Raleigh, N. C., October 23.—Alfred E. Smith, Jr., will be a visitor at the North Carolina State Fair Friday, according to a reliable report received yesterday by the News and Observer. It is not anticipated that the young man will make a speech, but he is expected to mingle with the crowds enjoying the fair, as well as witness the excellent card of automobile races arranged for Friday afternoon when Ray Keech and other race track stars will compete for heavy purses.

This will be Mr. Smith's second visit to Raleigh within the month, as he accompanied Governor Smith on his visit to the Capitol City October 11.

NOTABLES WILL VIEW FOOTBALL GAME AT CHAPEL HILL SAT.

Governors Of Georgia And North Carolina To See Game. Max Gardner To Attend

GAME STARTS AT 2:30 P. M.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 24.—The Governor of North Carolina will have plenty of chance to converse with the Governor of Georgia, while both can give tips on executive troubles to the next Governor of North Carolina during the course of the Carolina-Georgia Tech football battle in Kenan Stadium Saturday afternoon.

The two Governors—Angus W. McLean, of N. C., and L. G. Hardman, of Georgia—and the next executive of Tar heels, O. Max Gardner, will not be the only notables in the governor's box on the north side of the stadium, however. President L. M. Brittain, of Georgia Tech, Dr. Harry W. Chase, president of Carolina and other dignitaries will be in the box to lend an official ear to what is regarded as the high spot of the season in this immediate section of the gridiron world.

Will Start At 2:30 O'clock.

The game will get under way at 2:30 o'clock instead of 3 o'clock as at first announced. The changed starting hour was announced yesterday by Charles T. Woolen, graduate manager of athletics at Carolina. The shift was made following receipt of a number of requests for the earlier starting time.

With Troop No. 3

Troop No. 3 met last Tuesday night at seven o'clock. The meeting was conducted by Asst. Scoutmaster Dunn. The meeting opened by all standing and repeating the Lord's Prayer, followed by saluting the flag. Then the roll was called and minutes of the previous meeting read. The routine of business was then discussed. The Scouts then reported on good turns which they did in the past week. There were some good ones. We had some visiting members of Troop No. 2. We were glad to have them with us. After we played a few games we were dismissed by the great Scoutmaster's Benediction.

The Scouts went on a hickory nut hunt last Saturday afternoon.

Kills Rattle Snake

It is uncommon for a rattle snake to be found in this County, but Mr. C. S. Day of Timberlake, R. 1, killed a large one one day last week. Mr. Day was hauling wood and he noticed his horses began to shie, and upon investigation found a large rattle snake on the side of the road. He called his son, who was near, to come and bring his gun, and the snake was killed. It measured 4 feet long, and 6 inches around the body, with 5 rattlers. Asked why he did not capture it, Mr. Day said he was not in the snake business.

PRICES IMPROVED ON THE LOCAL MARKET

Monday's Average Was Better Than Twenty Cents. The Farmers Seem Pleased

Prices on all grades are better, and the farmers are beginning to feel more hopeful for the remainder of the crop. Every indication is that prices are going to continue to improve and the farmer who has some good grades, in good condition, will get satisfactory prices.

W. O. SAUNDERS DENOUNCES HAM

Declares Evangelist Greatest Foe Of Peace And Order In South

MAKES PLEA FOR SMITH

Durham, Oct. 22.—In response to an address here yesterday by Evangelist, M. P. Ham, W. O. Saunders, Elizabeth City publisher, tonight described "this man Ham" as being the greatest menace to the peace and order of this country in the Southland today. "He is the apostle of ignorance and intolerance," he declared, "and if given his way the schools would teach the geology of Moses, the astronomy of Joshua, the aerodynamics of Elisha, and submarine activities of Jonah."

Mr. Saunders made an impassioned plea for the support of Alfred Smith, whom he described as a fearless, truthful and courageous statesman with an untarnished character.

Tammany Hall he held up as a friend of Democracy, and pronounced Croker and Tweed ancient characters. "Even as Tammany has had its Croker, so have the Southern Baptists had their Carnes," he paraphrased. He also declared that religion and not prohibition was the real issue, and he urged religious tolerance. Much of the address was given over to Ham, whom he held up for both ridicule and scorn.

Death Of Good Woman

Miss Annie Villines Goes To Reward

Last Monday night at 10 o'clock Miss Annie Villines died at her home in the Bushy Fork neighborhood. Miss Villines had been confined to her bed for about three months, and her death was no surprise. Since the death of her father several years ago Miss Annie, and her sister, Miss Maggie, had lived at the old home place and carried on the affairs of the farm in a most successful manner. She was a devout member of Clements Baptist Church, and was really and truly an Angel of mercy.

The burial services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. L. V. Coggins on yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and her body laid away in the cemetery of the church.

Edga Long Memorial

The regular services will be held next Sunday. Sunday School at 9:45; sermon at 11 and 7:30, and Epworth League 6:45.

This is the last Sunday in the Conference year. All reports must be ready for the session of the North Carolina Conference which meets in Wilson next Wednesday morning. The Pastor was immensely pleased with the splendid congregations which attended the services last Sunday, and he hopes to meet every member of the Church, who can possibly attend, at both morning and evening services next Sunday.

Let every member pray for a great closing service.

T. A. SIKES, Pastor.

Memory Services For Little Lois Clayton

For 80 Years It Has Not Rained On Oct. 16th

Fayetteville, Oct. 17.—The 16th day of October is the most beautiful day of the year, said a resident of Fayetteville today. For 80 years this day has never failed to see the sun shine. A check has been kept on the day for that length of time, and it came about this way—On October 16, 1848, a young lady was married in Delaware and came to live in Fayetteville. Naturally, she always took note to an advanced age, she never saw rain fall on her wedding anniversary. Since her death, 25 years ago, younger persons have made the same observation.

TEXAS MINISTERS ALL ON STUMP, SAYS MACK, AFTER REVIVAL THERE

Thinks Christianity Has Been Set Back 25 Years In This Campaign

STATE IN AWFUL MESS

Raleigh, Oct. 23.—Fresh from Texas where with excess baggage removed he recently held a big and successful revival, Baxter F. McLendon, evangelist, was in Raleigh just two weeks from the election and still maintaining a benevolent neutrality in the campaign.

All the preachers in Texas are on the stump, Cyclone Mack said today, making enough exceptions to give strength to his observation. "I do not hesitate to say that I think Christianity has been set back 25 years in this campaign. I do not preach pessimism, but I never saw church life so enfeebled. I cannot understand what the preachers are thinking about. I haven't said a word against Smith or a word for him, nor have I attacked Hoover or defended him. Except by way of illustration I have not mentioned the name of either in my sermons. In Dallas where I have been conducting a revival I had splendid success, a great meeting, in spite of the fact that everywhere I turned there was some preacher denouncing Smith and asking me to do so. Texas is in a terrible fix. I don't know how it's going, but I know it's not going toward Jesus Christ."

Election Not To End It

The worst of it is that all this election business will not be ended in two weeks. The voting will settle who is to be President, but it won't settle the feelings that Christians have against each other as the result of the campaign. I understand perfectly the convictions of Christians on the issues raised, but I don't understand how ministers expect to improve religion by moving Christians to attack each other. Of course I know all about that old saying of fighting the devil with fire; but the trouble about that is that he is standing off laughing at the Christians fighting each other.

Mr. Harvey was crossing the street and the mist which had gathered on the wind shield of Mr. Finch's car prevented him from seeing Mr. Harvey. The injury, while painful, is not considered serious.
