

child she ever taught. She was a member of the Edgar Long Memorial Methodist church, and was very active in all church work, taking as especial interest in young peoples work and Sunday School.

The funeral services were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in the church, conducted by her pastor, Rev. F. M. Shamburger. Rarely, if ever, have we seen a larger attendance, or more numerous floral offerings, all showing the great love every one had for Miss Newton.

Truly, her church, Roxboro school, society and Roxboro at large will miss this good woman. The sympathy of all go out to her parents and her sisters, and relatives and triends in this sad hour.

pile an acre would make.

Mr. Shotwell says the cost for the two acres was $2.31 cash, and required one and a quarter days labor. As a result of this small expenditure he will not have to buy hay, which is quite an expensive luxury just at this time, even if you have the cash, which many do not have.

Here is an example we commend to all of our farmers. Follow the example of such men as Mr. Shotwell and soon we will have the mest profitable and prosperous farmers to be found.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior-Senior Banquet of the Bethel Hill High School was held in the school gymnasium, on Saturday evening at $:00. For the great occasion the hall was decorated with dog-wood blossoms, lilac, narcissua and the Senior class colors, gold and white. Streamers of gold and white crope paper hung gracefully over the doors and windows. On the table were center-pieces made of gold and white also, . White candles shed a suft glow over the entire hall, and during the evening music was furnished by "Messlers' James and Maurev.Fontaine:

The opening feature of the canquet was toasts, which were given before, each course, with Miss Lillian Brandon acting as toastmistress. who gave the first toast to the seniors, the response being given by Littleton Todd. Just before the next course, Miss Annie Joyner gave a toast to Miss Beam, after which Miss Bram responded. The last toast was given by Perry Melton to the faculty, the response being given by Mrs. J. A. Beam.

The waitresses in their dainty costumes served an elaborate three course dinner, consisting of fruit cocktail, chicken salad

MOTHERS DAY PROGRAM The Epworth League of Brooks- dale Methodist Church will observe Mothers Day Sunday night at 7 o'clock. Rev. B. C. Bereiff of Dake University will deliver an address.	The entertainment given last Fri- day evening in the school auditorium by the Primary and Grammar grades of Helena High School was well rendered and enjoyed by a capacity crowd. The commencement sermon Sunday afternoon by Rev. Mr. West, was masterful and was well received by the large congregation present. He spoke many words of counsel to the graduating class and youth gen- erally and admonished them to strive toward attaining the unataina- ble. Another feature of the com- mencement as yet unannounced is an address Friday night by Hon. R. P. Reade of Durham. " Rev. M. Bradshaw of Durham fill- ed the pulpit Sunday morning at the Methodist church, preaching a splen- did sermon from the text "Fear not, little flock." Immediately after the sermon the quarterly conference was held. The presiding elder took occasion to compliment both the people and the preacher on the fine work of the circuit for this year. The League Sunday night was all that was expected of the program.
