Miss Louise Thompson very delightfully entertained at two tables of bridge, Thursday afternoon, at her home on South Main street. The house was artistically decorated in beautiful pink roses. At the conclusion of several interesting games, the hostess assisted by her mother, served a most appetizing salad course with iced oysters. The invited guests were Mesdames A. M. Burns, M. R. Long, B. E. Love, A. S. deVlaming, F. L. Masten, W. S. Clary, Jr., I. O. Wilkerson and C. O. Crowell.

One of the prettiest parties of this season was given on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Preston Satterfield. The rooms were lovely with red and white roses and peonies. Eight tables were placed for the game of Boston Rook. The hostess assisted by Mrs. T. E. Austin and Miss Sue Merritt served a most delicious salad course with coffee and salted nuts.

On Friday evening, May 6, the annual Junior-Senior banquet of the Roxboro high school was given in the main building. The class colors, green and white, were very artistically carried out in both the decorations and refreshments. The long table which extended almost the entire length of the building was a scene of splendor. Eighty-three places were set, attractive place cards being used. Large silver vase filled with lovely white carnations and surrounded by silver candelsticks with green candles formed the centerpiece, while all along the table, only a short distance apart, were placed silver candelsticks with lighted tapers.

At intervals were placed silver baskets filled with lovely white roses. The lights were shaded with green and white and quantities of white flowers with green foliage were used in the room.

The high school orchestra, composed of Misses Jessie Dunlap, Elva Kent Wade, Edna Cole, Elizabeth Watten and Edgar Mastern furnished music during the evening. Sarah Rachel Bradshaw, president of the Junior class, acted as toast mistress for the occasion. The first toast, to the Roxboro Class (Seniors), was given by P. D. Carver, Jr. and responded to by Edwin Long. Others which followed were: To the Bureau of Education (teachers), Eugene Conally, response, Mildred Richmond; to the President of Roxboro (Mr. Satterfield), Samuel Byrd, Whitfield, response, Mr. Satterfield; to the Department of War, William Wilkerson, response, Mr. Hoff.

Quite a lot of fun was derived from the burlesque which followed. Each member of the senior class was awarded a diploma and were asked to read them aloud. A short speech in behalf of the seniors was made by Mrs. Davis, president of the senior class after which they all sang a farewell song.

Delicious refreshments in three courses were served. The menu consisted of grape fruit cocktail, boiled ham, tomatoes stuffed with potato salad, deviled eggs, pickle, crackers, hot buttered rolls and ice cream and cake. Attractive green baskets filled with green and white mints were given as favors.

Mother's Day Exercises

Beautiful Service Conducted by the B. Y. P. U. of Baptist Church

Mother's Day exercises were held in many churches last Sunday, but we doubt if there was a more impressive service anywhere than that conducted by the B. Y. P. U. of the Roxboro First Baptist Church last Sunday evening. In the absence of Pastor West there was no preaching, the service being given over to the young people.

The platform was crowded with the young folks and their friends, their parts well, but we can not refrain from mentioning a few of the specialties. A splendid tribute was paid Mother by Mr. E. P. Burns and the musical program was well worth while, with Mr. Jake Taylor the star. He sang "Little Mother Of Mine" and all who have had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Taylor sing know it was good. He possesses a voice of rare beauty, full and strong, and he did himself proud on this occasion. The recitation, "Somebody's Mother," by Miss Rachel Bradshaw was decidedly one of the most touching poems recited, and she did it almost to perfection. Rachel is a real artist in this line and sometime you are going to hear from her.

The church was beautifully decorated under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Woods and never looked more attractive. A large arch covered with lilies and fern, with "Mother's Day" formed a beautiful background for the many flowers banded around and about the altar. Miss Bivins' Winstead presided at the organ and to her goes the honor for the splendid musical program which was rendered.

Report Of Grand Jury

To the Honorable Garland E. Midyette, Judge Presiding, April Term 1927, Person County Superior Court.

We, the grand jury, acting at this term of court, report to Your Honor that we have acted upon all bills presented to us by the solicitor and have acted in the matter of presentations as we have seen fit.

No particular matter of inquiry has come before this body and our duties have been comparatively brief. Committees from our body have visited the county home, the jail, and have examined the offices in the court house. We found the jail in about as good condition as the inadequate structure warrants. The offices in the court house seem to us to be in good condition but still room in the office of the Registrar of Deeds is becoming scarce.

At the county home we found twenty-three inmates, ten females and thirteen males, these inmates seemed to be and expressed themselves as being happy and contented. They stated that they were treated well. The building was well kept, beautifully cleaned and in a sanitary condition. We found evidence that the superintendent was doing his part there. There was a sufficient amount of live stock and pigs to furnish the place. There were 14 barrels of corn, 100 lbs. of meat, 1 barrel of molasses and 150 lbs. of some kind soap, all these supplies have been produced at the institution.

We heard a brief report from the County Superintendent of Schools, who reported the schools to be in healthy condition.

Having completed our duties according to the instructions of Your Honor, we desire to be discharged if the Court has no further duties for us.

Respectfully submitted this 27th day of April, 1927.

J. H. NEWTON, Foreman.

Junior Senior Banquet

Bethel Hill High School

The Juniors of Bethel Hill High School honored the Seniors at a banquet on last Saturday evening, to which all the teachers also were invited guests. The gymnasium was beautifully decorated in the senior class colors of purple and gold, the class flower being the iris.

Suspended above the long table which was laid for thirty six guests was a lovely basket from which streamers of purple and gold hung gracefully to several points below. The place cards were miniature diplomas tied with the senior class colors. The menu and program cards were hand-painted in the class colors.

The president of the Junior Class, Talmadge Reagan, after giving a heartfelt welcome to all acted as toastmaster. The toast to the Senior Class was given by Mary Woody, response by the president of the senior class, Harold Bailey. Toast to Mrs. Riddle by Willie Mae Whit, response by Miss Riddle. Toast to Our Principal by Cesthrine Pully, response by Prof. Wehrenberg. Toast to Our Teachers, response by Rev. J. A. Beam.

The menu, consisting of fruit cocktail, chicken salad, saltines, cheese straws, stuffed olives, pickles and sandwiches, followed by brick ice-cream, two kinds of cake, and hints in purple and gold favors, was altogether delicious and thoroughly enjoyed by all. This delightful menu was served, as is the annual custom, by the sophomore class.

After spending a most delightful social hour, the guests departed thanking the Junior Class for such an enjoyable occasion, and hoping that next year they may be as delightfully entertained.

Hurdle Mills

M. E. Church

Due to an all-day service in a nearby church the congregation at the Hurdle Mills M. E. Church was small last Sunday, but a very pretty and impressive service was enjoyed by those who were there. Mr. B. I. Satterfield gave a very interesting lecture on the subject of the regular S. S. lesson closing with a beautiful tribute to Mother. A very interesting program has been planned for next Sunday with one of Roxboro's ablest speakers leading the service. The general public is invited to come out to this service.

Family Reunion

On Sunday, May 8th the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gregory gave them a very happy and pleasant surprise. When Mr. and Mrs. Gregory returned home from church they found to their surprise the yard full of people and a real feast spread on a long table in the yard. Then one child went up to welcome the 44 folks with flowers and Mother's Day pictures, and such. The old folks were then escorted to the table where they all partook of a bountiful dinner. After the noon hour was over pictures of all the crowd were made and all went to the cemetery to decorate the graves, after this feature the crowd returned to the house and bade each other good-bye returned to their homes.

Those present to enjoy this happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gregory and two boys of Smithfield, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gregory and son, W. A. Jr., of Ashboro; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gregory of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. P. T. White and family and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Humphries and Miss Gaudin, Alina, Miss Flora and Melvin Gregory, Farris Humphries and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gregory.

Funeral Services

For Edgar Holt

Former Soldier Died From the Effects of Gas Received in World War

The remains of Edgar C. Holt, ex-soldier and resident of the Chub Lake section of Person County, were brought from Lake City, Fla., and arrived in Roxboro last Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. Mr. Holt had been a patient in a government hospital in Florida for some time and it was at this place death claimed him on May second.

Members of the local American Legion acted as pall bearers at the funeral services which were conducted at the grave in the Oak Grove cemetery by Rev. J. W. Bradler, Thursday, May 5th.

Maintaining soil fertility is probably the biggest problem before the fruit grower of North Carolina.

Even with your present ice-box you can be free from outside ice supply

The Frigidaire frost coil does the work of 100 pounds of ice and never melts!

PERHAPS the ice-box you have is a good one. If it is, you can make a Frigidaire of it—easily and economically. A "frost coil" to replace the ice—a few simple connections and you are completely and permanently independent of outside ice supply.

Your foods will be kept in a uniform temperature 72° colder than you can expect with ice. You will have a dessert and ice-making compartment always below freezing. You will have genuine Frigidaire—the kind that is serving more users than all other makes of electric refrigerators combined.
