

Resolutions

Whereas, our Heavenly Father has seen fit to remove from our midst, our sister, Miss Esther Burch...

We feel deeply our loss, for she was a faithful member and a loyal worker, and while our heads are bowed in sorrow we realize she has passed to her reward.

Our hearts go out in tender sympathy for the bereaved family and while we cherish the memory of the beautiful life she led...

First, that we bend in submission to God's will, thanking Him for the godly, patient life of our sister...

Second, that we take this means of expressing to the family our sympathy in their bereavement.

Third, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family, to the N. C. Christian Advocate...

Mrs. Z. V. Barnette, Mrs. G. W. Carr, Mrs. W. C. Warren.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to the neighbors and friends for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy during the illness and death of our dear mother, Mrs. E. A. Spencer.

Allensville News

The farmers are very busy in this section stripping tobacco, saving their seed crops and preparing their land for wheat.

Mr. D. L. Slaughter and Miss Annie Bell Long motored over to Halifax, Va., and were married on last Thursday.

Mr. Clyde Gentry and Miss Minnie Gentry were married last Saturday.

Mr. Cypheries Yarbrough gave a party to a host of his friends Saturday night. After the crowd gathered they had a splendid time...

Mr. Arvie Slaughter and Mr. Alex Dixon have returned from from Delhia, Canada, where they have been engaged in the tobacco business for several weeks.

The revival meeting started at Allensville last Sunday. Hope it will be a good meeting, wishing every one to come out and hear brother Nicks. -Brown Eyes.

October Health Bulletin

The October Health Bulletin, the monthly publication of the State Board of Health, contains a number of articles particularly pertinent at this time...

Tuberculosis in infancy and childhood is discussed by one of the field directors of the State Sanatorium. A well known specialist writes of some common skin diseases...

MOTHER

Through the beautiful twilight, Through life's beautiful dreams, Through the beautiful twilight, Her sweet face still beams.

Though she's gone to heaven, To meet the angels there, While we are left on earth, To tarry in despair.

Near Jesus mother's waiting, On that bright and golden shore, And there we'll meet some beautiful And there we'll part no more day.

How I long to be with mother, Where the blossoms forever bloom, And I follow in her footsteps, Until I've met my doom.

Rest, dear mother, in thy grave of love, Rest in heavenly peace, Rest, dear mother, in the arm of Jesus, Rest where rest will never cease. -Virginia.
