GOV. SMITH CALLS ON PARTY "TO CARRY ON"

Principles As Great In Defeat As In Victory, He Says In Radio Address

ASKS UNITED SUPPORT OF HERBERT HOOVER FOR NEXT FOUR YEARS

Will Not Do To Let Bitterness Blind Us To Fact That We Are Americans, He Says; Call For Constructive Party Program Of Action Four Years Hence; Former Democratic Nominee Announces That He Will Leave Today For Biloxi, Miss. Where He Will Spend Vacation With Friends.

New York, Nov. 13.—Governor Alfred E. Smith, told the country over the radio tonight that the principles of the Democratic party were as great in defeat as they would have been in victory, and that it was the party's duty "to carry on and vindicate" the principles for which it had fought. Standing before a microphone in a National Broadcasting Studio, the defeated Democratic Presidential candidate delivered what many had called his valedictory. His speech, broadcast over a nationwide hook-up of stations, urged united support of Herbert Hoover, although he did not mention him by name, asserting that the man selected by the people last Tuesday to lead the country was not the President of the Republican party, but President of the United States. "It would not do," said Governor Smith, "to let bitterness, rancor or indignation over the result blind us to the outstanding fact that we are Americans."

Referring to the thousands of letters he said he had received since the election and since he had announced that he would not again be a candidate for public office, the Governor said he had been asked "not to lose interest" in the Democratic party. "He said he did not regard the defeat of his party as interfering with the soundness of the principles for which it stood, and that with all the honor he could command he would continue not only to stand for those principles but to 'battle' for them. He added a pledge of increasing interest in and devotion to them. The Governor called the Democratic party "the great liberal party of the nation," leading progressive thought and holding out "the only hope of return to the fundamental principles on which this country was built and as a result of which it has grown and thrived."

"To the young men and women of the country," he said, "the Democratic party, with its fine tradition, and its breadth of vision, offers the only inspiration. The Democratic party would not be in position four years from now to solicit the confidence and the support of the American people, if during that period it neglected to build up a constructive program, and relied entirely upon the failure of the opposition party. That cannot be done by the minority party permitting itself to become a party of destruction and opposition for political purposes only. We have seen too much of that in this country and in many of its civil divisions. "It would be regarded as constructive achievement," he added, "if the Democratic party at Washington were to formulate a program, adopted and agreed to by the Congress of the nation, and there defend it. A refusal on the part of the party power to accept it, or their inability to bring about party unity for the solution of these problems would then fix the responsibility and make a record upon which a successful campaign could be waged four years from now. The Democrats would not be active in good faith, Governor Smith said, if they were to adopt a policy of inaction "with a hope of profiting solely by the mistakes or the failures of the opposition."

"What this country demands," he asserted, "is constructive and not destructive criticism; a constructive program embodying the declarations of the Democratic party."

Declares Al Smith "Is 54 And Broke"

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 11.—Governor Alfred E. Smith is "broke," according to J. F. Bresnahan, business manager of the New York World.

"Al Smith is 54 and broke," he stated. "He has always been a good fellow and has given his money to his friends and to relieve the sufferings of many poor people." This statement was made today at Virginia Beach, where newspaper men from all over the country are gathered for the annual convention of the American Publisher's Association. The convention opens Monday, with Gov. Byrd, of Virginia, as one of the speakers. Early arrivals spent Sunday in discussing politics and playing golf.

Bethel Hill Team Loses To Apex Hi
Bethel Hill was defeated on last Friday by Apex High, one of the strongest teams in Wake County, by a 19-6 score. Bethel Hill was in scoring distance several times but was held by the opposing line on each instance. Sam Carr recovered on Apex favorable and with some good interference ran eighty-three yards for a touchdown. This gives Bethel Hill an even break in its six games played to far. This is considered very good when it is taken into consideration the hard schedule undertaken. They have won from Allenville, Roxboro and Danville, losing to Hillsboro, Apex and Durham. Several good players have been on the injured list in each of the last two games. Henderson Highs are played on Friday and the boys are flurrying on going above the five hundred mark by winning this game.

Hand Painted Novelties
It is with pleasure I announce, on Nov. 23rd and 24th, a display of beautiful and useful hand painted novelties will be given in the handsome store of T. W. Pasa and Son. A special invitation is extended to the people of Roxboro and adjoining counties. Remember the date and don't be late. Katherine S. Reade.

Good Sale
Mr. M. H. Hicks, one of the County's most successful farmers, sold a load of tobacco at the Hycos Warehouse last Tuesday, receiving a check for $297.80, clear check averaging better than $40.00.

BRITISH LINER SINKS

Finds Newspaper Advertising Pays

Business of Frigidaire Corporation has approximately doubled over the same period of last year following a widespread newspaper advertising campaign based upon its new line of household refrigerating equipment, according to E. G. Blechler, president and general manager, who attributes much of the increase to use of newspaper space. "The newspaper of today when used to promote a quality product is one of the greatest aids that business or industry can enlist," he said. "It obtains and retains public confidence for any product that merits it."

MONTHLY CLINIC FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

Clinic Sponsored By The Rotary Club Doing Great Work. All Treatment Is Free

All who are interested are asked to remember the date, Thursday, Nov. 22nd, for the clinic for crippled children. There are doubtless many crippled children in Person, Caswell and Granville who should have advantage of this clinic, and if you know of such a child communicate with Dr. B. E. Love, Roxboro, N. C., chairman of the committee in charge, and see if arrangements can not be made to give the child the necessary treatment. Just why parents of children who have deformed or crippled feet refuse to bring them to these clinics is beyond our understanding, for the treatment is free, and the child is entitled to be taken from the misery of going through life deformed or crippled. We hope every such child in this County will be brought in and given treatment. It is wonderful some of the cures which have been made, and if the Rotary Club never does any other charitable act it will have justified its existence by the work it has done for the crippled children. Next clinic Thursday, Nov. 22, 1928, in the old post office building, Depot Street, Roxboro, N. C.

TOBACCO IS BRINGING A GOOD PRICE HERE

Two Day's Terracing School This Week

All who are interested in the prevention of soil erosion on their farms are invited to be present at the two days terracing school to be held on the farms of Messrs. Roy and Walter Rogers, on road No. 13, about five miles south of Roxboro. An engineer from State College will be present to assist with the school. All who come will be given a chance to learn how to handle the instrument. Lines will be staked out and built up provided the soil is in condition, however if it should rain, the school will go on and the lines will be built later. The school will open at 9:00 A. M. and close at 4 P. M., both days. Come prepared to spend both days at this important school.

Daniels Not Fazed By Republican Victory

Party That Polls 15,000,000 Votes Is Not Dead, He Says

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Josephus Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy, in Chicago today after delivering an Armistice Day address, said he was unperturbed by the Republican victory of last Tuesday. "Any party that polls 15,000,000 votes is not dead," he said. In discussing the future of the Democratic party, the former secretary said Southern Democrats had no disposition to demand control. "It is not sectional leadership we want, but united effort with the Democratic minority in Congress offering a unified program around which the party can rally. "I see no reason why we should say New York should lose control of the party or Mr. Raasbok be deposed as chairman. We will get no where criticizing each other. Daniels attributed the Democratic loss of the solid South to the prohibition issue.

Old Time Fiddlers Convention Here 17th

There will be an old time fiddlers convention held at the Grammar school auditorium in Roxboro on Saturday, November 17th at 7:30 P. M. There will be three groups which will compete for the group prizes, one each from Allenville, Brookside and Carolina Group. The latter group is from Alamance county, and is considered one of the best among the old time fiddlers. Cash prizes will be awarded. This convention is under the auspices of the Brookside Charge, and the proceeds will go to the improvement of the Brookside parsonage. You are cordially invited to come out and enjoy an evening of rare fun and help in a worthy cause. Admission, 30 and 35 cents.

Presbyterian Church
Sunday School at 9:45 a. m., H. L. Crowell, Supt. Morning service at 11 a. m. Rev. R. H. Stone, of Jefferson, N. C., will preach the sermon. Mr. Stone is one of our finest young preachers and is doing a fine work in the mountains of North Carolina. Every one should hear him Sunday. Sunday School at Mitchell Chapel at 2 p. m. Services at Warren Grove at 3 p. m. There will be a reception of members; some have said that they will join on profession of faith, others have their letters from distant churches. We will be glad to welcome and receive any others that care to join. Every one welcome at all services. P. CARY ADAMS, Pastor.

Oxford Trounces The Roxboro Team
Last Friday afternoon there was a football game between Roxboro and Oxford, in Oxford. The home boys got the worst of the breaks, and Oxford won with a score of 12 to 0. Our boys put up a good fight, but the odds were against them.

Fiddlers Convention
There will be a fiddlers convention at Mt. Tirzah high school Friday night, November 23rd. Will begin at 7 o'clock and last until 9:30. Everybody come. Admission 20 and 35 cents.

Breaks Were Heavy Last Week With The Best Prices Of The Season

SALES NEARLY 500,000 LBS.

Sales last week amounted to nearly a half million pounds, and tobacco with any class at all was bringing a good price, in fact it has been a long time since good tobacco sold better than it is today. Of course, with so much common the average is kept down, the average being only $21.12, but if you will read some of the prices which are quoted by the different warehouses in this issue, you will see evidence to bear out our statement above that good tobacco is high. Evidently the manufacturers have found out that real good tobacco is very scarce, and they are buying before it is gobbled up. We are glad to see the farmers of this section bringing their tobacco here, and we firmly believe they are getting just as much for it as they would receive on any market.

AMERICAN LEGION BOYS CELEBRATE ARMISTICE DAY

Interesting Exercises Were Held In The Graded School Auditorium

REV. WEST MAKES SPEECH

Last Saturday saw more Legion boys here than for a long time. They were celebrating Armistice Day, and aside from the exercises at the school auditorium, were thinking of the feast which the Legion had prepared for them. The following program was carried out: Quartette, by the U. D. C., Mrs. Lillian Foreman, Mrs. Preston Satterfield, Mr. Clyde Swartz and Mr. Kendall Street, with Mrs. Street at the piano. Prayer, by Rev. J. W. Bradley. Quartette, by the U. D. C. Address, by Rev. W. F. West. Songs, by the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts, assisted by Miss Mabel James. Song, America. Benediction, by Rev. J. C. McGregor. After the exercises which lasted about an hour, the crowd was invited to the Pioneer Warehouse, where Brunswick stew and cold drinks were served to every one present. The exercises were thoroughly enjoyed and much credit for the day's pleasure is due to Mr. Copeland Garrett and Dr. O. G. Davis.

Bethel Hill School Attendance Is Good

The attendance for the first months has been very good. This has been due to unusually pretty weather and good truck service. The enrollment for the year has been slightly above three hundred fifty. The average daily attendance for the second month was 88% of the enrollment, which is unusually good for a rural school. The heating system in the elementary school is giving satisfactory service while the plant in the high school is now undergoing repairs. Parents are especially urged to send their children every day possible as it is a distinct advantage to both the pupil and the school.

Moved To Town
Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Street, who have been living at their country home near Mill Creek, have moved to town and are occupying the Presbyterian manse. We welcome these good people to Roxboro.

Box Party
There will be a box party at Bushy Fork High School Friday night, November 16th, for the benefit of Salem church. Come, buy a box.

TOLL OF 100 LIVES CLAIMED BY OCEAN THAT SWAMPED LINER

More Than 200 Picked Up By Rescue Ships Patrolling Off Virginia Capes

LITTLE HOPE LEFT FOR OTHER PASSENGERS ON FOUNDERED VESTRIS

American Shipper, First To Reach Scene, Flashed Signal To Other Vessels In Vicinity Shortly After Midnight Tuesday Morning; Battleship Wyoming And Several Coast Guard Cutters Join In Rescue; All Except One Of Lifeboats Picked Up By Rescue Vessels; Search For Dead Abandoned As Darkness Comes On And Vessels Start For Port With Rescued Passengers And Crew; Many Stories Of Distress And Grief Recounted. New York, Nov. 13.—The great battleship Wyoming and seven little Coast Guard cutters maintained a funeral vigil off the Virginia Coast tonight, where the liner Vestris foundered, while three other ships raced for port with survivors. Of the 339 people aboard the Lamport and Holt Steamship when it turned lazily on its side Monday afternoon and sank within one minute, 298 are known to be alive, five are known to be dead and 126 are missing. The names of the certain survivors are known. The names of the dead—one aboard an unnamed Coast Guard cutter and four aboard the Coast Guard cutter Manning—have not been transmitted. It is feared that there is but a miraculous chance that the present list of survivors will be enlarged. The list of those known to have survived the latest great sea disaster includes: Eight aboard Battleship Wyoming; Twenty-three aboard Steamship Berlin; Fifty-four aboard Tanker myriam; One hundred and twenty-three aboard Steamship American Shipper. Tonight there flashed through to the United Press, from the Berlin the first eye-witness story from the Vestris.

An Eternal Night
Chief Radio Operator F. Schuch, of the Berlin, sent a graphic and tragic dispatch of the tale told to him by Henry Schultz, a third-class passenger on the Vestris.

All the way from New York there had been a list to starboard. At 8:09 a. m. Monday women and children were ordered upon deck. At 9:00 everyone put on lifebelts. Shortly after 1:00 p. m. the lowering of the lifeboats was started. Three portside boats, laden with women and children, still were in their davits and some people—including Schultz—were on deck still when the Vestris turned over on its starboard side and sank at once.

Scrambling in the cold water, Schultz and others made for the nearest boats. Some reached them. An empty lifeboat, No. 13, into which Schultz and two other climbed, subsequently rescued 19 more persons.

Lifeboat No. 13, like the others, passed an eternal night. Jammed into the little craft, passengers and crew took turns at bailing. They could see the searchlights of the rescue ships, but none saw their faces until the American Shipper signaled them at 2:25 a. m.

Then, at dawn, other lifeboats were sighted and their occupants were taken aboard the four ships at the scene.

We Thought it a Mistake
When we read the advertisement of Harris & Burns and saw the statement, "$15 to $25 Carried Over Styles for $1.75 to $45.00" we thought it was surely a mistake, but upon inquiry found they meant just what they said. In fact, any claim made in their advertisements are always true to the letter, and if you want a real, honest-to-goodness serviceable dress, and are not one of those who sacrifices everything to style, now is your opportunity. If we were looking for a coat or dress we would net the door close before we bought one of these dresses.
