HEED THE TRUTH

Dear Mr. Editor and Readers of The Courier:

I hope we will all read and consider well the article in The Courier of April 14th, written by a lady who had recently inspected our court house-temple of justice, she called it. She saw conditions as they were and looks facts in the face; she tells the plain, practical, pointed truth which I believe will meet the sanction and approval of all decent and truth-loving people. I thank this good lady for her words of censure and disapproval. Let the truth come for and against our court house, "the filthiest in the State" says this good lady.

Mrs. Harriett Vaughn Oakley, time that our court house was a I have been believing for some target for criticism, and believed ome one would shoot at it, and I hope what the lady has said will cause those who are at the head of our County affairs to see that our court house gets the attention it deserves, and will be an honor instead of a disgrace. One place in our court house I have heard one of our judges in his charge to the grandjury denounce in plain, strong terms, speaking of its danger and disgrace, and yet this cesspool of danger and contamination h been removed. And, strange to say, the doors of this polluted place are often open and the odor is dread-

And yet, some of our people wint a new, fine fashionable court house; but I hope the old one will be better Mrs. T. O.Briant returned home kept before we get a new one. It Saturday after spending the past has been said that "cleanliness is week with her daughter, Mrs. H. next to godliness." FAITH IN HOGS

JUSTIFIED BY PROFIS

Lexington, N. C., May3 .- Seventyeight shoats placed on feed by J. E. Saider of rural route one from Lexington on December 31, we're sold in Salisbury on April 8 for a net pre-fit above all feeding cost of $569.87. The pigs paid $1.98 per bushel for the corn fil them.

"The 78 pigs weighed 4,351 pounds when they were placed on feed" says W. W. Shay, swine extension specialist. "When they were sold on April 8, they weighed 14,620 having gained 10,269 pounds during the 98 days while on full feed. They were sold for $13.25 per hundred pounds and amount received for them was $1,937.15. All feeds were charged at market price including 589 bushels of corn at $1.00 per bushel. The profit was $569.87 above all feed cost and returned a value of $1.98 per bushel for the corn fed."

This demonstration was put on through the efforts of County Agent C. A. Sheffield and amply justifies the faith of both Mr. Sheffield and Mr. Snider as to what the hogs would do. No charge was made for labor, states Mr. Shay, in reckoning the profit. Neither was accours taken of the fertilizing value of the feed amounting to $178:16 left on the farm in the form of manure. Mr. Shay states, however, that the profit of $569.87 was a daily wage of $5.81 to the owner for the time spent in caring for the pigs. He didn't have to feed them as self-feeders were used. The pant per pig amounted to $7.31.
