Tuesday, Dec. 11
at 8 P. M.

Happiness abounds with laughs, with here and there a tragic touch so that it is closer to the old saying "you laugh one minute and weep the next" than any other play of recent years. Mr. Day has produced it with the same attention to detail as was displayed in the original production. There are three acts and an epilogue and in the epilogue much cause for rejoicing with little Jennie in the fulfillment of her ambitions.

It has a universal appeal to people in every walk of life.

This Lyceum course will consist of three performances, dates for the two others to be announced later, all of very high class, such as the people will enjoy. Reserved seats for the three plays will be sold for $1.50. Single admission for In Happiness, $1.00. You will be wise to see the Committee selling the tickets and buy a season ticket—for every one is going to want to see all three performances.
