Vainglory

The bible says, "Let not the rich man glory in his riches or the wise man in his wisdom, or the strong man in his strength," let them that glory, glory in the Lord. Let us not be desirous of vainglory, envying one another and provoking one another. Gal. 5:26, again Phil. 2:3, we read "Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory," but in lowliness of mind let each esteem the other bet-ter than themselves. Again the good book keays, something about them that glory in appearance and not in heart, and what a multitude there is of this class, and many go beyond the chounds of modesty in their efforts and desires to get glory and honors of other people. They care very little for the scripture which says, "Keep thy heart with all diligence, or out of its art to the control of the contro for out of it are the issues of life." Let us remember the question which Jesus asked. "How can ye believe which seek honor one of another and which seek honor one of another and seek not the honor which comes from God only." This is the honor and slory we all should seek especially we as Christians, the praise, honor and glory of God, infinitely bigger and greater than the fleeting vaintage which the world can rive. So slory which the world can give. So often we allow ourselves to be sway, ed or blinded by evil public sentiment and awful they loom up before us. yet with what presumptuous indifference and forced blindness we ofwaive them aside. An occasion of vainglory and hero worship has lately been witnessed in New York.

ian Lindburgh, the high flyer, what a noise and fuss, commotion yelling reception has been accorded him, greater than that given our army and navy heroes, thousands of dollars spent in his honor and recep-tion while for these needy and worthy objects and institutions of charity all over this country it could have been more vitale, spent. If Jesiis were to come in the flesh as he once did nearly two thousand years ago. He would not get the great reception Mr. Lindburgh has. It seems if it were possible there are some that are so carried away with his exploit, would "Bring forth the royal diadem would Bring torth the toyal dis-and crown him lord of all." I be-lieve his exploit is overated, what great profit and advantage will it be if we can fly to and from Europe? if we can fly to and from Europe? Will it bring about relations between the two continents augmenting heace, friendship and unity, will it help either country to higher and better morals and spiritual affainments. (I guess not it is not necessary, yet). It is a sad fact that the higher and farther we get in worldly wisdom and possessions the farther we get from God and the more disloyal and degraded we become nation-

Club Short Course Breaks Past Records

Ralegih, N. C. July 18 .- Boys and girls from the farms of North Car-olina took charge of State College during the week of July 11-16 and broke existing records for atten-dance at a Four-H club short course by enrolling to the number of 624.

"It was the finest short course that we have ever held at State College," says L. R. Harrill, club leader, "There were 421 girls and 203 boys enrolled for the various courses of instruction. They came from all over the entire State with some of the most distant counties sending the largest delegations. Currituck county down on the coast sent the largest delegation of girls with 24 present. Gaston county led in sending boys with 34 enrolled. The students were selected club members who have won recognition in their home counties by industrious

Lindbergh Did Not Wish

Young men the world over have, with mingled feelings, read of the achievement of the youthful Charles Admiration and pride in the glor reat has been most generously given by all—still what young man is there who has not "wished" that the opportunity had been his—and that he could have "zoomed" through to such everlasting glory "

The now "Colonel Lindbergh" MADE his opportunity. An unknown air-mail pilot, he SAVED part of his earnings. When the hour arrived he had $2,000 saved to offer on the alter of sincerity—and obtain the support of young business men of St. Louis. He was largest individual contributor to the fund which made the flight possible.

Lindbergh did not WISH-He SAVED.
