale closes.
