

As if by Magic

THE amount credited in your pass book, with the interest paid by this bank, will grow larger and larger, until a comfortable sum has been accumulated.

The savings habit grows as if by magic after you once begin, and you will soon realize the wisdom in thrift and economy and the folly of extravagance.

One dollar will open a savings account here. It will pave the way to an independent future.

THE PEOPLES BANK
CAPITAL STOCK $40,000 — SURPLUS $45,000
"A ROLL OF HONOR BANK"
ROXBORO, N.C.

THE COURIER

Roxboro, N. C., Feb. 23 1916

Everything to build with. Watkins & Bullock.

John Cash will repair your shoes.

Plant bed cloth is cheap at Harris & Burns.

Try an American Lady Corset. Morton & Satterfield.

Miss Annie Clayton left last week to visit relatives in Burlington.

Mesdames J. B. Barnette and P. H. Clay are spending today visiting friends in Virginia.

Mr. J. B. Terry of Florence, S. C. is visiting his friend, Mr. W. A. Sergeant.

Try an American Lady Corset next time. Morton & Satterfield.

Registered Poland China Bour ready for service. Fee $2.00 T. B. Davis, Allensville. 4ts.

Morton & Satterfield are giving some bargains in shoes.

Mr. W. L. Foushee of Durham, spent Sunday in town visiting his father, Mr. A. R. Foushee.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Davis spent Sunday in Woodsdale visiting relatives.

Morton & Satterfield will save you money on Dress Goods.

Mr. C. W. Allison spent the week end in Roxboro visiting friends.

Mr. Frank Wilson, a student at Oak Ridge, is spending a few days in town visiting relatives.

Mrs. C. W. Roberts has returned from a visit to her parents at Creedmoor.

Miss Annie Howerton of Yanceyville is the guest of relatives in town.

Miss Georgie Garrison of Burlington, spent a few days in Roxboro as the guest of Miss Lillian Clayton, Miss Garrison and Miss Clayton left Monday morning to visit different northern cities.

Miss Aline Webb is visiting her sister, Mrs. Allen, in Louisburg this week.

Mr. W. F. Long left Tuesday night for Richmond, Va., where he goes on business.

Large stock of roofing, nails and paints at lowest prices. Watkins & Bullock.

LOST—One white Fox Terrier with Black Spots. I will pay reward to anyone locating this dog. J. A. Long.

Plant bed cloth 2, 2 1-2 and 3 cents a yard at Harris & Burns. A mighty good grade at 3 cents.

Mr. T. W. Crowell returned to Danville Sunday morning after spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crowell.

Dr. Jack Hall returned to Woodsdale Sunday morning, after spending a few days in Roxboro.

Miss Bessie Winstead, who is teaching in Clayton, spent the week-end in Roxboro visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Stanfield and family have moved in their new residence near Brooksdale, which has just been completed.

Mr. Manly Cheek spent the first of the week in Roxboro visiting relatives. He returned to Buies Creek Tuesday.

SEED, SEED—Seed oats, clover, grass and all kinds of garden seed at Hugh Woods, the groceryman. Bring me your hens, will pay cash or trade.

"Yours are the best shoes I have ever worn". You have frequently told us this, tell your friends. Morton & Satterfield.

Messrs. Jack and Robt. Hambrick, students at Trinity College, spent the first of the week in Roxboro.

Mr. Elmer Clayton, student Trinity College, spent the first of the week in Roxboro visiting relatives.

Miss Minnie James, of Chicago, Ill., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. D. S. Brooks at Brooksdale this week.

Messrs. Wm. Brandon, J. W. Chambers and B. W. Murphy spent the latter part of last week in Kingsport, Tenn., on business.

Misses Lottie and Inez Harris of Hurdle Mills were the week-end guests of their grandfather, Mr. J. E. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carver and daughter of Philadelphia Pa. are the guests of Mrs. Wiley Winstead.

When you want building material cheap just call up No. 94 in the new telephone directory. Watkins & Bullock.

Messrs. W. S. Clary, C. C. Cunningham, T. W. Crowell and J. A. Noell, Jr., made a trip to Durham last Thursday evening to see "Bohemian Girl."

A meeting of the Business Men's Association will be held in the Club rooms next Friday night at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Grouchers, Grumblers and Kickers are more harmful than war, go to work and forget your troubles, be prepared with Fire and Life Insurance. Satterfield.

Messrs. J. A. Long, W. C. Woody, E. M. Davis and C. W. Long spent the latter part of last week in Charlotte. The trip was made in Mr. Long's machine.

Mr. W. A. Mills returned Saturday from Youngsville, where he has been buying tobacco for the Imperial Co. The Youngsville market closed last week.

See the Fine Statement in this issue of The Courier of the Jefferson Standard Life Ins. Co. for 1915. "She's a Hummer"! Satterfield.

Mrs. Annie Ross and daughter Miss Judith left Tuesday for their home in Sanford after a visit to Mrs. E. P. Dunlap.

If you are in debt, examine your Fire and Life Policies at once; see that they are in force, and for more see Satterfield, "DO IT NOW."

Why worry over something to eat. Just take a look over the great variety of cereals handled by Sergeant & Clayton and your worry will cease.

Mrs. T. H. Street who has been very sick while on a tour through Florida is improving rapidly and will soon be able to continue her journey.

Mrs. Copley and Miss Belvin, of Durham arrived in Roxboro Monday night to visit Mrs. G. C. Vickers. Miss Belvin returned to Durham Tuesday morning.

FOR SALE—I will sell at auction to the highest bidder at the court house door at 12 o'clock on March 1st, 1916 one five passenger Ford Touring car. The car is in good condition. W. T. Pass.

The ladies of the Methodist church served lunch Tuesday in the Newell Building on Main St. This was under the auspices of circle no. 1 with Mrs. Lillian Foreman leader and quite a nice little sum was realized.

Three prisoners escaped from winter camp near Woodsdale Monday. Road Superintendent Kimery was in Roxboro at the time, and was notified at once. An automobile was secured and Messrs Kimery and Guthrie Bradsher left at once on a hunt for the escaped ones. Before sun down two were caught near Cunningham. The third had not as yet been captured.

NOTICE, FOR SALE—Tent Cafe and Fixtures. Will sell cheap. Good bargain for someone. Apply at once to W. T. COZART, Roxboro, N. C.

EGGS FOR SALE—Pure Buff Orpingtons, 50c a setting of 15. E. R. Bradsher, Hurdle Mills, N. C. 1-26 3ts.

WANTED—Hens, 10c per pound in cash. Bring all you have to me. F. D. Long, Route 3.

Wanted: Good beef cattle will buy good Bull calves, good price as much as the other fellow—Walker & Loy.

The Campaign for new members to the Business Men's Club is now being pushed by different parties. There is no reason why every business man in Roxboro should not be a member, and too, men from anywhere in the county are invited to join. A good number have already joined.

The County Board of Commissioners were in session Monday, it being their regular road meeting. Mr. Coble, state engineer, is here and will make his preliminary road survey through Holloways township this week, for the purpose of building a permanent sand clay road, which will be apart of the Lee Memorial National highway.

Mrs. P. Y. Pass leaves Thursday morning for the northern markets, watch for her new spring and summer hats. Mrs. J. F. Reams and Miss Lillie Woody will accompany Mrs. Pass, Mrs. Reams going to Baltimore to visit her brother and Miss Woody, after her return from the northern markets will open a millinery in Whittakers, N. C.

"WANTED—a reliable and active man or woman in Roxboro to organize neighborhood magazine clubs. Members receive their favorite magazines at 1-3 less than the regular price and pay monthly. New plan. Work of organizing pleasant and highly profitable and can be done in spare time. Regular monthly income. In replying give qualifications and reference. MAGAZINE COMPANY, Box 155, Times Square Station, New York City."

"DIAMONDS AND HEARTS." The play, "Diamonds and Hearts" will be given at the Parish Agricultural High school Saturday night, February 26th, 1916. The following is the synopsis of the play:

SYNOPSIS
ACT 1, SCENE 1
The girls succeed in meeting the new doctor. Bernice refuses to be subdued by her stepmother's threats and gets out to make her own living.

ACT 2, SCENE 1
Bernice secures a boarding place. Dr. Burton's vacation.

SCENE 2
From arithmetic problems to heart problems. Bernice's accusation and arrest.

ACT 3, SCENE 1
The guilty brought to justice. "All's well that ends well."

MINISTREL SKETCH—TEN MINUTES
The play will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Admission 25c.

The Best Hot Weather Tonic
GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC enriches the blood, builds up the whole system and will wonderfully strengthen and fortify you to withstand the depressing effect of the hot summer. 50c.

George Washington

About 178 years ago cut down his father's cherry tree. We do not sell cherry tree lumber but we have the largest stock of kiln dried pine lumber in this section which we are selling at very low prices. "Everything to Build With From Foundation to Finish."

Watkins & Bullock.

Roxboro, N. C.

Phone 94

Your Physician

will instruct you regarding your diet and will give you a PRESCRIPTION

That ends his professional duty. It remains for the druggist to compound that prescription CAREFULLY—using only PURE DRUGS in putting it up. Our drugs are GUARANTEED 100 per cent PURE

Penslar Preparations Nunnally's Candy
Hambrick & Austin

All the popular brands of breakfast cereals

at

Sergeant & Clayton
Phone 23

SERVICE TALK

Satterfield Insurance Agency with an annual increase of business for fifteen years in succession, you can reasonably expect the very best Service in Fire and Life Insurance. "PREPAREDNESS," that's the word; in case of loss be prepared with a Satterfield Policy, then you will be safe and sane. No use mentioning the Jefferson Life that's a household word all over the South. Talk with S. P. Satterfield.

Satterfield Ins. Agency
"Old and Tried"

OUR WHITE GOODS SALE

Will Close Saturday February 26, 1916

Owing to the various changes in the weather, which we know has kept a good many of our customers from attending this sale, and wishing to give all the same opportunity in obtaining bargains at this wonderful sale, we have decided to prolong same until Feb. 26. If you haven't attended this sale ask your friends who have.

One lot of Ladies Dust Caps Special 4c

One lot of Ladies House Dresses made up of good Zepthers and Suitings, all sizes. Special 98c

Androscoggin Bleaching, Best made 8c.

Pajama Checks, 36 in. wide, the ideal cloth for underwear, etc., Very Special 7 3-4c

New Bargains Arriving Daily

A. LIPSHITZ

MAIN STREET

ROXBORO, N. C.