RESULT OF SAT- URDAY'S PRIMARY

GRIST, CATES AND BROOKS THE WINNERS

Owing to the Race for Sheriff the Vote Was Heavy.

The primary resulted in one big surprise, the vote of Mr. Frank Grist, for Labor Commissioner. The general opinion was that Mr. Shipman would lead by a large majority, but when the votes were counted Mr. Grist was a big winner, the vote was, Grist 1011, Shipman 340.

In the race for the Legislature it was generally conceded that Mr. Cates would win, having led by a good margin in the first race. The vote was, W. Roy Cates 1045, W. E. Wilkerson 635.

The race for sheriff was close, as it was in the first primary. No one was willing to take chances on prophesying how this would terminate. The vote was N. V. Brooks 922, J. Melvin Long 877.

The Democratic County ticket is as follows:

Senate, J. A. Long.
House, W. Roy Cates.
Sheriff, N. V. Brooks.
Register of Deeds, W. T. Kirby.
Treasurer, B. G. Clayton.
Coroner, Dr. A. F. Nichols.
Surveyor, E. D. Morton.
Commissioners, D. M. Cash, W. R. Woody, J. R. Franklin.

BRADSHAW AGAIN HITS

TOP GUN MARK AT HOGAN

Carl Bradshaw, veteran trap shot and gunner of no mean ability, last night astounded fans at the West Hogan lodge on Abasco Boulevard by fracturing 50 clay birds out of 50 thrown from the dugout in one of the neatest exhibitions ever seen here. Bradshaw hails from Roxboro, N. C.

Others who tried their skill at the lodge were: George E. Detweiler, 45 out of 50; Mrs. Detweiler, 44 out of 50; Tobian of San Antonio, 42 out of 50; Krier of Philadelphia, 42 out of 50; Mrs. Krier of Philadelphia, 40 out of 50.—Atlantic City Gazette.

AT LOCH LILY.

Last Thursday night the teachers of the Summer School had a picnic at Loch Lily. Each girl invited a boy. Hot weenies and ice tea were served. Those present were: Mr. A. C. Gentry, Miss Nance, Miss Parker, Miss Gladys Beam, Mr. Thomas Moore, Miss Ethel White, Mr. Rainey Crumpton, Miss Pearl Carver, Mr. Dickinson, Miss Margaret Breeze, Mr. Jack Horton, Miss Carrie Clayton, Mr. Jessie Slaughter, Miss Zelma Mangum, Mr. Guy Clayton, Miss Roxie Buchanan, Miss Bessie Mae Dean, Miss Broxie Meadows and Mr. Willie VanHook, Teacher.

MARY HAMBRICK

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Mary Hambrick Missionary Society met Monday afternoon in the Auxiliary rooms at the church. Roll call was answered with verse pertaining to the country or life in the country from the Psalms or some poet.

Mrs. Teague read the Bible lesson interestingly from Matthew 15, Chapter 20.

Mrs. Joe Blanks read the beautiful poem "God of the Open Air" by Henry Van Dyke.

Mrs. R. B. Smith was asked to give an account of the District Meeting in Yanceyville, which she did in her usual charming way. She said they were very proud of our President, Mrs. Mamie Merritt, and our society, as we were one hundred per cent in everything, even in Auxiliary membership. They were delightfully entertained by the Yanceyville Church and thoroughly enjoyed the District Meeting.—L.

J. L. Martin, Rector.

TO THE VOTERS OF PERSON COUNTY.

I take this method of thanking each and every one for their loyal support in the primaries. I wish I could see each one of my friends personally and thank them for what they have done for me.

The vote Saturday shows that the majority of the voters think that Mr. Brooks will make them a better sheriff than I have made, and I truly hope he will do so.

I have tried to make a clean fight in this campaign, and have tried not to make any enemies. I have tried to treat each candidate as I would have him treat me. A clear conscience is worth more to me than the sheriff's office.

Since I have been in the office I have tried very hard to give the people the service I thought they were expecting of me, and if I have failed in my duty in any way it was from the head and not from the heart. I don't want any one to think because I am defeated I will shirk my duty in any way. I will be in the sheriff's office until the first Monday in December and if my service is needed in your section at any time, day or night, rain or shine, don't hesitate to call on me. I am standing ready to do my duty as long as I stay in the sheriff's office.

There are a few people in this County who have made a very hard fight against me, and have said a lot of hard things about me, but I hope some day they will realize that they have done me a great injustice. Again I want to thank each and every one of my friends for the hard fight and many kind things they have done for me. I hope some day I can be of as much service to all of you as you have been to me. With best wishes to one and all I am,

Yours to serve,

J. Melvin Long,

Sheriff.

UNION MEETING OF AUXILIARIES.

The Union Meeting of the Auxiliaries of the Missionary Society of the Methodist churches of the County met with the Concord Church Auxiliary in the beautiful grove of the church on June 20th.

Mrs. Mamie Merritt, President of the Mary Hambrick Auxiliary, presided.

The meeting of the Auxiliaries at this time was a memorial in memory of Miss Belle Bennett.

Mrs. Clyde Wagstaff read a leaflet on "The Object of the Belle Bennett Memorial." Mrs. B. C. Thompson told why Scarritt School should be moved. There were other interesting papers on this great woman's life and her splendid work which will live forever.

After this meeting there was a bounteous picnic supper served on the tables in the grove and every one enjoyed the social hour.

The ladies of the Concord Auxiliary were delightful hostesses and did everything that was necessary to make this a pleasant and most profitable day.—L.

PROVIDENCE LOCAL PROGRAM.

Beginning Saturday evening, and every Saturday thereafter, the Providence Local has planned to render a regular program of community interest. The program will follow the business meeting of the local, which will begin at 8 o'clock P. M., promptly. The program for Saturday, July 12, is as follows:

Song, by Local.

Speech, "Why I like co-operative marketing," T. G. Buchanan.

Speech, "The ladies can help in the local," R. K. Young.

Special music, by Quartett.

Current events on co-operative marketing, J. H. Shotwell.

Speech, "What successful co-operative marketing will mean to us," W. M. Long.

Song, by Local.

The public is cordially invited to attend the Local. Come out and co-operate with us and let's enjoy the work together.

E. H. Perkins, Sec'y.

MCADOO RELEASES HIS DELEGATES

ADJOURNED AFTER BALLOTING ALL NIGHT

John W. Davis Has Regained Third Place in Convention Balloting.

Madison Square Garden, New York, July 9.—William G. McAdoo early this morning released his delegates as the Democratic national convention went into its one hundredth futile ballot at the beginning of its third week.

Earlier in the session, Governor Smith had informed the convention through Franklin D. Roosevelt that as soon as Mr. McAdoo signified his withdrawal from the contest he would do so also.

Mr. McAdoo signified his action in a letter to Chairman Walsh.

Mr. McAdoo's supporters declared his action had no connection with the proposal by Governor Smith that both withdraw but that it was expected Governor Smith's conditional offer of withdrawal would be carried out.

At 4 o'clock this morning Eastern daylight time the Democratic national convention adjourned until noon.

One Hundredth Ballot.

The result of the 100th ballot: McAdoo 190; Smith 351.5; Davis of West Virginia 203.5; Underwood 41 1-2; Ritchie 17 1-2; Walsh 52 1-2; Glass 35; Robinson 48; Ritchie 17 1-2; Walsh 52 1-2; Saulsbury 6; Owen 20; Meredith 77 1-2; Houston 9; Bryan; Daniels 24; Baker 4; Gerard 10; Berry 1. Total 1,089. Absent 7.

JOHN W. DAVIS NOMINATED

By Acclamation On The 103rd Ballot

Just before going to press, 2:30 P. M., news was received here over the radio located in the Newton-Wilkerson Drug Store, that Hon. John W. Davis, of West Virginia, had received the nomination for President on the Democratic ticket.

After balloting for more than ten days this was probably the happiest solution, and he will make it very interesting for the Republican candidate.

PRESIDENT'S SON IS DEAD AF- TER A LOSING BATTLE WITH POISON.

Washington, July 7.—Calvin Coolidge, son of the President, died tonight at Walter Reed hospital of blood poisoning.

The end came after the boy had battled with the utmost bravery and fortitude for five days against a disease which had racked his body with pain and sapped the reserve strength of his frail constitution.

President and Mrs. Coolidge, who had maintained constant vigil at the hospital were at the bedside, hopeful and cheering and comforting their son to the last.

Three sinking spells Sunday night brought him to the point of death. A slight rally Monday gave slight hope but soon thereafter he began again to lose ground and he never rallied again.

A sinking spell, the fourth he had suffered in 24 hours, brought death notwithstanding the use of oxygen and other restoratives. The courage which had withstood crisis after crisis and had beaten death off repeatedly was unable to meet the final attack.
The collapse began at 6:30 o'clock and he gradually sank into eternity.
He died at 10:30 o'clock.

FISHERMEN RETURN

The 150 Pound Catch Doubled By Many, But True Story.

The party composed Dr. B. E. Love, Mess. A. M. Burns, W. G. Miller, J.
H. Whitt, Dick Bullock, W. S. Clary, Jr., J. W. Noell and Dr. J. H. Hughes returned the first of the week from Morehead and have some big tales to tell of their fishing trip. It was a very successful trip and each enjoyed it every minute. The chief catch was made by Mess. Burns and Clary, the catch being a turtle weighing one hundred and fifty pounds. Mr. Burns, who was fishing with a steel rod and reel, first hung the turtle, but his line being small, would not hold, and the turtle broke loose, but in less than a minute Mr. Clary hung him and succeeded, with the help of the crowd, to land him. There would not have been more excitement on that boat had we happened to be there. In fact from the commotion you would have thought we had caught a whale. A large number of trout, blue fish, black fish, toad fish, flounders and of course, the ever present pin fish, ranging in size all the way from less than three feet long down to three inches. True, can prove it by Dick Bullock.

TO THE VOTERS OF PERSON COUNTY.

Since it is impossible for me to thank each of you in person for the vote given me in Saturday's primary, I take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation of this effort of my friends in making me the nominee of the Democratic party for sheriff of this County. If elected I shall endeavor to prove myself worthy of this expression of your confidence by filling this important office to the very best of my ability.

SMART OXFORD GIRL

Miss Francis Williams Wins Conservatory Scholarship.

The following news item is of interest to Oxford and Granville people, Miss Williams being the daughter of Mrs. Williams, teacher at the Oxford Orphanage:

Miss Francis Williams of Oxford, N. C., is continuing her studies at the Williams school of Expression which is affiliated with the Ithaca Conservatory of Music at Ithaca, N. Y., through the summer. Miss Williams who had been offered a position as Junior Superintendent with the Redpath Chautauqua decided to cancel her engagement upon receiving one of the scholarship awards for Summer School which the school gives to those obtaining the highest marks during the past semester. The work of this young student since entering the school has been of the highest character and she is being congratulated upon her success in winning the scholarship.— Oxford Ledger.

It may be added that in addition to this scholarship, Miss Williams has won two others while enrolled in this school. Miss Williams will be remembered by many friends in Roxboro.

LIFE-LONG SUBSCRIBER.

Mr. H. T. Clayton, one of our old-time subscribers, renewed again last Friday. Mr. Clayton says he has been subscribing for The Courier nearly ever since the first issue, and unless times get very much harder will continue as long as he lives. We appreciated his kind words and wish for him many more years in which to read it.

TUBERCULIN TESTING OF CATTLE

The County wide testing of cattle for tuberculosis started July 8th.
Good co-operation of cattle owners with the inspector will add greatly to the work in the County.

BEULAH W. M. U. Enlistment Campaign

At the Annual Meeting of the Beulah Woman's Missionary Union in Yanceyville in June many encouraging facts were brought out about the growth and development of the woman's work in Beulah. The percentage of churches in this Association engaged in active missionary work is unusually large. Of the twenty one churches in the association only three have no organized missionary work. The goal of course, is 100 per cent enlistment, and in time that will come. Within the last three years the junior organizations have almost trebled themselves, the number of young people enlisted in mission study and mission giving, having gone considerably beyond the five hundred mark.

All this is encouraging; it urged us to greater achievement. But the fact remains that there are still hundreds of women in Beulah not yet vitaly concerned about missions.
There are over a thousand women in Beulah; of these, four hundred sixteen are enrolled as members of a W. M. U.
S. This leaves a field for vast improvement.

In view of this fact it was decided at the Annual Meeting to put on an Enlistment Campaign during the next few months. The plan adopted is for every present member of a missionary society to win another member.
Every One Win One is the slogan.
This plan puts every member to work with a definite aim which is entirely within her reach. It means that those who get busy first meet the readiest success.

The minute the Annual Meeting closed an enthusiastic Caswell worker came up with another woman: "I've got mine!" she said, her eyes shining; and the woman won looked as happy as the winner. This is the kind of joyous activity that will put a world vision in every home in Beulah.
It is the kind of enthusiasm that will double the number of missionary-minded women in these two societies.

Every delegate at the Annual Meeting voted for the plan, and thereby pledged herself to discharge her own obligation and to do all she could to further the work in her own society.
It was suggested that each society keep a complete list of its membership on the walls of its meeting place, and as each one wins one a gold star be placed by her name. The stars added to the list will make accurate records easy and at the same time spur others to activity. At the next Annual Meeting there will be an Honor Roll of the societies achieving the best results.

"Don't you want me to win yours while you're gone?" One enthusiastic worker asked another who was leaving home for several weeks.

"No, sir— I want the pleasure of winning my own woman!" replied the other.

It is indeed a pleasure, a privilege, to lead another woman into the joys of active missionary service; and the Beulah W. M. U. during the summer months will leave no stone unturned to enlarge this privilege.

In all the long history of the Southern Baptist Convention, there has never been so crucial a period as the next four and a half months. The great 75 Million Campaign closes Dec. 1. Here is a challenge such as has never before come into the lives of most of us. It calls for our utmost supreme best, in love and service.
Enlisting all our women in joyous missionary activity is one of the best things we can do.—T.

Clyde Crowell, Charlie Harris, Wallace Woods and Clyde Bowen left Sunday for a trip to Western N. C.
They will make the trip in Mr. Crow-ell's car.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Woody and guests Miss Annie Sievers and Clarence Sievers of Somerset, Ky., spent a few days last week at Wrightsville Beach.

Mr. T. M. Jordan of Apex, N. C., who succeeded Mr. Ned Leeper as chief engineer of the Highway Commission, has arrived, and is on the job.

On Tuesday evening, Mesdames Preston Satterfield and T. E. Austin entertained at a beautifully appointed and delightful dinner for Mrs. J.
D. Cochran, who had been their guest for two weeks. A pretty color motif of yellow and green was carried out in the menu and floral arrangement.
The centerpiece for the table being an effective scheme of yellow flowers.
Rosebud place cards in this idea gave the guests their places. A menu of cantaloupe, boiled ham, fried chicken, hot rolls, potato chips, tomatoes with creamed cheese, olives, followed with ice cream and cake was served, the cream being molded in yellow rose effect. The guests were Mesdames A. S. deVlaming, N. S. Thompson, Mamie Merritt, B. E. Love, G. W.
Thomas, R. J. Teague, A. M. Burns, E. M. Davis, J. D. K. Richmond, J. J.
Winstead, H. W. Winstead, E. P.
Dunlap, and Miss Mollie Walters. The evening closed with several progressions of Boston rock.

On last Tuesday morning from 10 to 1 o'clock Mrs. T. C. Wagstaff entertained in a very gracious manner in honor of her guests, Misses Kry-der of New York City. Five tables were arranged on the spacious porch, and the game of Boston rock was enjoyed. Miss Hazel Thompson won the prize, a box of Whitman's candy, which was presented to her by Master T. C. Jr.

Misses Emily Stephens and Frances Wagstaff assisted the hostess in serving a tempting salad course, ice tea, cream, cake and mints to Mesdames E. D. Morton, T. T. Hester, C. E.
Winstead, Jr., J. D. K. Richmond, K.
C., J. C. and A. H. Wagstaff, and Misses Ruth Hester, Ethel Mary and Myrtle Winstead, Mary and Carrie Wagstaff, Louise and Mary Stephens, Mary and Blanch Winstead.

DEATH OF AN INFANT.

On Tuesday, June 24th, the death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Blalock and took away their dear little darling girl, Minnie Corene. She was sick for about two weeks, making her stay on earth one year, seven months, and five days.
She leaves to mourn her loss a dear mother and father and a host of relatives and friends.

Sleep on dear little one, take thy rest. God called you home. He thought it best.—Written by a friend.

Mess. R. L. Harris and M. R. Long left last Wednesday for Providence, R. I., where they joined a yachting party and will spend ten days roaming the sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Whitted and son, Marion, Jr., have returned to Goldsboro after spending ten days with Mrs. Whitted's mother, Mrs. H.
G. Clayton and other relatives in the county.

Mrs. I. R. Carter of Mattox, Va., returned home Thursday after a few days visit here. She was accompanied home by C. T. Hall and Elizabeth Pulliam.

Mrs. B. W. Murphy was carried to Durham to the hospital last Monday for an operation. She stood the operation very well and is getting on very nicely.

Mrs. J. D. Cochran, of Newton, after a visit here to relatives, left for her home Thursday morning. She was accompanied by her nephew, Master Preston Satterfield, who will spend a week with her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hughes returned last week after an extended trip to Atlantic City, Canada and other northern cities. They will leave this week for their home in Greensboro.

We enjoyed a pleasant call from our friend Mr. H. E. Pearce, of Richmond. He and his family are spending some time in the County visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fox, Jr., and children and Mr. C. B. Brooks left Monday morning for Mullins, S. C., and Raeford, N. C., where they visit for a week or ten days.
