MISS HEATH WILL NOT QUIT CHURCH THAT SHE LOVES

Neither Will She Quit Party She Has Been Taught To Love

DOES'T LIKE LEADERSHIP

By Miss Lura Heath In Monroe Journal

In June The Journal printed a letter I had written to the Hull campaign manager of North Carolina in which I stated that I expected to support the Houston nominee for president. I was prompted by love of the democratic party and confidence in their choice to make that statement, though I had never been especially interested in politics, had never studied the situation, nor taken any activity on any occasion. Since that time, however, and especially since Gov. Smith has been chosen in the usual party convention fashion, and being selected on the first ballot overwhelmingly, I have felt impelled to study the present political situation as I am beginning to realize that it is not only the privilege of women to vote, but it is their duty to study, think and decide for themselves and not take unreservedly the opinion of others. More than ever, it seems that we should consider most carefully the situation of the campaign now upon us, remembering certain indisputable facts that should govern our action at the polls.

May I say here I am proud to be allied with the Union County Executive Committee as its vice-chairman and while I fully realize my youth in things political, I am glad to say again just where I stand, why I am here and I am asking for space for doing so. I shall say nothing in a spirit of antagonism to other people's views and I shall say everything in a spirit of loyalty and in a spirit of fairness and justice. I grant everyone a right to personal opinions; I ask them to grant me the same; but in the outset I wish to say that I do not grant democrats voting for Hoover that I am being "blindly led by political demagogues," nor do I grant Hon. Frank E. McNeill, the State anti-Smith leader, that Alfred E. Smith is being crammed down my throat. This being the reference to democrats voting the straight ticket in his discussion of temporary issues. Neither will I concede that I am "mised" as Mr. McNeill calls 100 per cent voters. I am in the straight democratic path and have no intention of being led out of it by anti-Smith democrats.

I have always been taught at home, at school and in church that loyalty is one of the greatest assets in human character. It takes loyalty to show one sincere in thought and deed. I am going to check the entire democratic ticket, because I believe in being loyal to one's political principles, just as much as I believe in being true to one's church. By inheritance and rearing I am a Methodist and a democrat. I am glad that as the years have gone by I am satisfied with my church affiliation and my political party. While I cannot approve of the action of some of our bishops in sending out pledges to the adult classes of the Sunday schools in the churches in their conferences to be signed even before the Houston convention, in plain English dictating to their membership how to vote; and while I do not approve of our official church paper, The N. C. Christian Advocate, running a republican propaganda bureau since early in the spring, and while I do not approve of The Missionary Voice, the official organ of the missionary work of the Methodist church using its influence in like manner, I do not consider these legitimate reasons for leaving my church to join another branch of Protestantism. It is gratifying that we have in our ranks men of such calibre, such concentration and good judgment as Bishop Collins Denny of Richmond, Va., and Bishop Chandler of Atlanta, who regardless of how they expect to vote, are remaining within the church and entirely and out of the political field and are not attempting to exert a demagogic influence over church voters. In passing it might be of interest to know that the two last named bishops were, against opposition of Northern and Southern Methodism, and the four anti-Smith bishops, with the possible exception of one, were

Gov. Smith To Speak In State

Will Probably Speak During Fair Week, October 22nd, At City Auditorium

NO OUTDOOR SPEECHES

Raleigh, Sept. 25.—Unless plans now regarded as definite and final are changed at the last minute, Governor Alfred E. Smith, Democratic candidate for President, will speak in the City Auditorium at Raleigh some time during October.

State Chairman Odus M. Mull and National Committeeman Cameron Morrison yesterday sent a joint telegram to national headquarters unequivocally recommending Raleigh for the one North Carolina speech which it has been announced the candidate will make.

Mr. Mull stated last night that Greensboro would have been recommended by himself and Mr. Morrison but for receipt yesterday of positive information that Governor Smith would not consider breaking his rule against outdoor speeches.

Mr. Mull stated that the speech in Raleigh will be made at the City Auditorium, and is expected to take place at night, even though his visit to the city might coincide with the date of the State Fair, which will be during the week of October 22.

Should Governor Smith be here during fair week, it is regarded as probable that he will mingle with the crowds at the Fair Grounds, as he plans to do at Butte, Montana, today.

However, Mr. Mull stated that he had no definite information on the date of the speech further than it will be during the month of October. The auditorium here, with a capacity of 5,000, is the largest in the State, but is regarded as wholly inadequate to seat those who would wish to hear Governor Smith's speech.

Rotary Guests Bethel Hill Farmers Club

The Roxboro Rotary Club was the guest of the Bethel Hill Farmers Club at a Brunswick stew last Thursday evening. It was indeed a good meeting, full of good-fellowship and every one was in the best of humor. President Geo. W. Smith presided at one end of the long table; and Mr. Geo. W. Kane at the other. After remarking of just about the best Brunswick stew ever tasted, topped off with the cream and cake, which was served by the ladies of the community, Mr. E. L. Wahrenberg welcomed the Rotarians, which was responded to by Mr. J. W. Noell. Following this splendid talk was made by Mr. W. D. Merritt, a guest of the Rotary Club.

FOR PRESIDENT!

Gov. Alfred E. Smith

ROXBORO ELEVEN WILL START SEASON FRIDAY

Will Fight Hillsboro To Finish On Local Field Friday Afternoon At 3:45

The Roxboro High School football season will open Friday, Sept. 28th. The initial game is to be played on the local field with Hillsboro. The Hillsboro team has been unusually strong for the past few years and we are looking for nothing less from them this season, but Capt. D. Long, along with other members of the team, are expecting one of the strongest teams that Roxboro has ever had.

We are going to miss the services of several of the outstanding members of last year's team; however, we have several new comers to Roxboro who are showing up well. There are Thattis Knight and E. Bass from South Carolina; Guthrie Gentry from Allensville, and Nathaniel Harris from Hurdles Mill. There are other new members of the squad who are working hard for a place on the first line up. The entire team is hard at work for Friday's game. Are you going to do your part? Well, it's easy. Be here Friday to encourage the players and help them win. You are also invited to come over any afternoon to watch the boys practice. The game will be called at 3:45 o'clock.

Revivals At Two Places

The revival meeting is in progress this week at Woodsdale, preaching every night at 7:30 and perhaps some afternoons at three, closing next Sunday with preaching at 11 A. M. and 3 P. M.

The meeting at Warren's Grove begins next Sunday night at 7, and continues through the week at the same hour, with perhaps some three o'clock services later in the week. All serious minded people are cordially invited.

J. W. Bradley, Pastor.

Halifax County Fair

One of the attractions for Person County folks is the annual Halifax County Fair, held at South Boston. The dates this year are Oct. 16 to 19th, and it will be especially attractive to our folks as they have arranged for some special premiums for this county. Write the Halifax County Fair, South Boston, Va., and get a catalog.

Watch for their big advertisement in our next issue.

MEETING AT COURT HOUSE IN INTEREST REGISTERED HEIFERS

Saturday, September 29th, At Three P. M., Will Discuss Ways, Means, Etc

HOPE TO GET CARLOAD

By H. K. Sanders

Time has come to get organized for the purpose of buying a carload of registered heifers to be used as foundation stock on about thirty five or more farms in this county.

All who bought last spring are well pleased with their heifers, and the heifers are all growing nicely. We need about thirty five more to be brought into the county and placed in the hands of farmers who like good cattle.

All who will buy a good foundation heifer and take care of her and her offspring will in a few years have a registered herd that they should be proud of.

A registered cow on the farm makes the old farm the pride of the family. The first initial cost of getting started will be the biggest cost, for it does not require any more trouble to raise registered cattle than it does to raise grade or scrubs. Of course all cattle needs plenty of good pastures and feed whether grades, scrubs or pure bred. A good farmer with registered cattle on his farm will naturally think more of himself.

"The cow is the foster mother of the human race. From the day of the ancient Hindoo to this time have the thoughts of men turned to the kindly, beneficent cow as one of the chief sustaining forces of human life.

"No nation or people has become highly civilized without her. Without her, agriculture is not permanent or prosperous, people are not healthy or happy. Where the cow is kept and cared for, civilization advances, lands grow richer, homes grow better, debts grow fewer.

"In times of famine she has been man's preserver, his comfort and aid in times of prosperity, the bearer of his burdens and the cultivator of his fields, the bread winner of the poor and the pride of the well-to-do."

Some will say that I would like to have a registered heifer—but the tobacco crop—Well this has happened before with the tobacco farmer, the cotton farmer of the south, the wheat belt of the north and the fruit belt of the sandhills. There is no better time to begin than now. If we keep putting this off we are losing that much time in getting started with cattle.

There are plenty of prospects in the county to bring in more than a carload of heifers at this time, but certainly there should be at least one brought in. If the tobacco crop has not turned out as you hoped it would, come in and let's talk the matter over. Where there is a will there will be a way.

All interested in this project are asked to meet at the Courthouse Saturday, Sept. 29th, at 3 P. M., to discuss prices, ways and means, arrangements for going after the heifers.

With Pioneer Warehouse

I am glad to say that I have contracted to work at the Pioneer Warehouse again for the year 1928-29 season with the well known firm, J. J. Winstead, proprietor. I wish to thank all of my friends and customers for the support given me last season, and to all of you who bring tobacco to me this season, I will give the best service and get the best price possible.

Yours for high prices, D. EMMET WHITT.

Roxboro Tobacco Market Opens Next Tuesday, Oct. 2

A Fine Speech

Hon. J. C. B. Ehringhaus, of Elizabeth City, delivered one of the cleanest, clearest, cut, convincing speeches here last night that our people have heard. He was strong for Gov. Smith, without apologies, and showed the folly of any one opposing Mr. Smith on account of his religious or prohibition views. We wish every woman and every fair minded man in the County could have heard it.

MEXICO CHOOSES CABINET MEMBER FOR PRESIDENT

Emilio Portes Gil Unanimously Elected Provisional President By Congress

TO TAKE OFFICE DEC. 1ST

Mexico City, Sept. 25.—Emilio Portes Gil, governor of Tamaulipas, and secretary of interior, was unanimously elected provisional president of Mexico tonight at a joint session of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies. Portes Gil will continue as minister of the interior until about two weeks before his inauguration. It was understood on high authority.

From the same source it also was learned that he would retain the present cabinet with one or two exceptions. Two secretaries are understood to be anxious to resign for personal reasons.

There were 277 votes cast in the election.

Following the election, the members of Congress rose in their places and shouted cheers for President Calles, President-elect Gil, and the late General Alvaro Obregon, who had been elected constitutional president last spring and was assassinated by a young artist, Jose de Leon Toral. Portes Gil will take office upon the retirement of President Calles December 1.

The Mary Hambrick Missionary Society celebrated its 50th anniversary last Tuesday with a Golden Jubilee. There are now more than 100 members, which has grown from the small number of 15 at the beginning. Miss Anna Webb is the only surviving charter member, and fitting tribute was paid to her at the meeting. We hope to be favored with a full report of this delightful meeting for our next issue.

Four Big Warehouses, Able To Sell Every Pound Of Tobacco Raised In The County

EVERYTHING IS READY

The Roxboro tobacco market will open on Tuesday, October 2nd, and while there has been no bally-hoing there will doubtless be a large delegation of farmers on hand to see just how the weed is going to start off. Well, we can promise you it will be low, for it has been selling low on all of the markets so far, and there is no reason why it should jump up on the first day here. But, on the other hand, there is no reason why it should sell for less here than it has been bringing on the other markets.

You can rest assured that this market will be looked after and the buyers and the warehousemen are going to see that your tobacco brings just as much in Roxboro as it will bring on any market, and that is all any fair minded farmer will want.

There are four big warehouses in Roxboro, and every one of them is managed by Person County men, men you have known all of your life, men who have made good in the warehouse business, and they are here to see that you get everything that is due you.

Sell your tobacco at home, and then if adversity overtakes you, come to them for assistance, and we will bet our last penny they will not disappoint you. On the other hand, if you sell your tobacco, spend your money, and lend your assistance to build up other sections, do you honestly feel that you could even ask them to help you if you should need assistance. No, no honest man could do this, and we believe we have as large a per cent of honest men in Person County as you will find anywhere.

As the typewriter salesman says "Now is the time for honest men to pull together," and now is the time for every farmer in this good County to stick to his home market.

Tobacco Exhibit At Danville Fair

The tobacco exhibit at the Danville Fair this year will be on a large scale. Tobacco growers will profit by a visit to this exhibit at every session of the old belt will be represented. No charge is made for space in this department. The exhibit is one of the most important features of the Danville Fair, October 9th to 12th—four days, four nights.
