The opening period of the mammoth subscription drive running on the Roxboro Courier finds many persons of this section trying hard to win the handsome Chevrolet Sedan or one of the other beautiful prizes that are to be given away in the course of the next few weeks. The person who displays the best salesmanship qualities between now and Nov. 4th will be the proud owner of the Sedan that is offered as the first grand prize in the Courier's huge campaign. Up to the present time none of the Club Members have secured a decided lead over the rest of the field, and the present writing finds all of them closely bunched in the race, but the largest extra vote offer to be allowed closes this coming Tuesday night, October 17, and it behooves each and every candidate to get busy in these next few days, so that he or she may get his or her full share of the extra votes to be allowed. At the present time and up until Tuesday a subscription will average many times more votes than the same subscription if not taken until the last of the campaign, so don't fall down now, candidates, for every minute means something to you and your fight for the Sedan. After Tuesday the votes must decrease on each subscription, and during the last part of the drive only one fourth as many votes will be allowed, so see to it that you take advantage of the huge and splendid offer while it is in effect.

Votes Not to Be Published.

One of the attractive features of the drive is that at no time during the drive will the votes of any candidate be published in the columns of this paper. After a candidate works for his or her votes, they are his or her own property and the campaign manager does not possess the right to make known to any one these votes. If a candidate wants any one else to know the number of votes he or she has, the right to tell them, but that right does not rest with the manager of the campaign. No one of the Courier's force will make known the votes that are in the name of any candidate until the final judges announce this on the closing night. Every possible precaution has been taken to safeguard the interests of the Club Members, and any one interested may rest assured that nothing will be left undone to make this campaign as fair to all parties as human ingenuity can make it. Every candidate is warned to collect all the subscriptions he or she has before this huge offer closes, for now is the time to work. "Make hay while the sun shines" is the old saying. You do it with votes and there is a mighty big prize waiting for you at the close of this mammoth campaign. You will get more votes on each subscription between now and next Tuesday than any time after that date, so see to it that you get your full share of them. Many personal friends of the different candidates have advised them to hold back their subscriptions until the last, expecting to get a greater number of votes at that time. This is absolutely NOT the case, and any one who attempts this method will most certainly be the loser, for the votes on each subscription must decrease after Tuesday, and at no other time will they count as many votes as they do now.

Campaign Closes Nov. 4th. The Campaign will close on the night of Nov. 4th and under no consideration will this date be extended regardless of the number of subscriptions collected or the amount of money taken in. Every candidate should bear in mind that no extra time will be allowed them in which to secure additional votes. Take advantage of this offer now, or forever kiss this life-time opportunity goodbye. Another thing that may possibly confuse candidates is the number of rumors that are or will be traveling around. Candidates should be broad-minded enough to take no stock in them, for you know all of these could not possibly be true. Sometimes these false rumors are started by the intimate friends of a co-worker in the campaign, just in order to mislead some one else. Candidates who are easily discouraged will never win an automobile. Only the real stickers and workers can hope for such a luxury. Make that one yourself and win this handsome Chevrolet Sedan.

It is not too late yet for a candidate to enter the drive. In fact, we expect to have some ambitious persons entering right along. Most any one could enter the drive now and still have a wonderful chance to win one of the major prizes. Remember, Mr. and Miss Public, that the campaign is not over yet, nor have any of the prizes been won by any of the candidates already in the race. You may do better than any one if you will just try; so think this over and then start out after the subscriptions that will mean votes to you in the campaign. Remember, some one is going to win these prizes, and it may as well be you as some other person. Call the campaign manager, Phone 39, and ask any preliminary question you may think of, and then get your receipt books and start to work. But remember that after Tuesday the votes will start to decrease, and after Tuesday you will not get the sum of 200,000 extra votes on each and every $24.00 you turn in.

AT THE EDGAR LONG MEMORIAL.

Last Sunday was almost a red letter day. Large audiences filled the church at both hours, especially the evening hour was marked by an unusual congregation filling the auditorium and a large portion of the spacious Sunday School room. A band of young people from the Methodist Orphanage of Raleigh gave a most excellent sacred concert.

Next Sunday at 11 A. M. sermon by the pastor. Subjects: "Program of a Progressive Church." At 7:30 P. M. Song Service, or Songs that Swung Old England Back to God. Short story of each of these old hymns will be told. First reading the hymn and pointing out the lessons it contains, and then singing it by the entire audience, led by the choir. This should be a great service. Come and worship with us.

RECORD RECEIPTS AS CO-OPS OPEN

2ND CASH ADVANCE IN NEAR FUTURE FOR S. C.

Nine Million Pounds Last Week. Manager Sands in the East this Week.

The flood gates of Cooperative Marketing opened last week when 9,000,000 pounds of tobacco from the organized growers of North Carolina and Virginia alone poured into the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association.

Members of the Cooperative in North Carolina delivered 6,000,000 pounds of tobacco 4,500,000 pounds in the old belt and Central markets and 1,500,000 pounds in Eastern North Carolina.

The Virginia growers placed 3,250,000 pounds of the weed on 18 cooperative floors within four days time. All the tobacco of 34 grades delivered on the opening day to 24 cooperative markets of the old belt were sold to leading manufacturers before, the sun had set on the first day of cooperative marketing in Western Carolina and Virginia. Other heavy orders have reached the Association since the opening of the old belt markets and according to Richard R. Patterson, manager of the Leaf Department, the Association is selling at figures which are highly satisfactory as compared to the average prices on the auction floors.

With each day's operation the cooperative system runs more smoothly and the enthusiasm of the growers within the Association is proven by the fact that 400 contracts of new members reached Raleigh headquarters during the past week, and the number of local organizations of the association has risen to 298 in Western North Carolina. Most of these locals supply their own detectives to watch for contract breakers, but as yet not a single case of contract breaking in the old belt has been reported to headquarters. Local organizations of the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association are increasing in number throughout Eastern North Carolina, and at a series of meetings held last week throughout the eastern belt association members pledged their support in reporting any cases of contract breaking on the part of local warehousemen or growers in their district.

Oliver J. Sands executive manager of the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association will address mass meetings of tobacco growers at Rocky Mount next Wednesday, October 18th, at Greenville and Washington next Thursday, October 19th, and at Kinston and New Bern on the morning and afternoon of Friday, October 20th.

Following the recent rains and the highly successful sales of Eastern Carolina tobacco large deliveries are expected this week from members in the eastern belt, while the enthusiastic support and heavy deliveries of the great majority of growers in Virginia and Western Carolina who make up the membership of the association insure its complete success throughout the old belt.

Funds are being forwarded from the Richmond office of the tobacco cooperative to the friendly banks of South Carolina, which have become its depositories, and the second cash advance will be paid to the South Carolina growers in the near future according to recent advices from the Richmond offices of the Association.

TWO WEEK'S VACATION.

Mrs. Carrie Pettigrew Bradsher, the social correspondent for the News and Observer and the Greensboro News and for a long time the popular local editor of The Courier, left last Saturday for Burlington, Durham and Raleigh where she will spend her vacation for the next two weeks.

Mrs. Herbert E. Morris of Raleigh is visiting her brother, Mr. A. M. Burns.

Mrs. Callie Stimmis of Washington, D. C. is the guest of Mrs. A. S. deVlaming.

Mrs. John A. Noell left this morning for Richmond for a few days.

CO-OPS GOING STRONG.

Quarter Million Pounds Delivered Last Week. Satisfactory Advances.

The Co-Operative Market is surely going good and strong in this tobacco town, and the farmers of this and adjoining counties are bringing it in. Last week there was more than a quarter of a million pounds delivered here, and rarely did you hear a grumble. Of course, there are some who would grumble, in fact they could not be happy if they could not grumble and kick, but that class certainly has kept out of the Association in these parts for we have heard very little complaint. This is very gratifying to the managers, for they are men of integrity, and well known in the tobacco business.

Only one warehouse has been in use, that is, one at a time, but they have had to shift from one to another, but we learn that it is expected to open the second house soon and receive at each of them daily.

On last Monday the largest delivery was made for the season so far, amounting to 76,792 pounds, with a very satisfactory average advance.

ROXBORO SOLD 80 THOUSAND LBS FRIDAY

AT AN AVERAGE OF BETTER THAN THIRTY FOUR DOLLARS

More than Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds Sold Last Week at an Average of $34.

The tobacco business was the business in Roxboro last week. The New Hyco sold more than 350,000 pounds at an average of about $34.00 per hundred. With a little figuring you will see that more than $119,000 was turned loose here to the farmers. And this does not take into consideration the money which the Co-Ops paid out in advances for the quarter million pounds which they received. We have been unable to get the figures from the Association, but it was no small amount, for the tobacco they are receiving is of just as good grade as that sold on the floor, so you see the two combined will make an amount of large proportions.

The sales on the open floor for Thursday was 81,798. Friday 77,886 and Monday 51,064. We failed to get the other two days of the week, Tuesday and Wednesday, but the sales were heavy on those two days. The sales are heavy every day now, and the prices are advancing every day. Rarely have we seen a season in which the farmers were so universally pleased, but that is usually the case where the tobacco is good and coming in in good condition. And such is the case this season, the tobacco is good and the farmers are handling it with unusually good care. Never during our long stay in Roxboro have we known as much tobacco coming from neighboring counties as this year. There must be a reason—probably higher prices.

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW.

Valuable Prizes Offered for Chrysanthemums by the Ladies of Edgar Long Memorial.

The ladies of the Edgar Long Memorial Church will hold a chrysanthemum show in the basement of the church just as soon as the chrysanthemums are ready. All of the ladies of the town and County are asked to come and bring their flowers and compete for the prizes.

- $5.00 from the Bank of Roxboro will be given for the largest yellow chrysanthemum.
- $5.00 from the Peoples Bank will be given for the largest white chrysanthemum.
- $5.00 from the First National Bank will be given for the largest in any other color.
- $5.00 from the Hyco Warehouse will be given for the best collection of chrysanthemums from any one person.
- $2.50 from the Tobacco Board of Trade will be given for the best specimen plant.
- $2.50 from the Tobacco Board of Trade will be given for the best vase of cut chrysanthemums.
- Admission fee for everybody 10 cents. Refreshments will be served at a reasonable price.

MAKE GOOD CORN.

It seems that there are quite a number who have some fine fields of corn. Mr. E. F. Fox, one of the most energetic and prosperous young farmers of this County, has a field of 6 acres which he says he is willing to measure against any like field in the County and believes he will show more corn than any of the others. And, let us say, he has some good corn and the field which produces more to the acre will have to be mighty good corn. Again, we say, measure your corn and report results to this office.

SONG SERVICE AT BAPTIST CHURCH.

On next Sunday night there will be a unique song service at the Roxboro Baptist Church, beginning at 7:30. There will be choirs at the service from six of the country churches, namely: Bethel Hill, Mill Creek, Providence, North Roxboro, Rock Grove and Antioch, and probably others. If you want to hear some real music you are cordially invited to this service.

Miss Helen White left yesterday morning for Washington where she will visit her sister.

SHORT HISTORY

Of the Woman's Missionary Society of Edgar Long Memorial M. E. Church

We have been requested to give a short history of the Woman's Missionary Society of Edgar Long Memorial M. E. Church, Roxboro, N. C.

This auxiliary was organized by Rev. H. H. Gibbons, pastor of the church, the twenty-fifth of September, 1879, under the name of Person Circuit Woman's Missionary Society with fifteen members, including the following officers: Mrs. Ella Webb, President, Mrs. Emma Reade, Vice-President, Miss Pattie Satterfield, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Ella Fuller Corresponding Secretary and Mrs. Sue Satterfield, Treasurer. All of these officers have passed to their reward, and only two of those, whose names were then enrolled, are now living.

We miss the presence of these sainted women who had the faith and vision to believe that the united prayers, work and offerings of women would advance the Kingdom of God throughout the world. Their influence remains with us and has been an inspiration to us to go forward in this good work.

This Society has never been disbanded, but Oh! how often discouraged by the indifference and few in number who attended the meetings. So many seemed to think payment of dues, when called upon, all that was necessary. But the faithful few never gave up, and have been rewarded by seeing this Society grow in membership and interest until we now have ninety one members.

In 1910 we entertained the Conference Missionary Society, and have had the District Meetings several times. We have both Bible and Mission study classes using books in Mission study recommended? We are now studying "Women and Missions," got on the honor roll last year, and hope to do the same this year. For fifteen years we have clothed a child at the Raleigh Orphanage. Have assisted needy preachers and sent twenty sheets to Brevard this fall.

We are grateful and proud to say, a young lady, Miss Mary Nichols, a member of our Society, who attended Scarrett Bible Training School, has now been appointed Deaconess at Kay West, Florida.

We have two meetings each month, and they are very well attended. Last year we decided to name our Society the Mary Hambrick Missionary Society of Edgar Long Memorial Church in honor of one of our most consecrated and devoted members, who died two years ago last June.

We cannot close this meager report without mentioning our splendid District Meeting held September 7th and 8th, presided over by our efficient District Secretary, Miss Mattie Pulliam. We were honored by having our Conference President, Miss May Elda Smith and Miss Sallie Lou McKinnon with us, who charmed a large audience with their inspirational messages. Miss Lillie Duke, Superintendent of young people's work, gave spirited talks, which all enjoyed. An elaborate dinner was served Friday to all the guests. It was uplifting to be associated with so many good women, and we all felt it to be a great occasion.

Let us, as workers for our Master, have impressed upon our hearts the following words quoted by Miss Bennett in her message at Richmond, Virginia, in 1921:

"Be strong! We are not here to play, to dream, to drift; We have hard work to do, and loads to lift; Shun not the struggle; face it, 'tis God's gift. Be strong! Be strong." —Contributed.
