WARREN—JACKSON.

On last Wednesday October 18, 1916, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson, their daughter Hallie Mae, was united in marriage to Mr. Jule Warren, Jr., of Hightower, by Rev. D. F. Putnam, the bride's pastor. It was a quiet country home wedding, only brothers and sisters and a few special friends being present.

The bride was attired in a blue traveling suit, gray shoes, gloves and hat to match carrying a bouquet of white Crysanthemums.

The groom wore a conventional black.

After the ceremony the young couple left on a car for Raleigh, where they spent a couple of days before returning to their future home, Hightower, N. C., where they will begin housekeeping.

We extend our congratulations to the happy couple and wish them much success in life.—Contributed.

WANTED—500 to send us a Two Dollar bill for two years subscription in advance. Two dollars never will count for quite so much to us—send us the $2 today.

NEGRO SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

On Wednesday of Fair week Percy Dickens, colored was dangerously wounded in Bradsher's Plumbing shop on jail street. Some words passed between Dickens and Walter Mitchell, it being claimed that the negro used insulting words towards Mitchell and Mitchell struck him with a piece of iron over the head, inflicting a serious wound. Dickens is now in the hospital in Durham, and is said to have a good chance to recover. Chief Cash went to Oxford last week to arrest Mitchell, but could not find his man.

MR. MOORE'S FINE CROP.

Mr. F. L. Moore, one of the promising young farmers of the Hurdle Mills section made us a call this morning and told us of his splendid average made on his crop this year. His crop averaged him $35.33 cents for everything. It there is a farmer in this section who beats this he will get busy. While in, Mr. Moore done as all good Person farmers should do, renewed for The Courier.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Tobacco Board of Trade October 6th, 1916.

Whereas, God in his providence has removed by death one of our members, Mr. R. I. Featherstone. We the Board of Trade wish to put on record an expression of our esteem for our co-worker. Therefore, be it resolved:

(1) That in the death of Mr. Featherstone, as we bow submissive to the will of God, we express a deep source of the loss we sustain thereby, and bear testimony to the kind and genial life of our friend and brother.

(2) That we feel thankful to Him who governs all things that we have had among us, this useful life with its many good qualities.

(3) That we extend to the bereaved family our warmest sympathy in this hour of great loss and intense sorrow.

(4) That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Board of Trade, and copies be sent to the family and published in the town paper.

THE ROXBORO TOBACCO MARKET

Last Thursday the Best Average, Being $21.92 for Everything Offered.

Our market for the past week was rather light owing to the circus and it being court week. These things though had no effect on the buyers as the sales were closely watched all week and every pile had close attention.

The market advanced slightly on some grades and the week closed with the highest average for the season, the average being $20.06 for the week, with a high average of $21.91 Thursday. Judging by the comments of our farmers tobacco is bringing a satisfactory price. Sales this week are expected to be light as a good deal of wheat is being sowed.

Speaking at Surl.

On last Friday Mr. Thos. J. Gold was billed to speak at Surl but owing to illness was unable to be present. However, the crowd, and it was a large crowd, were not disappointed for Mr. N. Lansford, the County Chairman and Mr. Cooper Hall, the Democratic candidate for the House were on hand and made speeches. We have heard the speeches of both very highly complimented, and all say that it was a good day for Democracy. The Democrats of Surl are aroused and they say that on November 5th they are going to show themselves on the right side.

Mr. Brooks Shoots Himself.

Yesterday evening Dr. W. A. Bradsher, County Coroner, was summoned to the home of Mr. E. S. Brooks, who lives about five miles south of town near Roseville, to investigate the death of Mr. E. S. Brooks, whose body was found in the stable lot dead. It seems that Mr. Brooks had been ploughing and along about five o'clock unhitched his mules and came to the barn where he put up his mules and fed them, and then shot himself through the heart. No cause is known for his rash act.

He was a good farmer, a kind neighbor and lived a happy life with his family. He leaves a wife and four children.

Free Lecture.

Mr. Goodwin landscape expert of the Van Lindley Company of Greensboro will lecture in the Auditorium Friday evening October 27th at 8:15. Stereopticon views will be shown as to the correct manner to set out trees make your home attractive etc.

Back Home

We are now back in our old stand with a new store that is well arranged, well equipped and well stocked with a class of merchandise suited to the needs and wishes of the people of this community. We moved almost before the public knew we had started to. There was no interruption in our business and we served our customers with almost the same efficiency as if nothing unusual was going on and had good sales each day. It was a big job but so quickly and easily was it done, all by our regular force, that even we were surprised at the efficiency of our force and their willingness to do extra work and extra hours. We have an excellent force of experienced and capable salespeople who are always pleased to give you the best possible service as well as having such a splendid building to serve you in.

Come to see us, inspect our stock, compare the quality, prices and service with any you wish and you will learn the reason why we are always busy.

There are good reasons.
