JERSEY PEP TRIP TO LYNCHBURG SALE MONDAY, JUNE 24

A Party Will Leave Court House
Monday Morning, 7 O'clock
To Attend Sale

40 HEIFERS TO BE SOLD

Hon. Carter Glass, Lynchburg, Va., will hold a Jersey auction sale Monday, June 24, at which time forty head of registered heifers, cows and calves will be offered to the highest bidder.

All who own registered cattle in the County and others interested in buying a Jersey heifer in the near future should make the trip—not so much to buy, as much as we would like to see a few brought back to Person County, but it will be an inspirational trip for all. We can see a fine herd of cattle. Learn how a modern cattle sale is conducted, which will give us all a wider vision of what we want to do in Person County and give us many points of information for future guidance.

A party is planning to leave Roxboro at 7 o'clock Monday morning to make this trip and we should arrive about ten o'clock. Dinner will be served on the grounds at 11:30 and the sale will start at noon. It is about eighty miles to Lynchburg, and we expect to be back at 9 p. m.

See your friends, and members of the Jersey fraternity, in your community, work up a car load and be at the court house at 7 a. m., Monday, June 24th to start to Lynchburg. If you cannot get a car load, come on to the court house and the empty cars can double up. Do not try to see the County Agent about the trip. The above are the facts in the case. Get up a carload and join us at the hour mentioned above. If you cannot get up a carload and want to go, come on in your own car and we can double up at 7 o'clock at the courthouse, letting the expenses of the trip be divided among the passengers.

Do not try to see the County Agent, but see your friends and others interested in registered cattle for Person and let's start at 7 a. m. Monday morning June 24, for the big sale at Senator Carter Glass' farm.

First Baptist Church

A hostess of Jacob Rills once asked him how, when he was only a reporter, he had so reported the crimes of lower New York as to arouse the city to reform the shocking conditions there. The philanthropic reporter hesitated, gave one or two possible reasons, then added, "And then, you know, I am a Christian, and when a Christian sees a wrong he must do his utmost to right that wrong."

If this attitude were possessed by all Christians it would change the entire aspect of this nation's life.

New Marriage Law Go Into Effect In State On July First

The law, which was passed by the General Assembly on March 15, 1929, provides that after July 1 of this year application for a marriage license must be filed with the register of deeds five days before the license can be issued, if the parties concerned are under 21 years of age.

The act will not apply to marriages publicly announced through the press at least five days before the proposed marriage.

The clerk of the superior court of the county in which the marriage is to take place is authorized however, to order the license to be issued less than five days after the application is filed if he is satisfied of the seriousness and sincere purpose of the parties applying for the license, or if the parents or guardians of the minors request the issuing of the marriage license.

AGED SALVATION ARMY CHIEF DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

General Bramwell Booth Passed Away In 83rd Year; Was Recently Deposed

FATHER OF WORLD'S POOR

Hadley Wood, England, June 18.—Gen. Bramwell Booth, former head of the Salvation Army, died at his home here tonight. General Booth was eighty-three years old.

The nature and extent of his life's work were tersely described by characterizations of Gen. William Bramwell Booth.

He had been called "Father of the World's Poor," "Patriarch of the Slums" and "Bishop of the Church of the Poor." As commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army he was all of these.

General Booth devoted his life to strengthening and extending the organization founded to promulgate the teaching of religion among persons not reached by the churches and to give to men and women who had failed a new start in life.

Inherited Rank

He inherited command of the Salvation Army from his father, the late Gen. William Booth, its founder, whose chief lieutenant he had been for many years. As commander in chief he became the guiding director and administrator of an organization whose annual revenue has been estimated at $40,000,000.

There came under his control the conduct of 1,500 social institutions, including industrial homes, open-air farms for children, men's hotels, day school and soldiers' hotels. Additional activities of the Salvation Army under his direction included the conduct of a bank, an insurance company and an immigration company.

The World War offered opportunity for new activities by the Salvation Army and its members did their work so well that in the end the army had been raised from the status of a poor man's charity to a powerful international organization.

Buildings Razed And Unroofed; Trees Blown Down; Hail And Rain In Torrents

CROPS BADLY DAMAGED

The South side of Person county was visited last Saturday morning with probably the most violent hail, wind and rain storm in the memory of the County's oldest residents. It was an unusual hot morning with scarcely any breeze and as early as seven o'clock the heavy rumbling sound of distant thunder could be heard which clearly indicated the rapid approach of a storm. As the clouds drew near the whole world seemed almost closed in and the constant flash of lightning with the deafening peals of thunder together with almost night time darkness presented a very exciting, though interesting scene. For something like four minutes a heavy downpour of hailstones, many of which were as large as guinea eggs, accompanied with a destructive downpour of rain and wind. Quite a number of small buildings were razed and hurled from their foundations and many roofs were torn from their places and hurled through the air. The path of the storm was less than a mile wide and at this writing we have not learned how far west or east it reached. The section around Baynes Store has reported the most severe damage so far, reaching east as far as Berea.

Most of the wheat crop through the storm area had been harvested but was badly beaten in the shock. The corn and tobacco crop being small, will come out again where it was not completely destroyed. Much destruction to gardens, orchards and the forest, besides the regular field crops, makes the loss heavy and hard to estimate. Large trees that had stood the test of other storms, were broken down and uprooted. Sixteen fine fruit trees, many of them being large and strong, were blown and uprooted in one small orchard.

BETTER PARKING FACILITIES PROVIDED

Unightly, Vacant Lot Rear Of Court House To Be Put To Serviceable Use

GREAT BENEFIT TO PUBLIC

The County Commissioners have decided to have the vacant lot west of the court house converted into a convenient parking ground for the general public, which will be an item of interest to every resident of the County who comes to Roxboro on an automobile. The sheriff has been instructed to have the lot cleared of all movable objects and the town aldermen will then arrange the lot into suitable condition. All persons who have anything stationed on the lot are requested to move same out of the way. This seems to be a wise decision as parking space is limited, especially when we have a large crowd.

LOCAL MEN WILL APPEAR IN COURT

They Are Charged With Having Violated The Fishing Law Statute

Among those attending court in the city of Durham next Saturday, will be Mess. Hugh Woods, T. J. Hatchett, Joe Moore and Rev. W. F. West, all of whom have been summoned on a charge of violating the state fishing law. The above parties in company with a number of fishermen from other sections had gone out on the Durham lake to fish and according to Rev. W. F. West all the Roxboro citizens had secured the necessary permit from Durham authorities to fish, but had not been required to pay any state fee before going on the lake to fish. The matter will probably be put to a test in the Durham court and the outcome will be followed closely by Roxboro citizens.

It Can't Be Done

Early Monday morning the fire alarm was sounded and fire was discovered in one of the west end rooms of the County court house. Quick response by the fire department and the liberal use of chemicals extinguished the blaze before very much damage was done, other than a small hole being burned in the floor and the walls being somewhat smoked and soiled. The fire probably started from a lighted cigaret falling into a box of waste stored in the room.

For several years now an effort has been made to secure a new court house. First the Judge took the matter in hand and had the Commissioners cited before him for contempt, and the Solicitor was prevailed upon to hold up and see what could be done, and then two or more elections were held, but all to no avail, and now even fate has failed to be of any assistance. No, it just can't be did.

From Farm to White House May Be Career of Young

Debt Negotiations Make Him Presidential Possibility; Still Lives On Farm

UNQUESTIONED ABILITY

Prominent Democratic leaders at Washington are already promoting the presidential candidacy for 1932 of Owen D. Young, the farm boy who became the world's greatest compromiser by solving the reparations puzzle in Europe.

This man, to whom the world looked for guidance in settling the tremendous financial problems growing out of the World War, is regarded by Senator Carter Glass of Virginia and others as the one outstanding Democrat to whom the party can turn. "He is a man of unquestioned ability and accomplishment," says the Senator.

Mr. Young and Gen. Dawes took up the debt question in 1924, going to London without any official status. In Mr. Young's brain was born the basic idea of the so-called Dawes Plan—called so because Gen. Dawes was the presiding member of the Reparations Commission. Mr. Young, presiding over the most recent negotiations, with J. P. Morgan and Thomas W. Lamont as associates, cleaned up, in less than four months, the biggest and most complicated financial entanglements in the history of the world.

This man of the hour is the product of a New York farm who educated himself. Born at Van Hornesville, in Herkimer County, N. Y., he worked on his father's farm as a boy, driving in the cows from the pasture, milking them and doing the morning and evening chores.

Later he guided a plow behind a team of horses, helped with the harvesting and did other forms of farm work. When he had time, he attended school, and later worked his way through the law course at Boston University, completing a three year course in two years while earning enough for his keep by tutoring.

In 1908 he was already on the path to success, though only two years out of college, and married Miss Josephine Sheldon Edmonds of Southbridge, Mass. Five children were born out of the marriage and four are living.

Now Mr. Young is Chairman of the Board of the General Electric Company and Chairman of the Board of the Radio Corporation of America.

He has engaged in many public activities, and won many honors the world over. Through it all his love for farm life has not abated.

For Mr. Young, after moving to New York in 1913 and finding that his business often called him to Schenectady, bought his father's old farm not far from the scene of his business activities. He and his family live on the farm when he is able to get away from his many duties in New York and Europe.

ENTHUSIASTIC BASE BALL MEETING HELD

Financial Campaign To Be Staged For Operating Purposes

A meeting was held in the court house last night for the purpose of organizing a baseball team for the present season. A small but enthusiastic crowd was in attendance. A general discussion terminated in the nomination and election of Dr. W. H. Morris team manager, and Mr. J. S. Merritt assistant manager. A drive was decided upon to raise from $250 to $300 for general expense purposes in getting started. Any merchant who subscribes as much as $10 will be permitted to have his business, name and address placed on the back of one uniform. No other active steps will be taken until some assurance of the finances are arrived upon.

Bitten By Moccasin

Mr. Ernest E. Moore, prosperous young farmer of Hurdle Mills suffered the painful and exciting experience early last Friday morning of being bitten by a Copperhead moccasin. Mr. Moore had gone to his barn to feed his stock about 4 o'clock and in getting corn out of his crib felt something sting him on one of his arms. Hurrying to the house he secured a light and went back and discovered that he had been bitten by a snake, which escaped him without being killed. Mr. Moore was rushed to Dr. Robert Warren's office; several miles distant where he was given treatment and a report from him Sunday stated he was getting along very nicely.

ANTI-SMITH GROUP NAMES CANDIDATE

W. And L. Professor To Run For Governor Of Virginia; Racial Integrity

Roanoke, Va., June 18.—William Mosely Brown, 35 year-old Washington and Lee University professor, was selected by Virginia Anti-Smith Democrats today to lead them in their effort to wrest control of State offices from the Democratic party and repudiate Democratic leaders who supported Alfred E. Smith for the Presidency.

Nominated for governor by acclamation at the close of the Anti-Smith convention today, Dr. Brown came through the crowded auditorium to the platform and, in a short address, pledged himself to a vigorous campaign under the Anti-Smith banner.

"I have never been one of those who feared to champion a righteous cause, whatever the consequences to my personal fortunes or future career," Dr. Brown said. "For right is bound to triumph, and those who are condemned as ignominious and fanatical disturbers of the established order of things will tomorrow, I believe, be hailed as the pioneers of a new era in the history of humanity."

TREE GROWS FROM CANE

Fairfield, Me.—Sixty-five years ago Increase Kandall thrust a willow stick he had cut for a cane into the ground and forgot about it. The willow stick took root and today has grown to a tree which is twenty-four feet in circumference near its base.
