DEMOCRATIC MINORITY REPORT FAVORS TAXING WEALTH FOR BONUS

The minority report on the Soldiers' Bonus bill signed by five of the eight Democratic members of the Ways and Means Committee favored reporting the bill favorably but does not approve of many of its provisions.

The five members, Floor Leader Claude Kitchen and Representatives Oldfield, Crist, Carey and Taggart, called attention to the fact that no Democratic member of the Committee was permitted to participate at any meeting either in the discussion or the preparation of the bill—that the bill is exclusively a barred-door Republican product.

The attitude of the minority members in the matter of providing funds to pay a bonus is expressed in the following paragraph:

"We favor and insist that whatever kind or sort of bonus or adjusted compensation Congress shall deem justly due to world war veterans should be paid out of the taxes specifically levied for such purpose upon the big incomes of the millionaires and multimillionaires, whose number has more than trebled and whose wealth has increased to the extent of many billions of dollars since the beginning of the war, and upon the senseless, excessive profits of the big monopolistic corporations who have plundered and profited upon the people and the government since January 1, 1916, to the extent of over $10,000,000,000 of net profits and who persist in continuing their profiteering. These millionaires and multimillionaires and corporations were the real financial beneficiaries of the war. Why should they not now be made to pay this additional expense of the war?"

The minority report favors the re-enactment of the surtax on large incomes and the re-enactment of the excess profit tax.

A MAN'S JOB

A man's job is his best friend. It clothes and feeds his wife and children; pays the rent and supplies them with the wherewithal to develop and become cultured. The least a man can do in return is to live his job.

A man's job is grateful. It is like a little garden that thrives on love. It will one day flower into fruit worth while for him and his to enjoy. If you ask any successful man the reason for his making good, he will tell you that first and foremost it is because he likes his work; indeed he loves it. His whole heart and soul is wrapped up in it. His whole physical and mental energies are focused on it. He loves his work, he talks his work, he is entirely inseparable from his work, and that is the way every man worth his salt ought to be if he wants to make of his work what it should be and make of himself what he wants to be. Arthur Capper, U. S. Senator from Kansas.

LESSON FOR APRIL 5

THE LORD PRESERVES JOASH

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 11:1-7. GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord preserveth all them that love Him.—Psalm 125:5. REFERENCE MATERIAL—II Kings 11:1-7; II Chron. 23:1-10; Matt. 23:35.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God Takes Care of His People. JUNIOR TOPIC—How a Boy Became King. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Boy Saved for a Great Career. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Secret of Personal and National Safety.

Joash, viewed in the light of his ancestors, was a poor prospect for a king. His grandmother was the wicked Athaliah and his great grandparents were Ahab and Jezebel. There was enough bad blood in his veins to insure his doom. Despite this fact, he brought about some noble reforms and turned the people back to God.

1. Athaliah Usurps the Throne (vv. 1-3). Her attempt to destroy the seed royal (vv. 1). In order to remove any rival claimant to the throne she tried to kill all the royal male children.

2. Joash preserved by Jehosheba (vv. 2, 8). Though Athaliah was kept-eyed she was checkmated by another woman. Her fatal omission was not to get rid of the women too. This woman, the wife of the priest, stole away the child and hid him in the bedchamber for six years. God had promised that through the Davidic line the Messiah should come. In order that this line be unbroken Joash must be preserved. No purpose of God can fail.

3. Joash Crowned King (vv. 4-12). Jehosheba's preparations (vv. 4-11). The high priest and his wife were intelligent and strong characters. As the high priest, Jehoiada felt that it was his duty to thwart the heathen project of Athaliah. Doubtless his cooperation with his wife made possible the saving of Joash.

(1) Secured the aid of the military leaders (v. 4). He knew somehow that these men were not loyal to Athaliah. (2) Bound them under solemn oath (v. 4). He took an oath of them in the house of the Lord. Honest men will stand by their word. (3) Excited their spirit of patriotism (v. 5). He gave them a sight of the king's son. This, no doubt, was a great surprise. Now having seen the heir to the throne they would risk everything, even their lives in order to set him on the throne. (4) Co-ordinates all matters (vv. 5-11). The soldiers were divided into companies and arms were distributed to them. Each group was assigned to specific duties.

2. The coronation (v. 12). (1) The king's son brought forth. This was a great day in Jerusalem. After six years of usurpation the people all the while supposing that all the heirs to the throne were dead, now to gaze upon the king's son would be a notable event. (2) The crown upon him. This was the formal induction into office. (3) Gave him the testimony. This was a copy of the law, showing that the king was to rule according to the law of God. The act of putting the law upon his head showed that the king himself would be under the control of the law. (4) Made him king. This shows that he was made king by the choice of the people. (5) Anointed him. They poured oil upon his head. This was the usual method of consecrating prophets, priests and kings. (6) Clapped their hands. This was a token of joy.

III. Athaliah Slain (vv. 13-17). 1. The noise of the coronation of Joash through Athaliah to the temple (v. 15). Up to this time she thought her place on the throne was secure and that her heathen religion had free course.

2. Her dismay (v. 14). Upon her arrival at the temple she saw the king wearing the crown and surrounded by the guards, so that she could do nothing. In her despair she exclaimed: "Treason, treason!" How proud wicked men and women are to cry out as though they had been wronged when their wicked plots and conspiracies are exposed and thwarted!

3. Athaliah executed (vv. 15, 16). The orders were that she should not be killed in the temple. They led her out by the way of the horses' entrance to the king's palace and slew her. What a tragic end for the sinner. Sin can only prosper for a time.

IV. Worship of the True God (v. 17, 18). Joash was seven years old when he was made king. The high priest made a covenant between the Lord, the king and the people that they would be the Lord's people. In carrying out this covenant they broke down the temple of Baal and slew the priest of Baal.

The Way to God. Prayer invites us into the presence of God. Praying brings us into the door of His palace, and aims giving procures us admission.—Koran.

The Saddest Thing. The saddest thing that can befall a soul is when it loses faith in God and woman.—Alexander Smith.

Hope and Joy. A. V. equality to hope and joy is real riches; one to fear and sorrow, real poverty.—Hind.

GAINS 15 LBS. AND FEELS LIKE A GIRL AGAIN

Life Seems Altogether Different For Her, Says Mrs. E. P. White of Lynchburg, Gives Tanlac Full Credit.

"I am feeling like a girl again full of life and energy and I don't believe my health could be improved on," said Mrs. E. P. White, 1106 Monroe St., Lynchburg, Va.

"I attribute the wonderful change in my condition to Tanlac and nothing else. When I began taking it I had been suffering for a year with stomach trouble and was in a wretched state of health. I had gotten so weak and run down that actually I didn't have strength enough to sweep a room or make up a bed."

"It is simply marvelous the way I have been built up. I have gained fifteen pounds, my digestion is just perfect now and I am feeling better and stronger than in many years."

PLOWSHARES

Livestock that can lie down in green pastures has a better chance to grow than when it lies in a dry lot.

Between them, the boll weevil and the cattle tick will change farming in eastern North Carolina—or else there will be another mighty migration westward.

Early to plant and early to harvest is a good motto for the home gardener—but how about planning to have an all-the-year-round garden?

"Money crop" farming is tottering. This is a good year to give him a "knock out."

The man who sticks to livestock wins in the long run. Men who sold their sheep the last few years wish they had them back now.

"Soybeans and Cowpeas" the title of N. C. Experiment Station bulletin 241. Write to Agr. Extension Service, Raleigh, for a copy—no charge.

THERE IS THE SAME PLAY BILLED THAT WE SAW IN THE CITY, AND AT A MUCH LOWER PRICE THAN IT COST US TO SEE IT. YES, IF WE HAD WAITED A FEW DAYS WE COULD HAVE SEEN IT AT HOME PRICES AND SAVED OURSELVES A TREMENDOUS TRIP.

A NECESSITY—AMUSEMENT

WHAT is more essential to the average person than amusement, a place where all classes can go to rest their minds? The Home Theatre furnishes this necessity and spends much time and money to secure the best that the market affords in order to make their place of business a mecca for everyone. If the Home Theatre were to close its doors and there should be no place to which the public could go for a little diversion, the whole community would soon become sluggish and cheerless, because all work and no play makes very long and dull days.

MORAL:—Spend your money at your Home Theatre and be entertained.
