A BANKER'S OPINION

OF
Life Insurance as a Credit Factor

When a man comes to us to borrow, we want to know how much life insurance he carries, not so much because of its bearing on his financial power, but as an indication of his type of mind, for the type of mind that induces a man to insure his life, is the type of mind which makes for success in business." HERE IS MY MESSAGE

I am selling for the same old price.

Wait for me, I'm on my way,
Will reach you now most any day;
You know my goods are very fine,
The old, reliable Rawleigh Line.
You've proved them by the severest test
And know that Rawleigh stands for BEST.
So to my words give earnest heed,
Let me supply your every need.

New articles to you I bring—
The very best of everything.
Not only are the goods real nice,
But I sell to all at the same price;
So, looking at it from every way,
I should have your trade, because 'twill pay
You can't afford not to deal with me—
Few merchants give such guarantee;

I leave the goods with you to try,
Unless you like them you needn't buy;
I'm sure no plan could be more fair—
You take no chances, I declare.
You get the Highest Quality
And Best Values, as you shall see,
With Best Values, as you shall see,
With these I'm sure you'll be content,
So there's no room for argument.

You want my goods, I want your trade;
No fairer bargain e'er was made.
There's best service—satisfaction, too,
In everything I bring to you,
Far better goods than from the store,
And besides, I bring them to your door.
If you want Rawleigh Quality,
'Twill pay you well to wait for me—

The Rawleigh Man,
Ira D. O'Briant.

TRACE DISEASE TO CONSTIPATION

One of the most common of all diseases which different schools of medicine practically agree is that about 95% of all human ailments is directly traceable to intestinal gastro-intestinal tract. It is the cause of indigestion, flatulence, gas, headache, nervousness, irritability, constipation, and all the ailments that result from a sluggish bowels. The cause of this condition is an accumulation of waste matter in the bowels, and on its proper functioning depends the welfare of the entire system. Constipation is a condition that should never be neglected. As long as the bowels are sluggish the system will not flow up, a mild laxative should be taken. The combination of simple laxative homeopathic pills, known as Dr. Caldwell's Colic, Griping and Sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle, is highly recommended as a corrective, acting readily, in a easy, natural way, without griping or other pain or discomfort. A trial bottle of this excellent family remedy can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 456 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

TWO PARADES SUNDAY RESULT IN ONE DEATH

Milwaukee, Sept. 9.—One Italian was killed, another was probably fatally wounded and two police officers were slightly injured late today when an attempt was made to break up a patriotic open air meeting in the Italian section. The two Italians who were shot are members of an alleged anarchistic club which later was raided and literature said to have been of an incendiary nature was seized.

Illinois Infantry Breaks Up Sunday Street Parade.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 9.—Two men were shot and wounded and others were beaten with revolver butts this afternoon when the ninth Illinois infantry broke up a labor parade, planned as a demonstration of sympathy with striking street car conductors and motormen. A leader of the parade was knocked down while carrying an American flag.

Several arrests were made and soldiers are patrolling the streets.

WONDERFUL STUFF! LIFT OUT YOUR CORNS

Apply a few drops then lift corns or calluses off with fingers—no pain.

No humbug! Any corn, whether hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift out, without a particle of pain or soreness.

This drug is called freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus.

Put a few drops directly upon any tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus will loosen and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This drug freezone doesn't eat out the corns or calluses but shrivels them without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards. If your druggist don't have freezone have him order it for you.—adv.

WHEN WILL THE WAR END?

"When will the war end?" This is the question that is uppermost in the minds of most persons and one which the majority can answer with least definitness. But at last a man has been found who is able to vouchsafe the much desired information.

Our good friend, Recorder W. J. Pratt, of Monroe, has received the following from his nephew, Charles Pratt, of New York City, which has been good enough to give to the press, and all who desire to do so will be at liberty to consult the gentleman "who knows when the war is going to end."

WHEN THE WAR WILL END.

Absolute knowledge have I none, But my aunt's washerwoman's sister's son

If a policeman on his beat Say to a laborer on the street That he had a letter just last week, Written in the finest Greek,

From a Chinese coolie in Timbuctoo, Who said that the niggers in Cuba knew

Or a colored man in a Texas town, Who got it straight from a circus clown,

That a man in the Klondike had the news From a gang of South American Jews

About somebody in Borneo Who heard of a man who claimed to know

Of a swell society female-rake, Whose mother-in-law will undertake To prove that he husband's sister's niece

Had stated in a printed piece That she has a son who has a friend Who knows when the war is going to end.

KITCHIN'S SENTIMENTS ARE NOT REASSURING

Leastwise That Is the Way Business Views It; Speaker's Sentiments are Similar.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Mr. Kitchin; from time to time, has given voice to sentiments, which to put it mildly, are not especially reassuring to business. Speaker Clark during the debate in the house last week on the occasion of the consideration of the $11,000,000 bond authorization, placed himself on record in similar manner. He brought out the old and unsound "5050" idea of war finance, and committed himself very strongly to it. What he had to say about the probable market value of government bonds, both American and British, showed pretty plainly, it is claimed that he is not a great financial authority, and that he has small appreciation of financial affairs in general.

Unfortunately, there are several members of the lower house; men of influence in its conduct, too—who harbor corresponding theories, and as the senate has so radically revised the work of the house, there is more than a fair chance that some time will be consumed in bringing the two divisions of the national legislature together. Several weeks ago Mr. Kitchin threatened to throw the whole matter back on the floor of the house for general debate, he has not made this threat recently, but it is possible that he will try to go through with it when the senate sends its bill to his committee. That, on the whole, would be unfortunate, it is contended, for prompt action now is almost as desirable as intelligent action. But it might not be without its good ends, as delay would give the government more time to perfect its price regulating scheme and then permit of co-ordination in framing taxes.

TO RHEUMATISM SUFFERS.

Having tried Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy I am very anxious for all who suffer from Rheumatism to know what it did for me.

About 13 years ago I had a very severe sppl of Inflammatory Rheumatism, could hardly walk a step for a month. I would have three spells every winter and they would last well up into the summer. I tried the best doctors in the country and tried everything else I could hear of, nothing seemed to do me any good until finally the good tidings came when a friend (indeed she was) persuaded me to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and I can frankly say that it has done me more good than anything I have ever taken.

I am still using it as a family tonic and a blood medicine and can recommend it as the best medicine I have ever tried for Rheumatism.

A SUDDEN DEATH

Reprinted by request.

The entire community around Mill Creek were greatly shocked on March 6th to hear that Mr. Robert J. Jones had suddenly passed away at 4:40 a. m. that morning.

On Thursday the 5th inst. he walked all day apparently in his usual health. Ate a heavy supper, with a keen relish then took his violin and played many old favorite selections to the great enjoyment of himself and family. Little thinking that he stood on, very threshold of eternity, and before another morning's dawn he would be ushered into that great beyond from which no brother ever returns.

By 10:30 p. m. he was speechless, being entirely unconscious. A physician was immediately called, but before the Dr. could reach him, he had breathed his last.

What a practical demonstration of that scripture, "In the midst of life, we are in death." How important that we scrupulously follow that injunction. Be ye therefore ready for the Son of Man cometh at an hour, when ye think not."

It is a source of much comfort to the greatly bereaved family, to know that he had not been heedless, of this blessed administration, for in early life he gave his heart to God and was a member of Providence Baptist church, about forty years in addition to having been a member of Olive Branch Church five years.

The deceased was born Nov. 12th, 1852, being sixty one years, three months and twenty days old.

He was married to Miss Emily S. Mitchell daughter of Mr. Robert Mitchell in 1876. From this union there were eleven children, seven boys and four girls. One of whom died in infancy. One son Mr. George W. Jones did in West Virginia about a year ago.

There still survive the widow and nine children, five sons and four daughters who have the tender sympathy of a host of friends and relatives.

We rejoice to hear that very recently he remarked, "Death has no sting for em. I am not afraid to die."

Shining in where he trusted having committed himself and his all against that day notwithstanding the blinding men them quite a large crowd gathered to see him laid to rest in Mill Creek cemetery, Saturday afternoon, March 7th. Services being conducted by his life long friend and neighbor Mr. T. H. Street.

A FRIEND.
