

An Effective Laxative for Growing Children

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Highly Recommended as a Family Remedy

In children the slightest irregularity of the bowels has a tendency to disturb the entire digestive system, and unless promptly remedied invites serious illness. The experienced mother knows that by training her children to regularity in this respect, and when occasion arises administering a mild laxative, she will have little need for the doctor's services.

Mrs. Leo Weigand, 3251 Central Ave., N. S., Pittsburg, Pa., whose two boys, Frank and Joseph, are shown in the illustration, writes that she has found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin a most effective laxative, not only for the children but also for herself, and that she will always keep it in the house to use when needed. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that acts easily and naturally, without griping or other pain or discomfort. It is pleasant to the taste so that children like it, and is equally effective on the strongest constitution.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained at any drug store for fifty cents, and should have a place in every home. It will save many times its cost in lessened doctor bills and maintain the health of the entire family. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow cartoon in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 445 Washington Ct., Monticello, Illinois.

Farm Loan Associations.

(From Southern Ruralist.)
The Federal Farm Loan Board announces that the blank form or articles of association to be used in forming National Farm Loan Associations has been printed and is now ready for distribution.

If interested persons will address a letter to the Federal Farm Loan Board, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., these articles of association will be sent. When they reach you, call a meeting of the prospective members of your association, adopt these articles, and have each member sign them and acknowledge them. Fill in the blank space at the top the name your association adopts.

Then, at your first meeting, elect a board of five or more directors and have the directors meet and elect a president, a vice-president, a secretary-treasurer, and a loan committee of three members. The loan committee may begin at once to value the lands of the members and prepare its written report of these valuations which must be unanimous.

Do not send the signed articles of association to Washington, but hold them until the Federal land bank of your district is located. Then, write to the bank asking for forms which include an application for a charter. When these come, fill out and send them, together with the articles of association and the report of the loan committee to your Federal land bank.

Worth Attention of Women.

When you feel too tired to work, when dark puffs appear under your eyes, when you wake up weary, with backache or pains in sides and loins, when muscles and bones ache, when you suffer rheumatic twinges, when lumbago puts you down, then you know the kidneys are weakened or disordered. Mrs. T. J. Bucknell, Route 1, Hardy, Neb., writes: "I am recovering from an attack of lumbago, by the aid of Foley Kidney Pills. They surely have helped me."

Simonds Predicts Not Peace, but Prolonged War.

The war is a long way from being fought out. The nations at war, Germany like all the others, are a long way from being ready to concede that they are beaten. But a return to the status quo ante, the restoration of Belgium, France, Serbia, Russia would be a defeat for Germany, since it would give her nothing in return for her sacrifices and still leave her outdistanced by her rivals in the world of colonies, and the Allies today are not merely united upon a program that calls for the restoration of the status quo ante, they ask also Alsace-Lorraine, Trentino and Trieste, and Constantinople.

Yet, satisfied as I am that the present effort to settle the war by negotiation, accepting the German gesture at its face value, will not be wholly without consequence — although it fails to prevent another campaign and new struggles—such a gesture is the first sign of the approach of peace. In history, negotiations have gone on for years, keeping pace with battles, until it became clear that the war could not be won in the field or the inevitable outcome of the war accelerated the pace of the peacemakers. We shall have peace talk henceforth; we may have formal or informal negotiations henceforth. But I am satisfied we shall have not peace but, rather, the most terrible campaign of the war, next summer. The people of the Allied victory are still ready to make all sacrifices for victory, but now that peace has been suggested, the power of Allied leadership to win must be demonstrated.—From "Peace Politics, and War—A Marvelous Month," by Frank H. Simonds, in the American Review of Reviews for January, 1917.

BRITISH CRUISERS IN SEARCH OF RAIDER

Wireless Warning That the Raider is Working Northward in Search of Prey.

New York, Jan. 18.—With the possibility that the German sea raider which sank or captured from fifteen to a score of allied ships is still continuing her depredations, steamship owners and marine underwriters were in a state of nervous tension Thursday. The losses in ships and cargoes this far represent from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.

A cordon of British cruisers, reported to number fifteen, is believed to be sweeping the southern seas in search of the raider, which according to one report, may be the auxiliary cruiser Vineta; according to another the cruiser Moeve; the same sea rover which played havoc with allied shipping about a year ago.

Steam ship circles were especially concerned today over a wireless warning that the German raider was working northward to more frequented lanes of steamship travel. The possibility that the raider may have armed and manned one or more of her prizes and dispatched them also on commerce preying missions was another source of anxiety today. One report was that the British steamer St. Theodore was thus transformed.

Definite news of the fate of this vessel and of the Yarrowdals reported to have on board some of the crews of other captured vessels, was still lacking today.

WOMEN GIVE OUT.

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this woman's experience.

When I stooped over to pick up anything, I could hardly straighten again. My kidneys were irregular in action and caused me a great deal of misery. I found great relief after taking a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and I took several boxes, which did me a wonderful amount of good. My health became better than it had been for a long time. Whenever my kidneys cause me any trouble, a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills give me great relief."

STOP! CALOMEL IS QUICKSILVER

It's Mercury! Attacks the Bones, Salivates and Makes You Sick

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasantly, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

Simonds on German Prospects.

The German chance to obtain a decision, to win the war their own way and impose their will upon Europe, ended at the Marne. Their chance to get a separate peace from a beaten Russia ended a year ago. Their final bid for a decision in the West crumbled at Verdun. But although still confident that this negative decision remains absolute, I can no longer see any warrant for belief that the Allies will go to Berlin or even to Vienna; and my judgment is that economic rather than military elements will settle the war, that the military battle is tending toward a draw, a real draw, a failure of both sides to get a decision.

By this I do not mean to say that the Allies will not make material gains in the West in this new year, 1917. They have failed to break through at the Somme, and the Somme is a defeat for them, as Verdun was defeat for the Germans, not even the local success that would have been proven by their occupation of Baupenne and Peronne, as I pointed out months ago, has been achieved, but it is true, on the other hand, that they were at one time near to a considerable victory and the Germans very seriously considered a shortening of their western front.

In my judgment the next western campaign will see the Allies push the Germans back to the French frontier, to the line of the Meuse below Verdun—Meziers—Namur—Brussels—Antwerp. But such a campaign will entail enormous Allied losses, and it does not hold out any prospects of an actual piercing of the German lines and a return to a war of motion on the old lines, with the probability of even the fair chance of a great crushing German disaster.—From "Peace, Politics, and War—A Marvelous Month," by Frank H. Simonds, in the American Review of Reviews for January, 1917.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

Tells How to Loosen a Tender Corn or Callus so it Lifts Out Without Pain.

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callus the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts off with the fingers.

Freezone dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels the corn or callus without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but will positively rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or hardened callus. If your druggist hasn't any freezone he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you.
