SPITE WORK WILL NOT PAY

Last Saturday one of our good friends from the country dropped in and was telling us of the trouble they were having in his section over a certain road. Now, he said, "this is hurting Roxboro, for I know of one case where a gentleman took out of one of the banks of Roxboro five thousand dollars and deposited elsewhere because the highway commission would not build this road," this stretch of road but we do know the members of the County Highway Commission, and we know they welfare of the County, and we believe if the gentlemen interested in this road were to appear before the Board and state their case, and show that it was a necessary stretch the zle. Funeral services were conduc-Board would give them due consideration and if the funds will permit, 150m. Surviving are the Scopes see that the road is built; but we Evolution trial, Arctic expeditions, want to say we think the gentlemen Grade crossing accidents, Taxes, and wanting the road are going at it in the wrong way, for spite work never tory. did, and never will, pay. You have beard the old saying, "you can lead a horse to water but you can't make him drink," and it is an old fact you can not catch flies with vinegar.

We hope the gentlemen interested will get their road, and we at it in the right manner, but we ing roads are limited in this County and the Board can not build a good but no community will be allowed to suffer for lack of roads if they can prevent it, and in most cases they can, and do, give at least passable with bus lines for the high schools. We would suggest to our friend that he get a good delegation and come before the Highway Commission,

CARING FOR THEIR OWN HOUSEHOLD

It is an acknowledged fact that the funds of the town of Roxboro are running low, and the Town Board has been put to it to find ways and all obligations without raising the tax rate, but it seems about half this amount and according flour on the market made right here they did find at least one thing on to the increase in flocks and the betthe "special tax" which they could without fear, and that "special" was the weekly newspaper, The board is composed of the fol- only a small one-man farm but that lowing gentlemen, representing the it is bringing to its owner success lines of business as indicated: E. E Bradsher, hardware merchant; O. B. Crowell, lawyer, E. G. Long, banker; O. B. McBroom, bottling works; J. M. O'Briant, hardware merchant.

Now the special tax on The Courier, the only newspaper pula-Rahed in the County was boosted three hundred and thirty-three and one third per cent, while the lines represented by the gentlemen above named were not raised a penny. COWS AND CHICKENS ADD MONEY INCOME

Four cows and a flock of Barred Plymouth Rock poultry transformed from Hugh Woods. the grain farm of Joe Ridenhor of Rockwell, in Rowan County, North believe they will if they will go terprise into one which keeps the level of work about the same during must remember the funds for build- the year and in addition pays a handsome income to the operator.

The story is told by W. G. Yeager, road by every man's door-they Extension Service of State College, County Agent for the Agricultural would be delighted if they could, who says, "Mr. Ridenhour moved to his present farm about four years ago. He began his farming operations by growing wheat, corn, and other grains. He kept one cow Two years of grain and cotton farming roads to every section, especially convinced Mr. Ridenhour that he where these good roads connect up needed something to supply him with More money. Casting about for a solution, he and his wife decided to add more cows and start a flock of purebred poultry. They did. visited them last week and found stalk pleasantly with a smile and that the dependent grain farm, with see if the road is not ordered built, its seasons of overwork and underwork, has been transformed into an independent farm with the level of work more nearly uniform throughout the year, and with an established weekly cash income.

Mrs. Ridenhour takes good care of the cream and they now have a good butter trade in Salisbury. They for it, and take no substitute. sold 996 pounds from the four cows last year for a total of about $500 in cash. The poultry brought in from the cows, they expect to raise their income to over $1000 this year.'

Mr. Yearger states that this is and financial independence, cows and the poultry pointed the way, he says.
