AN APOLOGY.

We regret to have to start the New Year with apologies, but we will have to do so today. We have been rearranging our office and getting our typesetting machine in operation, the result that we are unable to get out this week with a full size paper. But we are glad to say we have everything in shape now and will promise to give you the best paper in the future we have given you. We are going to give you more reading matter and we hope matter which will be of more interest to you.

VOLUME THIRTY-FOUR.

With this issue we begin volume thirtyfour of The Courier. For more than thirty years of this time we have been presiding over the destinies of this sheet, and while the way has often been rugged we do not regret for a moment that we decided to cast our lot with the good people of Person county. During this long time we have found many tried and faithful friends, friends who we appreciate more than gold, and while not a great load of the filthy lucre has stuck in our coffers, still, we have managed to live comfortably, and best of all, happily.

It shall be our aim to give to the people of this section more in the future than in the past, and if we may be able to help some worthy, though despondent one, to a better way we shall consider ourselves well paid for our labors. We will not make any more promises, having in a recent issue promised to do better things, but if we fail kindly remember, it was an error of the head and not of the heart.

We want to congratulate the County upon the selection of Mr. W. C. Warren as County Demonstrator. He is a man in every sense of the word, and best of all, a Person County man with no frills or notions foreign to our way of doing things. He was educated at the A. & M. College, thus being well fitted for the work to which he has been called. Our people can well afford to tie to him and give him every encouragement possible. He is your servant, paid by you and his one great aim is to be of service. Co-operate with him and let's show to the world what a great County we have.

The annual meeting of the Person County Fair Association will be held in a few days, and while we are not fortunate enough to hold any stock in this association, we do not feel that it is out of place to say a good word for the work of the president and secretary. We do not believe there is a man in the county who would give the same amount of work to the fair as has Mr. Joe H. Cerver, the president—certainly not for the small amount of money which he is paid, while the secretary is one of the busiest men to be found for about sixty days before and after the fair. These men have made good, the showing published proving this, and if they will consent to a reelection we think the Association would find it hard to find two men better suited or more faithful.

Stockholders Meeting.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Roxboro, will be held in the office of the bank on Saturday, January 27th, 1917, at 1 o'clock p. m. All stockholders are urged to be present.

W. F. LONG, Cashier.

PARTY GIVEN BY MRS. HENDERSON

One of the most enjoyable events of the Christmas season was the luncheon and Rook party given by Mrs. T. W. Henderson to the members of the Friday Afternoon Rook Club and a few additional guests, at her home on Main Street, Friday afternoon. The guests assembled at two o'clock and were cordially greeted by Mrs. B. E. Love and the hostess, and by means of attractive place cards, seats were found at small tables which the time was most pleasantly spent in playing rook. Holly, mistletoe and bells emblematic of the holiday season formed the cherry decorations.

HOUSE-PARTY AT THE PINES

The "Pines", the country home of Mr. J. A. Noell was the scene of much gaiety last week, when Mr. J. A. Noell, Jr. entertained a number of young people at a houseparty from Thursday until Sunday. Mrs. J. A. Noell was the chaperone for the occasion and the guests included: Misses Lucinda Martin and Annie Ivie, of Leaksville; Lucille Hundley, Durham; Lois Williams, Lexington; May Wilson, Lucille Pass, and Breta Noell, Roxboro, and Messrs. Tom Crowell, So. Boston, Va.; Coburn Alexander, Durham; W. S. Clary, Jr., Paul Brown, R. H. Noell and J. A. Noell, Jr., Roxboro.

In honor of the houseparty, Mr. Paul Henley entertained at a delightful dinner party on Sunday at the Hotel Jones, covers were laid for fourteen guests.

Farewell Sermon.

On last Sunday night the congregations of the town met in the Baptist church to worship in their regular quarterly union service and to hear the farewell sermon of Rev. D. F. Putman, who has just closed a five year's pastorate of the Baptist church here.

Rev. Mr. Putman took for his text the 18th chapter and 3rd verse of Mathew, his subject being "Entering into the Kingdom." He is a strong preacher, being recognized as such by all, and his sermon on this occasion was one of the best he has delivered since his pastorate here. He was greeted by a large crowd, the auditorium being packed to its limit. He and his family will leave on Thursday morning for Cherryville, N. C., where he has accepted a call to the First Baptist Church. It is with deep and sincere regret that we part with him and his family, for they had been a factor in this town and County for good, and our people generally, regardless of church affiliation will miss them.

Chronic Catarrh is Curable

Nothing is more distressing to the sufferer and his friends, Chronic catarrh is systemic—that is, it is present throughout the body, though it may manifest itself in a local ulceration.

Only a constitutional treatment will overcome systemic catarrh. Local treatments sometimes help the acute manifestations, but they cannot overcome the systemic disorder.

PERUNA Has Helped Thousands

It is a foe to catarrh. The voluntary testimony of thousands establishes that Peruna benefits in a number of ways. Peruna builds up the digestion, restores the strength, and helps put the system in condition.

Peruna has special value in catarrh; it gives vitality to the system, restores tone to the membranes and enables these to perform their functions. In many cases its benefits begin at once, and it rarely fails when treatment is continued properly.

The Peruna Medical Department will be glad to assist you to overcome this disease. The doctor's advice is free. Don't delay treatment.
