Lesson for June 27

REVIEW: WHAT WE HAVE LEARNED FROM THE BOOK OF GENESIS

GOLDEN TEXT—We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, who are the called according to his purpose.—Rom. 8:28.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Favorite Stories From Genesis.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Stories of the Patriarchs.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Favorite Characters in Genesis.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Permanent Messages of the Book of Genesis.

The method of review must always be determined by the department of the Sunday school and by the teacher's preferences. For the young people and adults, perhaps the best method will be to assign the task of finding the most important teaching of each lesson.

The following is suggestive of the method of review recommended:

Lesson for April 11—God created all things. The things which are come to be by the creative act of a personal God. God created man in His likeness and image, which means that man bears God's likeness morally and intellectually.

Lesson for April 18—The explanation of the ill and sorrows of the world can only be made on the basis of the historical fall of man as recorded in the Bible. The prime actor in this tragedy was the personal, cunning, malicious being called the Devil. Because man is a free being, possessing the power of contrary choice, sin entered through man's belief of the Devil instead of God.

Lesson for April 25—Because the human race is an organism, Cain and Abel through the law of heredity came into the world with sinful natures. God taught them that the way of approach unto Him was through a bloody sacrifice, typifying the supreme sacrifice made by Jesus Christ on Calvary. Abel believed God, took his place as a sinner and presented his offering accordingly. Cain in proud self-will brought the fruit of the ground, thus ignoring God's appointed way of approach unto Him. Cain's offering therefore was rejected because he did not recognize himself as a sinner and come to God in the way which God had appointed.

Lesson for May 2—Noah, coming forth from the ark, faced the responsibility of repopulating the new world. In recognition of that obligation and out of gratitude for God's grace in saving himself and family, he erected an altar and worshiped before the Lord. God responded and entered into covenant relationship with him.

Lesson for May 9—Lot's selfish choice involved him in trouble. Abraham, because of his separation from Sodom and unto God, was able to go against a mighty king and rescue his unfortunate nephew.

Lesson for May 16—God manifested Himself visibly to Abraham in the form of an angel. This angel was none other than the Son of God. Abraham thus met Jesus Christ. Christ no doubt referred to this when He said, "Abraham saw my day and was glad."

Lesson for May 23—Isaac, a child of the covenant given in the old age of his parents, was a gentle and peace-loving man. He suffered wrong rather than strive with his enemies.

Lesson for May 30—Jacob was chosen of God. Because of this God was with him. God will keep, protect and prosper His elect ones even in spite of their weakness and failure.

Lesson for June 6—Ethan because of living under the sway of his appetite sold his birthright for a mess of pottage. He afterward repented and sought to undo his deed. Though sincerely regretting his act, it was impossible to change conditions. Our acts and choices are irrevocable.

Lesson for June 13—Joseph was peculiarly beloved by his father. Because of this Jacob unwisely expressed favoritism. This favoritism incited the jealousy of his brothers, who, at the opportune time sold him as a slave to merchants going down to Egypt. Because of the false accusation of a wicked woman he was imprisoned.

Lesson for June 20—Because of Joseph's fidelity God raised him to a position of honor and power in Egypt. While in this position he made provision against an awful famine which came upon the land and became a means of saving from starvation not only the Egyptians, but his brethren who came down from Canaan. Though they had wronged him he graciously forgave them and provided for them in their need.

Neglecting Christ

Men who neglect Christ, and try to win heaven through moralities are like sailors at sea in a storm, who pull some at the bowsprit, and some at the mainmast, but never touch the helm.—H. W. Beecher.

Worth Thinking About

Have you any compelling purpose in life? Is that purpose God's purpose for you? Are you co-operating with God in the carrying out of his purpose?—James F. Rogers.

A REAL HEROINE

Edith May Adams of Barrington, N. J., the first American School girl to be entered as a candidate for the American Youth Award. The American Youth and Teacher Award was established by the Board of Directors of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia as a tribute to the youth and teachers of the nation. Miss Adams is a candidate for the Golden Eagle, the highest gift in the hands of the Girl Scouts. She was cited recently for exceptional bravery for remaining inside a blazing building helping physicians to give first aid treatment to injured firemen.

"HIAWATHA" UP TO DATE

By the shores of Cuticura,
By the sparkling Pluto Water,
Lived the Prophylactic Chiclet,
Dandergine, fair Bulck's daughter.
She was loved by Instant Postum,
Son of Sunkist and Virola,
Her apparent of the Madza
Of the tribe of Coca-Cola.

Through the Tanlar Strolled the lovers,
Through the Shredded Wheat they wandered;

"Lovely little Wrigley Chiclet,"
Were the words of Instant Postum,
"No Pyrene can quench the fire,
Nor Aspirin still the heartache.
Oh, my Prestolite desire,
Let us marry, little Djer Kiss."

LIFE'S MIRROR

Oh, it was so cheap, so queer, so small
And yet with love endowed;
I could not make a better gift.
If I were but allowed.
I gave to you a selfish heart,
That begged you give love in return;
But now, oh, now I'd give my life
That you that life would spurn.

COULDN'T FEAST HIS EYES

Man entering restaurant:—"You have a big mince pie in your window—the one with the raisins on top?"

Waiter:—"Certainly,—want a piece?"

"No! Ye gods, no! I'll give you a dollar to throw the whole thing out. It gives me indigestion every time I come past."

COURAGE OF CONVICTIONS

They of 1776 had it—the courage of their convictions.

We of 1926 also have it—should duty call. So we are true to our trust—of National Freedom. But how about your individual independence? A nation is no more prosperous than its people. Individual independence is the fruit of hard work and systematic savings—for most of us.

There are more savings accounts in the United States today—than in any other nation in the world.

Have you a savings account numbered in that total? If not you should make this the occasion to resolve for a personal independence through a savings account.
