

Colored Moonlight School.

A colored Moonlight School was organized in Bushy Fork township, district school number one, on January 5, 1916, and it has been a great success, having 24 scholars enrolled. Some of the scholars could not make a letter when they began, now they can make all of them and read. The time expired on Feb. 9th, being a decided success from the beginning. Bennie Cates was teacher, with John L. Torian as assistant.

DR. McNARY ADDRESSES THE TEACHERS

On last Saturday the County Teachers Association met in the Auditorium with a large attendance. Aside from the usual course of the meeting the teachers enjoyed the pleasure of an address by Dr. Banks McNary, superintendent of the Caswell Training School at Kinston. This address was highly entertaining and instructive and was heard with pleasure by not only the teachers but many of the citizens of the town.

ANOTHER BLIND TIGER CAUGHT.

Last night Sheriff Thompson, Deputy Marshal Morris and Mr. Henry Gates went out on a little scout and returned this morning about 2 o'clock with Will Bradsher, colored, and 6 gallons of liquor. They located the tiger and his liquor at Picks Siding and took the outfit in. Bradsher was given a hearing this morning and bound over to Court under a bond of $300 which the tiger was unable to give. Owing to the vigilance of Sheriff Thompson and his deputies it is a hard matter for any one to keep up this blockading business very long, for they are on the watch, and the good people of the County are behind them and should continue to give them every encouragement.

CENTER GROVE NEWS.

Miss Minnie Ball was hostess at a pretty Leap Year Valentine party given at the home of Mrs. R. H. Dean to her school and other invited guests on Saturday evening, Feb. 12th, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The home was attractively decorated throughout, the Valentine idea prevailed in the decorations, a number of red hearts and cupids being used.

Miss Annie Duncan was awarded first prize for writing the best proposal. This proposal contest was the feature of the evening, though a number of other games were played. After the games a delightful course of oranges, apples, and candy was served.

Those present were, Misses Annie Duncan, Jewell Fogleman, Lillie Sherman, Ione and Ruth Pritchett, Annie, Lillian and Janette Moore, Mess. W. J. and J. R. Jones, O. D. and C. R. Sherman, F. L. and S. H. Lunsford, T. T. Pritchette, Ernest Huff, Rufus Dean, Freddie Oakley, Ozie Duncan, Jessie Denny, Ben and Blane O'Briant, Roy Edwards J. L. Moore.

A delightful cake was served at 10 o'clock and the guests left for their homes.—J. L. M.

"Little Gardens".

In these days of retrenchment, there seems no better way to save than by cultivating the vacant land.

The most amateur gardener, with a small back yard like ours, can find instructions in all catalogues for the improvement of this little plot, and by the expenditure of a very small sum, can raise plenty of vegetables which will have a taste undreamed of by those who buy their foodstuff of city market men.—George Wallace, in THE PEOPLE'S HOME JOURNAL for February.

Jefferson Standard Life Makes Fine Statement.

The insurance department of North Carolina has just completed a verification of the statement of the Jefferson Standard Life, Greensboro, N. C., showing the condition of that flourishing company as of December 31, 1915.

Last year, the company increased its insurance in force to $45,320,870, and admitted assets to $6,334,913. The gross surplus to policyholders, including capital, totals $1,074,071. Of this surplus, $401,342 is apportioned to deferred dividend policyholders and $47,728 has been apportioned for the payment of dividends to annual dividend policyholders.

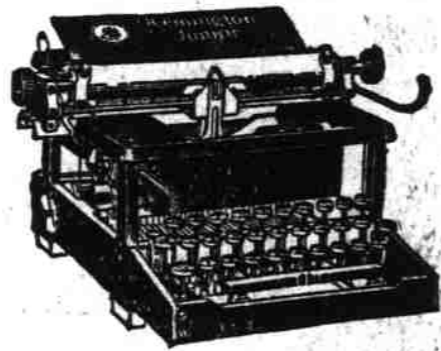

The position of this splendid company in its home state is evidenced by the fact that with over fifty companies doing business in the Old North State, the Jefferson Standard carries more than one-eighth of all the life insurance carried on the lives of North Carolinians.

During 1915, the Jefferson Standard paid for over $4,000,000 in North Carolina. The company makes a specialty of first mortgages on real estate, preferring those of smaller amounts. The net interest rate of the company for 1915 was 6 per cent.

The Jefferson Standard operates in eleven states, its business being mainly, however, in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee. The company maintains its own health conversation department and the value of this is reflected in the mortality of the company for 1915. See S. P. SATTERFIELD, District Manager.

The Farmer is a Business Man

HE needs a typewriter for the same reasons that every business man needs one. Because it saves time, it saves labor, it enables you to keep carbon copies of all your correspondence, it is the up-to-date business like method of writing.

And that isn't all. Every farm is a home and the farmer's typewriter is a home machine to be used by every member of the family. The school, the home, the farm all have their own writing to be done, and the typewriter provides the modern time saving way to do it.—Our new is the ideal farm typewriter. Just the model, just the size, just the price. It is half the size of the standard Remingtons and half the price, but it writes with standard type on paper of standard size.

It is so simple that any one can operate it, and as for its quality, the name "Remington" is the answer. The price of the Remington Junior is $50.00.
