Old Board Has A Walk Over

For The First Time In Years There Was A Real Town Election

CITIZENS SUSTAIN ACTION OF MASS-MEEETING

The town election yesterday was hotly contested, with the regulars— nominated at the mass-meeting Thursday evening, winning by a decisive majority. The antis putting up a stiff bluff in the early morning sensed defeat and seemed to give up their

The results were highly satisfactory to the Mayor and the old Board for it was clearly shown that the citizens were in accord with the actions the Board for the past two years, and said to them they were willing to trust the affairs of the town to them for another two years.

The vote was as follows:

E. E. Thomas, on both tickets, 334.
G. J. Cushwa, who had his name taken off of the anti-ticket, 257.

Dr. J. H. Hughes, 256.

J. M. O'Briant, 239. E. G. Long, 236. K. L. Street, 112.

R, A. Burch, 108. O. Y. Clayton, 95. Clayton, 95.

R. B. Dawes, for Mayor, was elected without opposition, 268.

Harold Price Is Coming

Do you know who Harold Price is? If not, you are not well acquainted with the South's leading pianists. In fact, among Southern musicians he is without a peer

Roxboro is indeed fortunate in booking Harold Price. It is only because he is a personal friend of one of our citizens that we are able to secure him for a program. Radio music is fine, but it is as different from the real thing as canned peaches are different from ripe peaches from the Pittsburg, May 7.-The navy balloon number 1 tonight was credited with winning the 1929 national elimination The crew of the Detroit Times entry, last of the bags to report, advised race headquarters late today that they had landed near Comb, N. isolated district. E. J. Hill piloted the Times' entry and Arthur Schlosser was his aide.

Other entries must be checked by National Aeronautical association before the winner is declared officially. The Navy No. 1 piloted by Lieutenant T. G. W. Setttle, came down near Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, traveling a distance estimated unofficially at 900 miles.

The bag was in the air 44 hours. Nearly three days had elapsed since the 12 balloons left here Saturday before the Detroit Times entry was found. The distance covered by the craft was estimated at approximately crait was estimated at approximately that traveled by the Goodyear VII piloted by Ward T. Van Orman. The Goodyear VII came down at Kees-ville, N. Y., a distance of approximately 405 miles from Pittsburg.

First and second place winners in the national race are entitled to com-pete in the international balloon race. The United States will have a third entry in the international this year, Captain W. E. Kepner, of the army, being the defender. He won both the national and international in 1928.

Bethel Hill vs. Roxboro

Roxboro will play Bethel Hill at Bethel Hill Friday, May 10, at three p. m. This is the last Bethel Hill game of the season, and is expected to be a close one. Bethel Hill has defeated Roxboro once this year 14-8. after a hard fought game and is expecting to repeat. However, in the last two games the team has been off form considerably in both fielding and batting. This has been partly due to injuries and not having all the reg-ular team in the line up. All players are expected to be ready Friday and a clean, hard fought battle is loooked for. Admission will be 25c.
