Birthday Celebration

Misses Mattie and Helen Oakley were joint hostesses at a lovely surprise birthday party given at their home last Wednesday evening in honor of their sister, Miss Ruth Oakley. A number of guests were especially invited to be present. At the piano was Miss Omega Foushee. The living room and dining room were attractively decorated with quantities of the season's flowers. The guests were invited into the dining room where the table was nicely arranged with flowers and candles, and a large birthday cake in the middle which held twenty-three candles. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out. Cakes, sandwiches and punch were served. Miss Oakley, being the honoree, was presented with many pretty and useful gifts.

Twelve Reasons Why Women Should Vote For Gov. Al E. Smith

- 1. He called the New York Legislature into special session, in 1919 to ratify the Nineteenth or Wiman's Suffrage Amendment to the Constitution, in order to help secure nationally this privilege for women.
2. He has brought about increased pay for New York public school teachers, with an average doubling of the salaries of the women in the profession, demanding at the same time equal pay for women with men.
3. He ended the discrimination against women seeking positions under the New York civil service by refusing to allow appointing officials to specify that one sex only could take the examination.
4. He has urged the New York Legislature to remove from the statute books all laws that unjustly discriminate against women, but at the same time would not permit any changes to be made that might interfere with the statutes for the protection of women in the home and in industry.
5. He secured the forty-eight hour law for New York, making a shorter week and day for women wage earners in factories and stores.
6. He secured the passage of laws ending child labor and the outrageous overwork of women in canneries in his state.
7. He stood for a minimum wage commission to assure a living wage to women and minors and would have secured the same had not the Republicans in the New York Legislature and Constitutional Convention defeated it.
8. He favors the creation of terminal markets and the proper distribution of food supplies so that the farmer and consumer will have deserved protection.
9. He favors ample school facilities and provisions for the education of children in rural districts. He believes their educational advantages should be as great as those afforded the children of the cities.
10. He will, if elected President, call all of the proper agencies of the Government at his command to his support in order to end profiteering in the necessities of life.
11. He had perfected the work-

GOV. ALFRED E. SMITH FOR PRESIDENT

- men's compensation law from which women workers receive benefits as well as men. The family of the workman also has profited from this legislation.
12. He secured the passage of the

New York widow's pension law. Under its terms generous provision has been made for women left penniless and allowances have been made for their minor children. Thus children have been kept under the care of their mothers rather than of orphanages.
The election of Smith means that a President will be in the White House who thinks of Government in terms of the men, women and children it should help.

DURHAM TO HAVE TALKING PICTURES

Vitaphone Now Being Installed In Rialto Theatre

Announcement was made this week by the Publix-Saenger Theatres of North Carolina, Operators of the theatres in Durham, that the latest entertainment innovation, Vitaphone, the instrument that gives voice to the hitherto "silent" drama, was being installed in the new Rialto theatre, and would be opened to the public on Monday, October 22nd. Engineers of the Electrical Research Corporation, builders of Vitaphone, are now at work on the installation of the necessary equipment, which is of the latest and most modern of Vitaphone sets.
The theatre which will be used as the home of Vitaphone, is the old Orpheum theatre, which has been completely remodeled and renovated, and the Rialto will be especially fitted for Vitaphone reproduction with features that are unusual for theatres of similar size.
One of the features of the Vitaphone will be its ability to bring to Durham, the greatest artists of stage and opera, at prices which will be no greater than usual motion picture prices. On the opening bill will be "Lulu" and "The King of the Bango" in "Bavliomania," Conlin and Glass, Vaudevilles funniest comedians, and Waring Pennsylvanians, one of America's finest bands.
The opening Vitaphone picture, will be "Glorious Betsy" which depicts the love romance of Betty Patterson of Maryland with Prince Jerome Bonaparte, brother of the famous Napoleon. Given to you by Vitaphone one can hear as well as see the loves of a century past.

THE DONKEY

THAT NEVER DARED TO LAUGH OR CRY

The old old donkey had a beautiful voice.
He could sing, laugh, or cry;
He would only sing for the passerby,
And never attempted to laugh or cry.
His nineteenth year, and never shed a tear.
Like most of the donkeys do;
He goes right along singing his song,
And never attempted to laugh or cry.
Some of us say that we all sprang from monkeys.
But the most of the people had rather be donkeys.
Always gay with the passerby,
And never attempted to laugh or cry.
Harold Perkins, R.H.S. Student.

Sale Of Town Lot

Under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the last will and testament of the late Roxie Cunningham, of record in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Person County, I will on the same being the first Monday in November, at 12 o'clock noon, at the court house door in Roxboro, North Carolina; sell at public sale to the highest bidder for cash the lot on which the testatrix lived prior to her death, situated on the north side of Hill Street (the old Bushy Fork Road) in or near the town of Roxboro, bounded on the north by land of S. G. Winstead, on the east by land of Robert King, on the west by a lot now or formerly owned by Wiley Bradsher, and on the south by the aforesaid street.
NOVEMBER 5, 1928
This October 5, 1928.
Conday Outlaw, Executor of Roxie Cunningham.

Starting

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22

That's The Date Of Opening Of The NORTH CAROLINA

STATE FAIR

For six gladsome, joyous, gleeful days thereafter fun will run riot, education will rule supreme, as a panoramic display of North Carolina's March of Progress is unveiled before the people of North Carolina.

An Incomparable Array of Agricultural, Educational, Livestock, Industrial, Mechanical and Electrical Displays $35,000 IN PREMIUMS

To the people of North Carolina:

When the General Assembly of 1927 enacted legislation that made the State Fair a State institution in fact as well as in name, it placed upon every patriotic citizen an obligation of proprietorship. While there is nothing mandatory in the State Fair law, there is a higher appeal than could possibly come through obligatory methods. For this reason, it is incumbent upon our people to support the Fair and to contribute to its success in every possible way.

A. W. McLEAN, Governor of North Carolina.

6 BIG DAYS! . . . . . 6 BIG NIGHTS

Every building on the grounds is new and of most modern design. Every booth and display is absolutely new in order that this may prove the really greatest Fair ever held. A fortune has been expended in every department to insure the most colossal show that the people of North Carolina have ever seen.
