SHAKE-UP IN CO-OP MANAGEMENT

FOUR MEMBERS OF THE OFFICE FORCE RESIGN

Mr. H. W. Winstead, Manager Co-op Warehouse, and Mess. J. J. Winstead, K. C. Wagstaff and T. P. Featherston Resign.

For some time it has been an open secret that there was dissatisfaction in the management of the Co-op Association warehouse here. Just what caused this feeling we know not, but the matter came to a head on last Wednesday when Mr. H. W. Winstead, warehouse manager, and Mess. J. J. Winstead, K. C. Wagstaff and T. P. Featherston handed in their resignations.

Mr. Claud T. Hall, director for this district, told us the resignations had been accepted and a manager would be named in a very short time. Mr. Featherston has reconsidered the matter and accepted a contract for the coming year with the Co-ops, while the other two vacancies will not be filled, as he thinks the force will be able to handle the crop without any more help. Mr. Hall further stated that these changes would mean a saving of six thousand dollars to the Association members of the County.

We know nothing about the Co-op management, but we do know that Mr. Hall has started on the right road when he began cutting down expenses. Now, if the Association will adopt this rule all over the three States, and will cut out this secrecy to what salaries they pay they will have gone a long way towards regaining the confidence of their members.

VOTE ON JULY 5th.

It seems that there are some who think they can not vote in the primary unless they have paid their poll tax. This is a mistake, you can vote regardless of whether you have paid your poll tax. And then some are of the opinion that if they failed to vote on June 7th they are not entitled to vote on July 5th. If your name is on the registration books, that is, if you voted in the past few years you can vote in the primary on July 5th.

"THE COVERED WAGON."

"The Covered Wagon" is the greatest achievement in motion picture history. Several hundred mounted men actually risked their lives in the buffalo hunt, which is absolutely genuine from start to finish. Judge Brown says it is the greatest picture ever produced, and told us when we had an opportunity to see it, not to miss it.

The Princess Theatre has gone to great expense to bring this picture to Roxboro and we hope they will have a packed house at every performance, in fact they will have to have such houses or lose money on the proposition. Let's show our appreciation for the spirit they display in bringing the best pictures obtainable—for just as soon as some notable picture is screened and given to the public they begin negotiations for bringing it to Roxboro.

"The Covered Wagon" is coming July 2nd, 3rd and 4th, and you want to remember the dates. Don't miss it.

FIRST THREE DAYS CONVENTION PLANS

HULL TO ADDRESS

Balloting for President and Vice-President Will Begin Late Thursday.

New York, June 22.—Recognizing the probability of prolonged sessions, the Democratic national convention managers have arranged only a tentative program for the first three days. These arrangements will carry the machinery of the convention past the adoption of the platform and to the beginning of the nominations for President. After that the program will be dictated by events.

In order to give the platform committee plenty of time for its work, the plan is to hear the nominating speeches for President while the committee is working; then to adopt the platform, and then proceed to the balloting for nominations. This same plan was followed in San Francisco four years ago.

The tentative program for the first three days is as follows.

First Day

Convention called to order by Chairman Hull. Invocation by Cardinal Hayes. Official photograph. Brief address by Chairman Hull. Reading of the official call for the convention.

Recommendations for temporary officers and their election.

A committee will escort Senator Harrison, temporary chairman, to the platform.

At this point, Chairman Hull expects to ask the convention whether it desires Senator Harrison to deliver his address or take a recess until night.

Should the address be postponed, Chairman Hull expects the convention to proceed with organization by the adoption of rules and the reference of resolutions to the committee on platform and resolutions. Should the convention insist upon the speech being delivered immediately the organization will follow the speech.

Adoption of a resolution providing for the organization of committees on resolutions, credentials, permanent organization, rules and order of business, to notify nominee for President, to notify nominee for vice president, and statement of time and place of meetings.

Transaction of sundry miscellaneous business.

Adjournment.

Second Day

Convention called to order by Senator Harrison.

Report of committee on credentials.

Report of committee on permanent organization.

Address by the permanent chairman, Senator Walsh, of Montana.

Report of committee on rules and order of business.

Adoption of rule limiting nominating speeches for President to 20 minutes and seconding speeches to 5 minutes, and limiting latter to three in number; also limiting nominating speeches for vice president to 10 minutes for each nominee and seconding speeches to five minutes, and not to exceed two in number.

Adoption of the rule recognizing and enforcing unit rule in the delegations of those states which have adopted such a rule in their state conventions.

Resolution of thanks to New York city.

Resolution authorizing Democratic national committee to fix the time and place for holding the next national convention.

Resolution providing for the organization of the national committee.

Adjournment.

Third Day

Convention called to order by Senator Walsh.

Prayer.

Announcements by the secretary. Call of states for candidates for presidential nominees.

After the nominating speeches have been made the convention will proceed to the adoption of a platform.

From this point, the program is indefinite. It seems probable that the nominating speeches in prospect may not be delivered in one day; or a night session may be decided upon.

SOCIETY.

The ladies of the Methodist church gave a silver tea at the home of Mrs. H. M. Winstead on Friday afternoon. Two dainty little misses in beruffled white organdie frocks received the contributions at the door, these being Misses Mary Marshall Dunlap and Anna Wooding Winstead. Mrs. Winstead very graciously greeted the guests, and directed them to the living room and music room where Dorothy Perkins roses and nasturtiums with sweetpeas were used in attractive baskets and vases to decorate the beautiful home. The entire lower floor was thrown en-suite for the afternoon. A very delightful program under the direction of Mrs. W. T. Long was given. This consisted of several vocal numbers given by Mesdames Preston Satterfield, T. C. Bradsher and Miss Hazel Thompson. Misses Mary Hatchett and Isabel deVlaming delighted with piano selections. With Miss Mollie Walters, of Baylor college, Texas, in a number of delightful readings, who responded most generously to encores from the guests. At the close of the program, the ladies were invited into the spacious dining room, and served by a bevy of young ladies, refreshing tea, sandwiches and mints. Following this, much merriment was caused by the "fishing-pond" which had been constructed in the hall. Each in turn received a "bite" and quite an array of things were displayed by the "fishers." Mrs. Winstead was assisted in looking after the guests by Mesdames E. P. Dunlap, L. M. Carlton and W. T. Pass.

A marriage of interest to their many friends here and in Virginia was that of Miss Mary Willie Hall and Raymond Singleton, which took place in South Boston, Va., on Wednesday at high noon. Rev. C. W. Maxwell, of the Presbyterian church performed the ceremony at his home. The bride was costumed in blue flat-back crepe, with gray accessories, and carried a bouquet of Bride roses. Following the quiet ceremony the couple left for Washington, D. C., for a 10 days' trip, returning them to South Boston, where they will reside. Accompanying the couple to South Boston, were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Pulliam, Mrs. Pulliam being a sister of the bride, and Clyde Hall, her brother.

Mrs. Singleton is a young lady who has spent her life here, where she was reared, and has a wide circle of friends who regret that her marriage takes her to another city. Mr. Singleton is a well known young man in his community and holds a position with the Crowell Auto company, of South Boston.

DEATH OF MISS EYVE STREET.

Miss Eyve Street died at her home at Mill Creek Friday evening. The funeral services were held at the 7:30 Sunday evening, conducted by her pastor, Rev. N. J. Todd, assisted by Rev. R. E. White, of Roxboro, Rev. G. T. Watkins of Durham and Rev. F. M. Shamburger of Edgar Long Memorial Church of Roxboro. A large crowd gathered to pay their last respects to this good woman.

Miss Street was a member of Mill Creek Baptist Church and was one of the pillars, being active in every phase of church life, especially has she wrought a great work among the young people, several of her Sunday School scholars being among the workers in the foreign fields. Truly a good woman has passed from us, and her place in her community and church life will be hard to fill. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Sallie Morris, of Roxboro, and four brothers, Mr. J. J. Street of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. W. T. Street of California, Norman and K. L. Street of Mill Creek.

DURHAM MAN IS ARRESTED IN ROXBORO FOR GRAND LARCENY.

Charged with the theft of an Essex touring car, alleged to have been stolen from C. A. King, on February 24, 1924, H. E. Sykes, white man of Durham was arrested Saturday afternoon in Roxboro, by Sheriff Long of Person county.

Upon being notified immediately after the arrest, Sheriff Harward sent George King, of his forde, to Durham shortly after 5 o'clock. Sykes is now in jail pending preliminary hearing in recorder's court.

The Essex, belonging to King, was one of several cars rented out by the mile by its owner. This is the second car belonging to King that has been stolen this year.

Sykes has been at liberty since the latter part of February, and officers had lost complete track of his whereabouts until the Person sheriff recognized him Saturday afternoon. The car was valued at approximately $500, according to the warrant served on Sykes.

Saturday morning in recorder's court H. L. Brenner was charged with the theft last week of a Nash touring car belonging to O. T. Carver. Judge Graham found probable cause and Brenner was bound over to higher court under bond of $1,000. Auto thefts, officials say, are on the increase in Durham during the last month.
