BISHOP JOHN C. KILGO IS DEAD

ELECTED PRESIDENT OF TRINITY COLLEGE IN 1894.

Distinguished Divine Passes Away at His Home in Charlotte Following Heart Attack.

Charlotte, Aug. 11.—Bishop John C. Kilgo, of the Southern Methodist Episcopal church died at his home here at 1:45 this morning, after having been extremely ill since last Sunday when he suffered a severe heart attack.

Bishop Kilgo had been gradually sinking since Thursday afternoon and his death had been expected hourly by his physicians and family. Since Sunday little or no hope had been entertained for his recovery.

The aged minister had never entirely recovered from the severe attack suffered last spring on his way home from the general conference which forced him to remain under treatment in a Memphis hospital for several weeks, finally being brought home on a cot in the private car of Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern railway, of which Bishop Kilgo was a director.

A GREAT SERMON.

On last Sunday the pastor, Rev. R. E. White, was unwell and he invited Dr. E. B. Dillard to preach for him. He occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church at both morning and night services, and while the morning sermon was good, his sermon at night was one of the finest and most enjoyable sermons we have listened to in some time. His subject was "The Resurrection," and to say it was beautiful does not begin to do it justice. At times his flights of oratory were beyond description.

Dr. Dillard will lecture in the Baptist church to night, delivering his lecture on "The Ascension," at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to come out and hear this lecture.

Dr. Dillard is a native of Caswell county, a cousin of Mr. T. W. Pass, who he is visiting at this time. He left this section 40 years ago, for 10 years he was with the Children's Home Society in Ark. and Louisiana, 8 years as Superintendent. He came from Beaumont, Tex., Dec. 1st, 1921, to Mebane where he visited a brother. During this vacation he supplied the Baptist churches of Mebane and Benson.

DEATH OF MR. J. J. DIXON.

On Monday morning at 7 o'clock Mr. J. J. Dixon passed away at his home near Allensville. He had been in declining health for several months, but was a Roxboro visitor last Saturday and in talking with him he told us that he had been pretty sick the week before, though was feeling much better. You can imagine our surprise when we came down Monday morning and heard that he was dead.

Mr. Dixon was one of the oldest citizens of the County, was well known and honored and respected by every one. For a number of years he has been one of the leading citizens of his township. Just a few weeks since he made a profession of religion and joined the Allensville Methodist church. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his death. Two sons, Oscar and John, of Mullins, two very prominent and influential citizens of Mullins, S. C., attended his funeral which was held yesterday evening.

A CORRECTION.

Last week, Wednesday morning, when we secured our report of the Court proceedings we gave it out that Mess. H. T. Clayton, Mathew Clayton, Ed O'Brian and Sam Walker were found guilty of transporting liquor and that Mess. H. T. Clayton and Ed O'Brian were given 30 days on the roads. Later during the day Judge Connor reversed himself and changed this decision giving them all a fine. We did not hear of the change until it was too late for correction, hence the error.

NEXT SUNDAY AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Services at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, Sunday School 10 A. M., preaching at 11 A. M. Evening 8 P. M. All are cordially invited.

W. O. SAMPLE, Pastor.

CO-OP MEMBERS.

Enthusiasm of Organized Tobacco Farmers Increase Every Day.

Enthusiasm of the organized tobacco farmers has increased with every delivery day at the Association's delivery points in South Carolina.

In spite of heavy rains throughout the week, members of the Association delivered between three and four million pounds of the Bright Leaf to the Cooperative Warehouses in the South Carolina belt during the first week of marketing.

So eager are the Association members to carry their tobacco to the Cooperative warehouses, that another day has been added to the weekly schedule of deliveries which will take place on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, hereafter.

The success of cooperative marketing at its first trial in South Carolina, and last week's powerful drive through Eastern North Carolina have brought in another regiment of new members to the cooperative ranks. Twelve hundred new contracts reached Raleigh headquarters last week and pushed the Association across its goal of an 80,000 membership in the three States.

In spite of this fact, America's biggest Cooperative will continue to welcome tobacco growers in Virginia and Western North Carolina until the markets of the old belt open.

FRISSELL.

ROXBORO MARKET

TO OPEN SOON.

We see it stated that the tobacco market will open in Durham on September 5th. It has not definitely been decided just what date the market in Roxboro will open, but the date will be determined by the opening of the markets of Durham, Oxford, Danville and South Boston. However, there is no longer any question about the New Hyeo being ready for the opening sale. They are now putting on the roof and within ten days or two weeks the house will be completed, and Mr. W. T. Pass says his friends who are going to sell the old auction cash way will find everything in readiness for them whenever the market is opened. We will give definite date as to opening in our next issue.

DR. DILLARD TO PREACH SUNDAY.

The Baptist church having granted its pastor, Rev. R. E. White a vacation for two weeks Rev. E. B. Dillard, D. D., will preach in the Baptist church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. There will be no services at night as Dr. Dillard has accepted an invitation to fill the pulpit at the Edgar Long Memorial church on Sunday night upon invitation of the pastor, Rev. J. B. Hurley. Dr. Dillard has a wide reputation and these churches will both probably be filled at each of his appointments.

DEATH OF MRS.

ARETTA STRUM.

Mrs. Aretta Strum died at her home in Allensville on Monday and was buried yesterday in the burying grounds at the Allensville Methodist Church. Mrs. Strum was 87 years old, and was probably the oldest member of the Allensville Methodist Church. She had been in failing health for the past twelve months, paralysis being the immediate cause of her death. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. C. Whitehead.

MR. GOODMAN TO BE

COME A ROXBOROITE.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. B. Goodman has decided to again locate here, having become associated with the firm of A. Lipschitz. He is a splendid gentleman and will be welcomed in our midst.

STRIKE IS GETTING SERIOUS

PASSENGER TRAINS HELD UP AT BARSTOW.

Refusal of Trainmen to Move Trains and Renewed Outbreaks Mark Crucial Day.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Serious threats to traffic by refusal of trainmen to move trains at points where troops are on guard; renewed outbreaks of violence resulting in several deaths, and the possibility of walkouts by maintenance of way men on various roads, marked the progress of the strike of shop crafts employees as railroad heads and union leaders gathered for conferences today to consider separately President Harding's proposal for ending the strike.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

The business meeting of the Friday Afternoon Club was held last Friday at the home of Mrs. W. D. Merritt, with Mesdames W. D. Merritt and H. W. Winstead as hostesses. All of the old officers were elected as follows: Mrs. H. W. Winstead, president; Mrs. L. M. Carlton, secretary and treasurer. The books were also selected for the year. Concluding the business meeting, a delightful social hour was spent and ice cream and cake served.

OFF FOR NEW YORK.

Mr. A. M. Burns and Miss Glenna Woods will leave in a few days for the Northern markets—Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and will complete purchases of Fall stock for the firm of Harris & Burns. Mr. Burns makes the claim that he buys for "Roxboro's Best Store" and has real bargains at all times. He does not ask you to "Buy in Roxboro" because you live either in Roxboro or Person County, but because you can and do save money when you buy from Harris & Burns.

NEWS FROM MR. LIPSHITZ.

Mr. A. Lipschitz sailed on June 24th for the Old Country for the purpose of bringing his aged mother home with him. We learn that he has at last got in touch with his mother, having had a wire from her and he is expecting her to reach him in Constantinople in a very short while. Just as soon as she reaches that point they will sail for America and Mrs. Lipschitz is hoping for a message any day stating they are on their way home.

MIDWIVES EXPRESS

APPRECIATION.

The last of the series of meetings for the midwives held on Saturday, August 12th, was well attended, 25 midwives and 2 visitors being present. Dr. Bradsher gave a most interesting and instructive talk that was enjoyed by all present. The midwives expressed their appreciation to the Red Cross Nurse for the course of instructions and the opportunity she has given them to improve their work.

On Friday, August 11th, Miss Mary R. Murray of Jalong and Mr. Arthur Hull of Roxboro were married in Yanceyville, Esquire Kerr performing the ceremony. CO-OPERATIVES AND INDEPENDENT

Mr. Geo. H. Yarboro, Manager, New Independent Warehouse, Mullins, S. C.

I hereby serve notice on you that you will be held responsible and accountable for any tobacco which you may sell for this party, regardless of the name in which it is sold.

Yours truly,
C. O. DIXON,

NEW INDEPENDENT WAREHOUSE.

GEO. H. YARBORO.

AFFIDAVIT OF MIKE RHODES.

(A Copy)

Mullins, S. C., August 11, 1922. The Tobacco Growers Co-Operative Marketing Association:

Dear Co-Operators: I joined your Association in good faith, believing it would be a help to the farmers. I carried you the first 222 pounds of my tobacco, thinking you would be true to your word. I found out it was a fake, therefore I cannot work my wife and little children to death for a set of smart, slick tanned, dressed sports who came from Kentucky telling me slick tales. So, therefore, gentlemen, I being a poor man and having a wife and several little children striving to make a honest living trying to feed and clothe them, also trying to pay up house rent, which I had gotten behind, it was all I could do, and then giving to a bunch of unknown men my wife and little children's daily support. I cannot begin to do it. I sold more tobacco of the same kind with you which I only got $9.33. I sold with the Independents 20 pounds less and got $83.76, so, gentlemen, you see where I stand. I am an honest man and will do what is right, but you went get any more of my tobacco.

Yours truly,
(Signed) MIKE RHODES,
P. S.—The promise you made me to get my tobacco was 60 per cent, and you only gave me less than 12 per cent.

State of South Carolina,

County of Marion.

Personally appeared before me

Mike Rhodes, and made oath that the above facts are true.

Sworn to before me, this 11th day of August, 1922.

(Signed) E. A. CARMICHAEL,

Notary Public.

(Signed): MIKE RHODES.

BIG TOMATOES.

Mr. W. B. Humphries, one of the best farmers of his section, Bethel Hill, presented us with two tomatoes which weighed respectively one and a half and one and three quarter pounds. This has been a fine season for tomatoes, nearly every one producing some record breakers.

CHURCH CLOSED FOR FIFTEEN YEARS

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, GOSHEN.

St. Paul's Church, Goshen, Granville County; Not Egypt, Closed for Fifteen Years.

I made my first visit to St. Paul's Church, Goshen, in Granville County, (not Egypt) on the 5th Sunday of April, last. Since that date I have been making regular visits to St. Paul's every 3rd Sunday afternoon and the 5th Sunday mornings. When making preparation to depart for Goshen or on returning from there, I have been frequently asked: "where are you going?" or "where have you been?" My reply, "Goshen", necessitated another question, to wit: "where is Goshen?"

These questions from my friends and a request from Mr. Noell, the Editor of the Roxboro Courier, led me to undertake to write a short article, stating the locality of Goshen with a brief sketch of its history.

The majority of people in these parts seem to confound St. Paul's Goshen, with Goshen Chapel. This is a mistake. Goshen Chapel was originally built by the Methodist. They could not make a go of it so I am told and sold out to the Disciples. The Disciples failed; pulled up stakes and left and now the Presbyterians are using Goshen Chapel as a house of worship. Goshen Chapel is at the cross roads just north of Berea and has never been used by an Episcopal congregation. St. Paul's Church, Goshen, is situated about three miles northeast of Goshen and has never been used by any except an Episcopal congregation.

St. Paul's Church, Goshen, built in 1871 by Miss Lucy Thorp and her brother Mr. Peterson Thorp and other volunteer subscriptions, and had a flourishing congregation for about 20 or 25 years. Then adversity came to the donors and chief supporters of St. Paul's. They passed on—some to different parts of this terrestrial ball and some to the celestial abode of the disembodied spirits—until but a handful of the once flourishing congregation was left and the services were discontinued and the doors of St. Paul's locked about 15 years ago. From that indefinite date until the 5th Sunday in April last, when Mr. Nathan Lunsford and I went down there and reopened the doors for service. We had 24 people to worship at this service and I have been making regular pilgrimages to St. Paul to hold services every 3rd Sunday afternoon and the 5th Sunday mornings. The Thorps who still sojourn in the Land of Goshen, seem very much enthused over the prospects of a revival of St. Paul's, and I have hopes of building up a congregation there in the wilderness.
