

THE COURIER

Roxboro, N. C. April 26th 1922

Don't you hear them say Get a ROXBORO LUMBER CO.

Mrs. E. Lloyd Tilley and children of Raleigh are the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Burton.

Mr. D. M. Cash, member of the Board of County Commissioners, from Moriah, favored us with a pleasant call Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pulliam, Misses Ruby and Mary Willie Hall and Clyde Hall spent Sunday at Omega, Va., visiting friends.

Mess. G. W. Hart, Pasco Thaxton and Jim Day, all former Roxboro citizens, now living in Greensboro, spent last Sunday here with relatives and friends.

Mr. Edwin Harvie, now living in Winston-Salem, spent last Sunday here.

Mess. George and Hassell Fox left yesterday morning for Richmond, where Mr. George Fox goes for examination and probably an operation.

Mess. P. B. Henley and J. D. K. Richmond spent last Friday in Winston-Salem on business matters.

Mess. John Brooks and Clifton Roberts of Chase City, Va., were Roxboro visitors last Friday and Saturday.

Dr. E. J. Tucker left Sunday for Winston-Salem to attend the meeting of the State Medical Association. Dr. Tucker is a member of the State Medical Board.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe G. Moore spent last Thursday in Raleigh visiting friends.

Mr. E. G. Long is attending the bankers meeting in Pinehurst this week.

Mrs. W. H. B. Newell is visiting in Sanford this week.

Our good friend, Mr. C. G. Daniel favored us with a call last Wednesday.

Rev. J. A. Beam left yesterday evening for Goldsboro where he will attend a meeting of County Superintendents.

Drs. B. E. Love and W. A. Bradsher are attending the meeting of the State Medical Association which is in session in Winston-Salem this week.

We were glad to see our good friend Mr. J. S. Woody in town Monday. This is the first time we have seen him since his return from the hospital, and we were glad to see him looking so well.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Winstead, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Winstead and Mrs. Waiters spent Monday in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Barron spent last Sunday in Chase City visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bullock and children and Mr. Dick Bullock spent last Sunday in Bullock, N. C. visiting Mr. Bullock's parents.

Hon. J. E. Tucker and Mr. M. C. Winstead of Milton were Roxboro visitors yesterday.

Mr. Edgar Newton, Mrs. I. O. Wilkerson and son James Otis, and Miss Corinne Newton are spending the day in Durham.

Mrs. M. R. Long left yesterday for Greensboro to attend a dinner dance at the O'Henry and to be the guest of Mrs. Thomas Hunt for a few days.

We were glad to have a visit from our good friend, Mr. Geo. L. Cunningham, yesterday morning.

Mr. H. L. Carver, a leading merchant of Rougemont, favored us with a call yesterday.

We enjoyed a call yesterday morning from Mr. W. P. Gates of Timberlake, route 2. Mr. Gates is a sure enough farmer, for he has never bought but two bales of hay since he has been farming, and when he sells his tobacco he says the money it brings belongs to him, that is, after paying his taxes. Truly, it pays to live at home, and some of these days there are going to be more farmers like Mr. Gates.

BROOCH LOST—On last Sunday at the Methodist Church a Brooch came, with pearls, was lost. Finder will please leave at Sergeant & Clayton's and receive reward. 1tpd
