ROXBORO PREPARE FOR BATTLE HERE FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Heffner Has All His Charges Set For Clash With Henderson Team

A GOOD GAME EXPECTED

The Roxboro team is going on the field Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock for its first appearance on the local grid-iron. They are expecting to take Henderson's measure, which this high school has not done yet in its history of football. The Henderson team is expected to furnish some strong opposition but the locals expect to present a stubborn defense and an aggressive offense. The team is going through hard workouts each afternoon, and expect to show marked improvement over previous games. We have had a losing team so far as score is concerned this season but let's everyone begin now and make it a winning team. It is very easy to boost a winning team and feel proud that they represent you and your community, but it takes a good sport and a loyal supporter to give the same support to a losing team. I believe that we have this community back of this team. Be on the field at 3:30 Friday and show this team that you are. That you are doing your part to make a winning team. Back them Friday until the last whistle blows. The remaining schedule for the season is as follows:

- Oct. 18—Henderson here.
- Oct. 25—Hillsboro there.
- Nov. 1—Allensville here.
- Nov. 8—Chapel Hill here.
- Nov. 15—Burlington there.
- Nov. 22—Bragtown here.

South Boston Defeats Roxboro There Friday

The high school boys of Roxboro again suffered defeat, but they fought manfully and did their best. They journeyed over to South Boston last Friday and tackled the fast team of that good city, the score being 20-0. Coach Heffner is laboring under many disadvantages this year, as his team is almost entirely new, but prospects are good for the coming year, as the boys will by then have gained more in pounds, to say nothing of learning more about the game.

Oxford And Roxboro Pastors Will Exchange

On next Sunday evening the Pastor, Rev. E. J. Rees, and his choir, from Oxford will come here and have charge of the services at the Methodist church, while Rev. T. A. Sikes, and his choir, will go to Oxford and have charge of the services there. We doubt if there is a better choir in this section of the State than the Methodist choir, but our folks will enjoy hearing the Oxford folks on this occasion, and will give them a good congregation.

Hurdle Mills Musical

On Friday night, Oct. 23, there is to be String Music at Hurdle Mills school. We have arranged to have the Allensville String Band to make the music. The following are in the band: Messrs. Jeff and Charlie O'Brian, Arthur Tinker, Charlie Slaughter, and Stub Perkins. Those who have heard these gentlemen play over radio or otherwise need no further information as to the quality of their music. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the school. Hour 7:30. Admission, 15 and 25 cents. Joe B. CURRIN, Prin.

Services At County Home

A meeting of interest and inspiration to those who took part, and to those listening was held Sunday afternoon, Oct. 13th, at the County Home, when the Epworth League of Brookdale church held devotional exercises there. Several of the old familiar hymns were sung, with Scripture reading following. Mrs. S. F. Nicks made a very interesting talk on "Prayer." This preceded the singing of such hymns as were requested by the inmates, and the services were then closed with prayer by Mrs. Arch Moore. After the conclusion of the religious services fruits and flowers were given both white and colored inmates for whom the services were given. Their appreciation made each one feel they had helped and cheered the day for them.—L.

TOBACCO SHOWS A SLIGHT UPWARD TREND

Sales Continue Light, As Farmers Are Not At All Pleased With Prices

SOLD 272,008 LBS. AV. $16.65

The farmers very wisely are not rushing their tobacco on the market, still hoping that very soon there will be a decided advance on all grades. Nearly every tobacco man you talk with says this is likely to be the case, and we believe the farmer can take chance for awhile at any rate. Sales were light on the market last week, only 272,008 pounds being offered, which brought $45,381.05, an average of $16.65. The prices are not at all pleasing to the farmers, which is perfectly natural, for they are below the cost of production, and no man cares to sell anything at less than cost. We are still hoping that something may come of all of the agitation concerning the matter, but our faith is not any too strong, for the manufacturers hold the whip hand, and they have never been inclined to do much for the farmer.

JUDGE E. H. CRANMER WILL SPEAK TONIGHT

At Methodist Church; Subject, "Choosing Christ Rather Than Mammon"

Judge E. H. Cranmer, who is here presiding over this term of Person Superior court, will speak to the prayer meeting congregation tonight at 7:30. Judge Cranmer is an interesting speaker. He will speak on the subject, "Choosing Christ Rather Than Mammon." The public is invited to hear the judge.

Sunday services will be held as usual. Sunday school at 9:45; Sermon at 11 and 7:30 and the Epworth League at 6:45. At the evening hour Rev. E. J. Rees will be the preacher and the choir of the Oxford Methodist church of which Mr. Rees is pastor, will render the music, giving several selections besides the hymns. This is an exchange between the pastor of the Edgar Long Memorial and the choir with the pastor of Oxford and choir. We earnestly hope that all the members and friends of the congregation will try to be present at all the services next Sunday. There is only one more Sunday till the meeting of the North Carolina Conference in Kinston. T. A. SIKES, Pastor.

Person Superior Court

Person County Superior Court met Monday with Judge E. H. Cranmer on the bench, and Hon. W. B. Urnstead looking after the State docket. The docket was rather light this term, and they will probably wind it up and get to work on the civil docket by Wednesday morning. We will give full report of court proceedings in our next issue.

Conference Invited

The Edgar Long Methodist Church has invited the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church of the South to hold their annual session in 1930 in Roxboro. This invitation was extended without a dissenting vote. Not only has the Methodist Church invited the Conference, but the entire town has joined in this invitation and if the invite is accepted every one will do their utmost to make their stay pleasant. This is a big undertaking for a town the size of Roxboro, but the Methodists here know no such word as fail, and with the town solidly behind them we feel sure there will be no regrets if the invitation is accepted.

Tobacco Stolen

Some thief, or thieves, broke into the back house of Mr. W. D. Yarboro Sunday night and stole two cartons of tobacco which he had ready for the market, and which he intended to sell on Monday. Mr. Yarboro says he valued this tobacco at $400, and the way tobacco is selling it is quite a loss to him. No clue has been found as to who did the stealing.
