

Morrah Items

Mr. Zach H. Clayton who had the misfortune of getting his house and other buildings near his home, estimated at $5,000 completely destroyed by the 17th of January, lost $80 Tuesday on his way to Roxboro in town. We are sorry for his losses and hope the finder of the money will be true enough to return some to him at once. Of course some was found it.

Mrs. Simon Taylor of Rougemont died at her home Wednesday, after a long sickness and was buried in a family cemetery near Mt. Harmony Church Friday. Rev. Mr. McKinney, Primitive Baptist of Durham, conducted the burial services.

Mrs. R. L. Day gave a candy party February 1st, a number of the Morrah children, which they greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Day is a great friend to children and they are fond of her. Miss Bertha Cook, who is teaching at Hurdle Mills, spent the last week end of January visiting friends at Morrah.

Miss Mary Ashby of Helena spent the week end at Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Meadows with her sister, Miss Mena, who is boarding there and teaching at the Morrah school.

Miss Mollie Day spent the week end with her cousin Miss Lue Day of Timberlake.

Miss Nanette Clayton is spending some time with her niece Mrs. Earlie Williford near the Silver church.

Miss Cora Beam, our County Nurse, visited the Morrah school recently.

Mr. W. Clayton sold a load of tobacco at the Liberty Warehouse, Durham Friday for $110 and was well pleased with his sales.

Mr. L. J. Meadows, who has been on the sick list, is able to be out his many things are glad to know.

Mr. C. Oakley and her sister Mrs. Lue Swainey have moved back from Mr. Tom Oakley's to their old home. Their friends gladly welcome them back in their community.

DESPAIRED OF HELP FOR RHEUMATISM

Then found simple treatment that gave immediate relief

For some time I have had of Townsend, Va., suffered the most torturing pain from rheumatism. When he lay down at night he could not sleep for the aching in joints and muscles. Then he began using Sloan's Liniment and it gave him relief at once.

"I want to say that Sloan's is the best of the liniments I have used in the past. I tried every medicine that was recommended to me but Sloan's is the only one that did me any real good," he writes.

Sloan's gives real help because it goes to the joints, nerves, and stimulates the circulation. It helps the body to clear out the poisons that are causing the pain.

Just apply lightly without rubbing. Right away you feel a gentle glow of warmth and comfort, and in a short time the pain is gone. Get a bottle today. All druggists—25 cents.

Cates Reunion

On Saturday, February sixth, the family, relatives and friends of Mrs. Della Cates gathered at the home in honor of her fiftieth birthday. The family was not complete, although the mother and fifteen children were there, the dear father having passed away several years ago.

The day was very much enjoyed, Mr. Oakley came out and made pictures. Every family brought a box of good things to eat and about twelve o'clock this was spread on a long table out in the yard, with the following enjoying it: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Berry, and Bettie Lambert, Fannie Gertrude and Lucille Berry; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Berry; Mr. Dan Berry, and James E. Alma, Lucille and Hazel Berry; Mrs. Annie Bell Regan and four children; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chandler; Mrs. Regan and Sidney Regan; Mrs. Cora Breeze; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Berry; Mr. and Mrs. Mad. Time For Tuxedo Chop

High noon and the hunger call. What will your animals get to eat? Corn that furnishes heat but little reserve strength for extra hours of labor? Oats that pass through whole and leave them in the lurch when energy is demanded?

Or will they prance up to a real meal of Tuxedo Chop and strain against the traces until sundown. No voices are raised louder in praise of Tuxedo Chop than those of horses or mules who have eaten it. We recommend Tuxedo Feeds.
