

Ballot Box Reports Will Decide Winners

CAMPAIGN CLOSES SATURDAY NIGHT AT 8 O'CLOCK; ONLY A FEW HOURS LEFT

Aspirants Enter Final Stretch For The Two Big Prize Cars In The Big Circulation Drive

Your Last Chance To Win—Which Will It Be—Victory Or Defeat? Consider Carefully The Value Of The Chrysler "66" Sedan, The Chevrolet 2-Door Sedan—And Compare With A Handful Of Subscriptions. Last Minute's Efforts May Decide Hopes Of Candidates—Every Minute Counts

They're pounding down the home stretch! The fatal day of the last week is at hand. After weeks of strenuous efforts on the part of ambitious workers, who have been striving zealously in quest of subscriptions and votes they see victory just ahead of them. With the closing a few hours off, the curtain will have to come down upon one of the most far-reaching circulation campaigns ever conducted in this part of North Carolina.

Many new subscribers have been added to the Roxboro Courier lists, new friends have been made, come to stay we hope, permanently, with Person County's best newspaper.

All is anxiety as the candidates pound down the home stretch, vying with each other to reach the wire in The Courier Campaign means highest honors to winners.

Nothing in life worth while is ever gained without some effort and while all cannot win an automobile in the Courier campaign the business experience gained will be of inestimable value in later years.

With the rich rewards hanging in the balance all candidates are waging a fast and furious battle of ballots, which will end at 8 o'clock P. M. Saturday, October 26th.

If you are expecting to win one of the automobiles in the Courier campaign, it is up to you alone to have more votes than your competitor. Work and work hard; victory is just ahead. The doors of the contest office will close promptly at 8 o'clock P. M. Saturday, and no one will be permitted to enter after that time to turn in votes and subscriptions.

The Judges or their representatives will be on hand to see that the campaign is closed in accordance with the rules. Those who are in the contest office when the doors are closed will be permitted sufficient time to prepare their subscriptions and votes and place them in the locked and sealed ballot box, which will be placed in the contest office the last day of the drive.

Commission To Non-Prize Winners

So that every person who takes an active part in securing votes in the Circulation Drive will be rewarded these that are not awarded a regular prize in the list will be paid a commission of 20% in cash upon all money collected and turned in by them. In order to qualify for the commission payment the candidate must remain active until the end of the campaign by turning in at least two subscriptions each week they are in the race.

The following named gentlemen have consented to act as judges at the contest office the last day of the drive:

- MR. T. B. WOODY, MR. G. J. CUSHWA, MR. W. G. MILLER.

Football Games Off On Important Trip

Death Of Prominent Citizen Of Milton

Mr. W. L. Thomas died at his home in Milton last night. He had been in ill health for some time and suffered a stroke of paralysis last Saturday, which was the direct cause of his death. Burial services were held in Milton yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Thomas was a prominent merchant and one of the best known citizens of Milton and Caswell county, where he had lived for a number of years. His wife, before marriage, was Miss Fannie Sergeant, sister of Mr. W. A. Sergeant, and her numerous friends will grieve with her in this sad affliction.

Miss Helen Godfrey, 17, Norwalk, Conn., who secretly married Dr. Fredric Ritchie, 63, New York eye specialist. By the marriage Miss Godfrey becomes the stepmother of a woman twice her age.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DIED YESTERDAY

One Of Person County's Most Prominent Citizens Died Yesterday At 11:45

Mr. Walter Bradsher, one of Person county's most prominent and respected citizens, died at his home near Bushy Fork yesterday morning at 11:45. He was taken ill Monday night about 10 o'clock, and did not rally from the spell, heart trouble causing his death.

Mr. Bradsher was a representative of one of the most prominent families in the County, was a native of Person, and was honored and loved by all who knew him. Besides his wife he leaves four children, two boys and two girls, one brother and a large circle of other relatives and friends. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the body buried in the old family burying ground.

Our Boys Outclassed

The Roxboro high school boys found the Henderson team too much for them and suffered defeat to the tune of 20-6. But don't think it was not a good game. The Roxboro boys played one of the best games of the season, but Henderson was simply too much for them. Don't get discouraged, boys, you have the stuff, and are displaying it, which will make a team in which all Roxboro will take pride.

Notice, Mis. So. Of First Baptist Church

Instead of having the usual circle meeting on Monday, Oct. 28, all of the circles will come together in a joint meeting at the church to study the book "Glimpses of Missionary Life," which is one of the books of our Mission Study Course. The hour of the meeting is 2 o'clock. Every one come with pencil and paper prepared to take examination.—Cor. Sec.

Person County Agent Winner Of Soil Prize

Twice In Succession Has Conducted The Best Program Of Soil Improvement

FREE TRIP TO MISSISSIPPI

For the second year in succession, H. K. Sanders, county agent of Person county, has conducted the best program of soil improvement of any county agent in the South according to the decision of a committee of judges meeting in Atlanta October 18 and 19. C. B. Williams, head of the department of agronomy at State College, and one of the five judges considering the work done this past year by southern county agents, announced today.

Last year, Mr. Sanders won first place in this soil improvement contest and was given a free trip to the meeting of the Southern Agricultural Workers' Association held at Houston, Texas. As a result of winning this year, he will also have a free trip to the same meeting to be held at College Station, Mississippi, in February. Ten county agents, Mr. Williams said, were considered in making the awards but that the work done by Mr. Sanders and the general excellence of his report was such he was again given first place.

Five other county agents from different parts of the South will be given the trips. For having done the best work, however, Mr. Sanders will be recognized with further honors at the association meeting.

This contest is staged each year by the Southern Soil Improvement Committee of Atlanta, Georgia.

GRANGE MEETING AT BETHEL HILL FRIDAY NIGHT NOVEMBER 1

Mr. Chas. F. Faucett Will Speak At High School Building. At 7:30 O'Clock

THE PUBLIC IS INVITED

Representatives of the various communities of the county, are requested to be present Friday night, Nov. 1st, and hear Mr. Chas. F. Faucett, Special Deputy for the National Grange. Mr. Faucett will probably discuss the organization of the local Granges.

Many of the prominent agricultural leaders of the state highly endorse the Grange and many local organizations have been formed recently over the state. Every one who keeps up with the agricultural news knows something of the great work done by the National Grange throughout the country. It is national in character and has functioned continuously for nearly sixty years. Its local units are strongly grouped into county, state and national bodies, and all its affairs are efficiently administered.

The public is cordially invited to hear Mr. Faucett at the Bethel Hill High School Friday night, Nov. 1st, 7:30 o'clock.

OXFORD AND ROXBORO METHODISTS CHANGE PLACES LAST SUNDAY

Beautiful Services Held At The Methodist Church Here Sunday Night

HAD LARGE ATTENDANCE

Last Sunday night the Pastor and choir of the Oxford and Roxboro Methodist churches exchanged places and had charge of the services. The services here were enjoyed by a large congregation and Pastor, Rev. E. J. Rees preached a strong sermon. The choir of the Oxford church had full charge of the musical program, and it was decidedly worth while, and thoroughly enjoyed by the large congregation.

Pastor Sikes and his choir held forth at Oxford, and while we have seen no comments on the services we are convinced that the Oxford folks had the opportunity of a most enjoyable evening, for Mr. Sikes is one of the strong preachers of his denomination, and the Roxboro choir is acknowledged to be one of the very best in this section of the State.

THE RED CROSS ROLL CALL

Edgar Long Memorial Annual Roll Call In Roxboro From Armistice Day Until Thanksgiving

Next Sunday will be the last Sunday of the conference year. In many respects the year has been a very delightful one to the pastor, and he greatly appreciates all the kind things said about him, and all that has been done for him.

The services for Sunday will be as usual: Sunday School at 9:45, Sermon at 11 and 7:30, Epworth League 6:45. At the evening service Rev. O. K. Proctor, superintendent of the Oxford Orphanage, will preach. He will bring with him a group of children from the orphanage and they will render two or three selections. It is hoped that a larger congregation will be greeted by Brother Proctor. Let's make the last Sunday in the conference year a great Sunday. Come to the Sunday School, to the morning service, to the Epworth League and crown the day's worship by giving Brother Proctor a large congregation.

T. A. SIKES, Pastor.

The American Red Cross is the first relief organization to reach the scene of every major disaster that may occur in our country. During the last fiscal year the American Red Cross rendered relief and rehabilitation service in 131 disasters, including the West Indian and Florida hurricane situation for which $6,000,000.00 was collected and expended in work of mercy and restoration.

Much of the work of the Red Cross may be local in its application. One-half of the one dollar membership fee remains in the local community to carry on health work among our own folk. The objective set for the Person county chapter of the Red Cross for this year is chiefly dental service for school children who can not get the proper attention without help. There is urgent need for some service of this kind among many of the local school children.

Death Of Mrs. Ramsey

Mrs. J. E. Ramsey died on last Thursday and was buried Friday, the services being conducted by Rev. E. W. Hurst, of the Episcopal church, assisted by Rev. W. L. Maness. Mrs. Ramsey had been an invalid for a number of years and had long been a resident of Roxboro.

Death Of A Child

The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gies Gentry died Monday morning at 1 o'clock. Burial services were conducted by Rev. S. F. Nicks and the body interred at Allensville church yesterday at 2 p. m.
