

Splendid Laxative for Elderly People

Has Been Prescribed by Well Known Physician for Many Years.

The infirmities of age are especially manifest in a tendency to constipation, and call for treatment that will afford relief in an easy, natural manner. The rapid action of cathartic remedies and purgatives that shock the system should be avoided, more especially as the relief they offer is only temporary and is usually more than offset by disturbance to the vital organs caused by their violent action.

Nearly thirty years ago Dr. W. B. Caldwell, Monticello, Ill., prescribed a compound of simple laxative herbs that has since become the standard household remedy in thousands of homes. It acts easily and gently, yet with positive effect, without gripping or other pain or discomfort. Mrs. Rachel Allen, Galesburg, Kans., is seventy-one years old, and after using a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, wrote that it had done her a world of good and that she intends to keep it in the house always.

MRS. RACHEL ALLEN.

Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for fifty cents a bottle. It is a splendid remedy and should be in every home. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

BLUEJAY HAS MANY FAULTS

Garrulous Bird is Charged With Long Series of Crimes, but Never Called a Coward.

The bluejay is again asserting himself with all his audacity and raucous turbulence. What a bold and independent fellow he is, asking no favors, brusque and self-sufficient, a swashbuckler, and a robber! Yet what a trim and handsome bit of feathers and how graceful in his every movement!

The bluejay is about twelve inches long, and every inch an American. His plumage is light purplish blue above and grayish below; the collar and frontlet are black and the wings and tail ultramarine barred, the outer tail feathers tipped with white.

He is called the "garrulous" jay, a designation that belongs first to the European jay, which is not at all like the American bird. Our jay breeds from Newfoundland to Florida, and often remains in the North through the winter. The jay is accused of many bad qualities, but never of cowardice. He is as full of mischief as the proverbial magpie, he robs the farmer's corn crib, he murders young birds in the nest, he sucks the eggs of other birds. He has considerable imitative power, and by imitating the cry of a hawk will frighten other birds and send them to cover. He is classed in the crow family, and bears the scientific name of Cyanocitta cristata. The first name is Greek for bluejay and cristata Latin for crested.

WARS THAT CREATED WORDS

"Forlorn Hope" is a Military Phrase That Was Borrowed From the Dutch.

"Kultur" is a word which has found its way into the English language. Everybody seems to know that there is a difference between "culture" and "kultur"—and a difference not merely of spelling.

Our sixteenth-century war with Spain was responsible for several new words being added to the language. "Embargo" and "contraband" are two of them, while to our campaigns in the low countries we are indebted for such words as "freebooter," "furlough," "cashier," "leagues," "drill," "onslaught," "sconce" and "domineer."

"Forlorn hope" is a military phrase borrowed from the Dutch "verloren hoop," hoop meaning troop; and although "comrade" is a Spanish word, it came to us through the soldiers who fought in the low countries.

The word "khaki" was not used in the way it is today until the Boer war. The term "die-hards" came from the battle of Albuera in 1811, when Colonel Inglis, addressing his men, cried, "Die hard, my lads; die hard!"

The term "free lance," now meaning a literary man who is in no one's employ, is a relic of the Crusades, when companies of knights roved from place to place, offering their services to anyone who would pay for them.—Answers, London.

NOT SO BAD.

Corporal—This is a terrible business.

Sergeant—Oh, I don't know. I've lived with my wife's relatives for the last four years.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

JUST SO.

Riggs—Law is certainly a dry study.

Diggs—Yes; but a pretty woman's tears frequently wash away all doubts in the minds of the jury.

RIGHTS OF MAN.

"Every man," said the moralizer, "has a right to do as he pleases."

"He has," rejoined the demoralizer, "in case he pleases to do right."

HIS DRAWBACK.

"Why did you refuse to give that young man employment?"

"Well, he hadn't any refining prison influences in his past life."

AN EXPERT'S OPINION.

"Do you drive an automobile?"

"No," replied Mr. Chuggins, "you must never drive an automobile. You've got to coax it."

THE REASON.

"Her enemies regard Russia as a foul nation."

"Well, I guess she would like to be a Turkey gobbler."

ALONG WHOLE FRONT THE RUSSIANS DRIVE BACK THE AUSTRIANS

PETROGRAD REPORTS CAPTURE 6,000 MORE PRISONERS

Petrograd Says This is Evidenced by the Capture of 17,000
Austrian Prisoners in Comparatively Small Sector.

Petrograd, via London.—In their advance upon Czernowitz, the capture of Bukowina, the Russians have occupied the village of Sniatyn, 20 miles north-east of the city, the war office announced today.

In addition to their previous captures, the Russians have taken 20 officers, 6,000 men, 6 guns and 10 machine guns. The announcement says: "Western Front—Along the whole front from the southward of Polesia to the Rumanian frontier our troops continue to drive back the enemy. During yesterday 20 officers and about 6,000 men were taken prisoners. We have taken six cannon, 20 machine guns and many artillery and ammunition wagons. The total of prisoners and trophies captured during the operations amount to nearly 120,000 men, 1,780 officers, 130 cannon and 260 machine guns.

Reports which have been received say the enemy abandoned at certain points quantities of war materials of such bulk as to make it impossible to give an exact description at such short notice; as an instance, we found abandoned sufficient rails for field railways to cover 30 versts (about 20 miles.)

Many of the enemy units are completely disorganized, judging by the fact that in the fighting from June 6 to 11, General Stcherbatchoff, in a comparatively insignificant sector, captured 414 officers, 17,000 soldiers, 29 guns, 34 machine guns, 56 caissons, besides other booty.

On the Valdimir-Volynski road the enemy displays stubborn resistance; the battles continue west of the village of Zaturze, half way between Lutsk and Vladimir-Volynski.

In the region of Zaturze the Cossacks made a brilliant charge, putting to the sabre an enemy squadron.

West of Dubno our troops pushed the enemy before them and reached beyond the village of Demidovka, and southwest of Dubno captured the village of Kozhno north of Buczacz in the region on the right bank of the Stripa, the enemy tried powerful counter attacks. In the fighting yesterday our troops drove the enemy back and occupied the heights on the west bank of the Stripa.

"South of the Dniester we occupied the town of Sniatyn (west of Czernowitz.) Fighting for the possession of the Czernowitz bridgehead continues.

"On the Divina front the Germans violently bombarded the Ikskull bridgehead. South of Somern we repulsed an enemy attempt to approach our positions. In the region of Baranevichi and southward to the Polessie region there were several engagements yesterday with considerable enemy forces.

"Caucasian front. In the direction of Bagdad we stopped an offensive by important enemy forces."

Bowel Complaints in India.

In a lecture at one of the Des Moines, Iowa, churches a missionary from India told of going into the interior of India, where he was taken sick, that he had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him and believed that it saved his life. This remedy is used successfully in India both as a preventive and cure for cholera. You may know from this that it can be depended upon for the milder forms of bowel complaint that occur in this country. Obtainable everywhere.

For a gent who was not thinking of the nomination and who didn't want it, Charles Evans Hughes shows abnormal amount of preparedness.

Forethought.

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.
