

DYER SEES END OF WHITE SUPREMACY

Enforcement Acts Will Follow Hoover's Election, Says Missourian

BOLTERS ARE RESPONSIBLE
Have Driven Wedge Through Heart Of Solid South, Declares Author Of Lynching Bill

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 22.—Representative C. L. Dyer, Republican of the 12th Missouri Congressional District, today talked about enforcement acts for the 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution of the United States. It will be recalled that Mr. Dyer in 1923 introduced his anti-lynching bill which passed the Lower House of Congress, by a two-to-one vote. It went to the Senate and while the majority of the Senate was in favor of it, the Southern senators invoked a filibuster and killed the bill.

"But Hoover will blow the 'solid South to pieces in November,'" said Mr. Dyer today.

"It is just as logical and reasonable for Congress to enact laws for the rigid enforcement of these two amendments to have the Volstead act, for the enforcement of the 18th amendment," Dyer said. "The 14th and 15th amendments have provisions for enforcement laws just the same as has the 18th amendment."

Blame's South For Bill's Defeat

"My anti-lynching bill, intended for the enforcement of the 14th amendment, passed the House by a vote of two-to-one. It went to the Senate and had the support of a majority of the senators, but the Southern Democratic senators, took advantage of the filibuster and prevented its coming to a vote in the Senate. Had the despotic rules of the Senate been changed as Vice President Dawes demanded, and worked for giving the Senate fair and sane rules to work under, it would have been an easy matter to have had my anti-lynching bill become a law."

"The passage of this bill would have led to the enactment of a law for the enforcement of the 15th amendment also, and would have given the negro his full rights as guaranteed by these constitutional amendments."

"As it is, how, those amendments amount to only the scraps of paper they are printed upon and they remain scraps of paper at the hand of the Southern Senators whose constituents yell the loudest, about nullification at any one who dares question the wisdom of the 18th amendment and the Volstead act, for I am opposed to prohibition, and would vote to repeal the 18th amendment.

Enforcement Act Necessary

"Until that is done, however, I am in favor of enforcing the prohibition amendment as best we can by providing funds and the necessary machinery. I have so voted heretofore and will continue to do so while I am a member of Congress as long as the 18th amendment stands. I could not do otherwise and be consistent in my contention an efforts to bring about similar machinery for the enforcement of the 14th and 15th amendment as that for the enforcement of the 18th amendment."

"Perhaps the world has never witnessed such inconsistency as that exhibited by the people of the Southern states in demanding and bringing about the nullification of the 14th and 15th amendments by their state legislatures, and at the same time demanding the enforcement of the 18th amendment. It is simply amazing. No amendment to the constitution means anything unless there is an enforcement act and sufficient funds appropriated for enforcement. There are powerful and influential people who are ready to demand of Congress at an early session laws with ample appropriations that will make these two amendments just as effective as the 18th amendment.

"My faith is such that I believe we will see the day and that not very far off when the federal government will, by virtue of congressional acts, place enforcement officers in the Southern states charged with enforcing these two amendments and give the negroes their rights as citizens, as guaranteed by the constitution. President Coolidge in one of his messages recommended that the federal government take charge of election in the states.

Hoover A Great Politician

"It will be seen that my views on prohibition are not in accord with those of Herbert Hoover. But Mr. Hoover's stand on prohibition has captured the imagination of the ardent Democratic drays of the south to such an extent that they have forgotten their Democracy and have declared for Hoover and Curtis. And they cannot side-step, Hoover has their votes bagged. Who was it who mistakenly said that Herbert Hoover is not a good politician?"

"On November sixth that great engineer-politican Hoover, with the votes of the prohibitionists and those swayed because of the religious question in the South, will drive such a thick wedge through the heart of the "Solid South" and their "white supremacy" slogan that it will blow up their whole unconstitutional program. After the solid south has been blown to pieces by Engineer Hoover, our next president, that will be the finish of the nullificationists of the South who have for 60 years violated and prevented the enforcement of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments. Then Congress will enact enforcement laws that will give millions of negroes their constitutional rights as citizens, and place them on an equality with all other races."
