BIG DELIVERIES LAST WEEK

The Co-Operative Association Has Best Week of the Season.

It was a busy time at the old Pioneer last week with the Co-Ops, they having had the best deliveries of the season during the week. On Monday and Tuesday the graders were kept busy all day, and many loads were carried over for the next day's sale. Owing to the fact that all tobacco delivered on or before the 20th of the month will participate in the second payment which is expected to be made early in the New Year Mr. H. W. Winstead, warehouse manager for Roxboro, is expecting heavy deliveries every day until that date.

A SUCCESS OF COURSE.

We are glad to know the bazaar, given under the auspices of the ladies of the Edgar Long Memorial Church, was a decided success. Rarely have we seen a larger collection of fancy work donated by the members of the societies of the Church, and the gifts were plentiful. These bazaars are annual events of the town and many have saved great annoyance in selecting their Christmas presents. The net proceeds amounted to $5.25.

DEATH OF MRS. O'BRIANT.

Mrs. Lenora O'Briant died at the home of her husband near Moriah last Sunday morning. The burial took place Monday evening at Mt. Lebanon near Durham. Mrs. O'Briant was 71 years, 6 months and 13 days old, and leaves besides husband, five children, three sons and two daughters. She was a consistent and faithful member of Mt. Harmony Baptist Church.

DEATH OF MRS. HAMLIN.

Mrs. Martha Hamlin died Monday at her home about four miles West of Roxboro. Her remains were buried at the private burying grounds near her home yesterday evening. Mrs. Hamlin was a levelly spirit and leaves a large number of relatives and friends who will mourn her death.

MANUET CALLED OFF.

The banquet in honor of visitors from Greensboro scheduled for yesterday evening was called off owing to the unfavorable weather. Evidently our Greensboro friends do not know what class of roads we have down this way.

COMING TO PERSON COUNTY

Some Time After the Christmas Holidays.

Mrs. Ida Jeannette Wreden, a member of the period, with her troublesome family, including the remnants Beth and others, in the play entitled "As A Woman Thinker" to be given by the Providence B. V. P. L. for benefit of new Baptist Church now being erected at Providence. Help us build our church by patronizing our play.

HOG KILLING TIME.

We are glad to publish the big hogs which our farmer friends are killing, for it shows our people are interested in the slogan, "Live at Home." Mr. W. J. Whitfield of the Bushy Fork section reports as follows: 4 killed weighing 400, 415, 426, and 440. Mr. J. B. Walker of Jitong reports 2 killed weighing 1040, 12 months old, average 520.

CONGREGATION BUYS SITE FOR CHURCH BUILDING

The Episcopal congregation has bought a site for a new church building which they propose to erect in the near future, the location being on North Main Street. This congregation, though small in numbers is one of the most active congregations in the town.

SUPT. OF EXPRESS COMPANY HERE.

Mr. Smith, superintendent of the Express Company, was in Roxboro last Friday looking into the proposition of giving the town free express delivery. This will be quite a convenience to the town and we are glad to know that Mr. Smith will recommend the adoption of this plan.

SOCIETY NEWS

The Research Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. H. S. Morton, with Mrs. J. B. Hurley leading the lesson review, the subject of which was "The Grand Canyon" Mrs. R. L. Wilburn read the humorous little story of "Ellie Parker Butler's Pigs is Pigs." Concluding the hour was a delightful menu of grape fruit, salad, coffee and whipped cream. Present were, Mesdames W. C. Bullock, T. E. Austin, A. M. Burns, E. P. Dunlap, A. S. deVlaming, J. B. Hurley, J. J. Winstead, R. L. Wilburn, W. O. Sample, and W. T. Pass.

Mrs. Otis Wilkerson and Miss Clara Edwards were joint hostesses to the members of the T. and N. Club, and a few invited friends on Thursday evening, honoring Miss Bess Finley, who was a house guest. Boston Book was played at four tables, and after several progressions, the hostesses served a salad course, coffee and stuffed dates. During the progressions Hershey's chocolates were served.

The guests enjoying this affair were Mesdames Joe Blanks, T. C. Bradsher, E. U. Parker, R. M. Spencer, Misses Bertha and Annie Clayton, Mollie Strum, Della Bryan, Katie Lee Matthews, Ruth Kate and Ethel Newton, Mildred Satterfield, Sue Merritt, and Hilda Mitchell.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Most of the schools will close next Friday, the 15th for Christmas holidays. Two weeks will be given or till Tuesday Jan. 2nd, 1923.

The outlook for a High School Building for Roxboro and Roxboro Township is fine. The interest is rapidly growing and the matter is taking on a fine and healthy shape. It is indeed encouraging to hear our citizens express themselves so favorably for the movement.

We rejoice to see this growing interest and pray that it may continue to grow till a Great Building shall be erected in our borders.

The first page of the Courier of week before last was an interesting page. It gave all of us much to think about a platform for some good deep thinking. The thirteen activities named make a fine list sure enough, each of which should interest all our citizens. However I was, indeed, sorry to find no mention whatever made to the most vital matter and surely the paramount need of the people of Roxboro and of the whole of Roxboro Township. How eagerly and anxiously we looked for this item as we read on and on, through the list, but we failed to find it. "A fine High School Building for Roxboro, and Roxboro Township." But we are sure that this was by no means an intentional omission from the list of good things, but it was simply forgotten for, most assuredly, the leaders in these great things are also deeply interested in a High School Building and feel that we must have it at an early date.

MR. LONG DIES SUDDENLY.

Mr. Jess R. Long, who lived at Ceffo, was found dead last Saturday. It seems that he had gone out to his hog pen to feed his hogs and when found had either gotten over in the pen or fell over, and died suddenly. The hogs had mutilated his face, eaten off a part of his nose and ear. It was recalled that Mr. Long was knocked down and painfully hurt by an automobile some months since and had not fully recovered from this accident, though he was able to be out and attend to his business affairs. He was in Roxboro last Tuesday.

Mr. Long was one of Person's most substantial farmers and business men, having successfully conducted a mercantile establishment at Ceffo for many years.

We were glad to have a call from our friend Mr. W. J. Yarboro last Thursday. Mr. Yarboro happened to a very painful accident a few days ago, having cut his leg while felling a tree.

Mr. Louis Goodfriend, for many years one of Roxboro's leading merchants, spent the day here last Saturday. He is now retired from business and is making his home in Baltimore.

MARKET CLOSES DECEMBER 20TH

Both Markets, Independent and Association Will Close Dec. 20th for Holidays.

The Roxboro Tobacco Market will close on the 20th of this month for the Christmas holidays, the independent house, the New Hyco, will open on January 2nd, 1923, the date for the opening of the Association house has not been announced.

The season has been very satisfactory, both the Independent and the Association, are very happy ever the success of the market for this season and are expecting to sell a large lot of tobacco after the holidays. Especially is this true of the Association, for many of the members of this association have sold very little of the crop as yet.

PACK HOUSE BURNED

Last Friday night a pack house on the farm belonging to Mrs. W. L. Thomas, about 2 miles east of town, was destroyed by fire. The barn contained six and a half burlings of extra good tobacco. Mr. H. A. Satterfield living on the farm, this is quite a heavy loss though they were fortunate in having some insurance. Right near this pack barn was another which the neighbors succeeding in saving though it caught fire and seemed almost sure to burn down.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this method to thank all of the neighbors and friends who did such fine work in saving our pack barn on last Friday night. Only by their timely and heroic work was this barn saved, and we are deeply appreciative of their efforts. Mrs. W. L. Thomas, H. A. Satterfield.

W. O. SAMPLE

THE "LITTLE WOMAN"

This splendid drama in five acts, adapted from the story by Louise M. Alcott, will be presented by the students of Olive Hill High School at the school auditorium on Friday evening, Dec. 15th, at 7 o'clock. This play will interest and instruct you and it will worth the price. Everybody invited, especially the citizens of Roxboro.

TO THE FARMERS OF HALIFAX AND ADJOINING COUNTIES:

We have been wanting to write you for the past several weeks, but we have just been so busy getting ready for our patrons, that we have not had time, and too, writing ads in newspapers does not get big prices, but we do want to call your attention to the good work we are doing. Take Geo. Finch our auctioneer, he is the best judge of tobacco, and the best-auctioneer in the three states, he knows what your tobacco is worth and he will not quit until he gets the top-notch. Now you don't know what this means for you in dollars. Also take Joel Younger, he knows tobacco from start to finish, raised in it doesn't know anything else but tobacco, and has the interest of the farmer at heart. Dave Conner is on the job every minute and his friends are never forgotten. Tom Reaves and Dick Nichols are here every day and they see to it that no one goes away dissatisfied. Do you know it will pay you to sell your tobacco at the Independent, if you don't sell with us, all you have to do is try us with one load, we could give you big prices enough to fill a book, we get them every day, but come and see for yourself and be convinced that the Independent is the place for you to sell, best accommodations for man and beast, and courteous treatment from the harness man up.

Yours for business, Independent Warehouse.

EVERBODY HAPPY AT THE NEW HYCO

Prices Good, Especially for Good Wrappers. Big Averages.

Sales during the past week have been unusually good at the New Hyco and everybody seems to be delighted with the prices. Many averages of more than $50.00 were reported and Mr. G. T. Pentecost of Cedar Grove made an average of $55.00 for a load of good tobacco which he brought in from Cedar Grove, just over in Orange County.

Mr. W. T. Pass, manager of the New Hyco, says if you want some Christmas money, and a lot of it, just bring a good load to the New Hyco and you will not be disappointed.

Mr. B. A. Clayton, one of our valued young farmer friends from near Prospect Hill, favored us with a call Monday. He is an ardent member of the Co-Operative Association and is very much pleased with the workings of the Association.

We are very glad to learn that Mr. Thomas Hamlin, who has been in Watt's Hospital for the treatment of his hand, which was caught in a husker, has returned home and is getting on nicely.

We enjoyed a pleasant call from our friend Mr. G. T. Pentecost last Friday. Mr. Pentecost is one of the good farmers who left us and moved over into Cedar Grove, Orange Co., but he still knows where to sell his good tobacco. He sold a load at the New Hyco which averaged $55.00.
