

Scholarship Roll of Roxboro High School During Fall Semester

For the information of patrons in particular and the public in general we publish the names of the following students in the Roxboro high school who averaged 85% or more on each subject during the fall term. The seventh grade pupils are included in these lists because their work is organized with the high school schedules and taught in part by high school teachers.

There are, of course, many pupils whose average on one subject or another ranges somewhere between 70% and 85%, and there is also a group of pupils whose average falls below 70% or a passing mark. The lists published below seem numerous enough and sufficiently varied as to their personnel to show that the pupils who make serious efforts to master their school work succeed in making creditable records. Look for your child's name in the lists.

Pug Bluggum, on the 1st of March, bribed an Irishman with $100 to hold on to the verdict of manslaughter. After being out a long time the jury came back into court with the desired verdict. Pug managed to get near the Irishman and said, "I'm mighty obliged to you. Did you have a hard time?" "Yes," replied the Irishman, "a devil of a time. All the rest wanted to acquit you."
