President Proposes Use Of War Debt Payments To Stabilize Foreign Money

Only Through Re-establishment Of Gold Standard Can Economic War Be Averted, Says Hoover

PARTY'S SUPPORT TO ROOSEVELT PLEDGED

New York, Feb. 13.—President Hoover tonight suggested the temporary use of war debt payments to stabilize depreciated foreign currencies, declaring that only through re-establishment of the gold standard by the major nations could an international "economic war" be averted.

Calls For Cooperation.

Mr. Hoover stood before a huge American flag while giving his call for cooperation among nations in meeting the depression, declaring at the outset that the answer "can only be found and found quickly through the re-establishment of gold standards among important nations."

As the President stood in the glare of a battery of spotlights to speak, the wave of applause and cheering swept through the standing audience. A cheer or two mingled with applause when he pledged the party's support to the new administration's measures "which will promote public welfare."

Departing momentarily from his text he said that in speaking of subjects upon which there should be no partisanship one must mention "the economic cloud" which "continues to hang over our nation and is in the thought of everyone."

"We cannot isolate ourselves," he interpolated in his prepared speech as he turned to discussing the nation's place in world affairs.

Through his long discussion of world economic affairs, the President spoke slowly, quietly and without gesture. His audience listened with intent quiet.

There was applause when he said the world has not yet reached the point when it "can safely abandon" the use of gold altogether as a basis of currency and exchange.

Again there was interruption when he said "a mass of gold dashing hither and yon from one nation to another, seeking maximum safety, has acted like a cannon loose on the deck of the world in a storm."

Three Lindy Suspects Get New Grilling

Stories Conflict, U. S. Agents Declare; Plan Examination Of Youth's Handwriting

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 11.—Vigorous grilling of two men and a woman held in connection with a plot to extort $50,000 from Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, was resumed tonight by Federal investigators, who announced statements so far obtained from the trio were "conflicting" and contained some information they wanted to "keep" confidential for the present.

Joe Bryant, nineteen-year-old boy, who attempted to cash the $17,000 "planted" check that led to his arrest and that of Norman Harvey and Harvey's wife, Elsie, was the first to be recalled by Assistant District Attorney T. B. Parsons and United States Agent T. N. Stapleton.

Unequaled Record

We can give you insurance in a company that has not cut dividends during this depression. I know there is a record that can't be beat.

The Indianapolis Life not only did not cut dividends but had an extra dividend ready to pay, but through the advice of big policy holders, the surplus was retained for future distribution.

Sidney Smith, the famous cartoonist who creates much interest in The Gumps, has one-half million with this conservative company.

We also have the Pilot Life of Greensboro, N. C. It is one of the best in the South. We can insure men and women without examination up to age sixty for a limited amount of insurance. They still give a life income policy with their policies. We have written for four years and the Pilot has only paid $748.00 out in claims. If you want to live a long time it seems you may be lucky to insure with us.

We also represent the Mutual Life of New York. It is the oldest life insurance company in America. Its cash capital is "One Billion Dollars." They pay the largest dividend of any company represented in Roxboro. The cash value is large, too.

Local Rotarians Hear Three Talks

Three local speakers featured the program of the Rotary Club last Thursday night. O. B. McBroom was in charge of the program and presented Mrs. R. L. Wilburn, Mrs. B. B. Mangum and Rev. J. F. Herbert, all of whom spoke briefly on some particular phase of community service, the bed-rock principle of Rotary. The speakers were heard with close attention and interest by the members of the club and their guests. Rev. W. F. West will be in charge of a "Fellowship" program at the regular meeting tomorrow night.

NATHAN LUNSFORD NAMED ATTORNEY FOR CREDIT CORP.

Will Certify Title For Liens, Chattels And Mortgages For Farm Loans

COUNTY AGENT TO HELP

Raleigh, Feb. 15.—Nathan Lunsford, of Roxboro has been designated as attorney for Person county whose certificate of title for liens, chattels and mortgages will be accepted by the Regional Agricultural Credit Corporation of Raleigh, N. C. for loans to be made to the people of this county, John P. Stedman, executive vice-president and manager, announces.

Mr. Stedman also announces that H. K. Sanders, Roxboro, N. C., County Agent, has agreed to aid those of this county seeking to borrow money from the corporation in making out their applications in proper form, thus facilitating the preliminary work and helping to save time and eliminate "red tape" in getting the loans through.

Fees for attorneys, paid by the applicants, are limited to one-half of one per cent of the loan, with a minimum of $1 and a maximum of $12.50 on chattels and liens, while the fees on real property will be governed by the amount of work involved in preparing the abstract and mortgage. Attorneys, as well as county farm agents, are agreeing to perform the duties connected with making loans largely for patriotic and community reasons, Mr. Stedman states, pointing out that county agents are cooperating splendidly.

Interest on the loans is at the rate of 5 1/2 per cent and a small inspection fee, depending on the size of the loan, will be added, Mr. Stedman states.

Loans are not to be made to persons who may be interested in agriculture and receiving the major part of their income from other sources, but they will be confined to actual "dirt farmers" whose main livelihood comes from farming, poultry, livestock and dairy operations, Mr. Stedman states. It is the farm owner, too, and not the tenant farmer, who will be the beneficiary of the Regional Agricultural Credit Corporation's assistance. Those engaged in producing crops, raising cattle, operating dairies and raising poultry on their own land will be extended loans under the regulations of the corporation, the vice-president and manager announces.

Loans are made direct from the Raleigh office and do not have to be passed upon in Washington, thus eliminating time and trouble and permitting the borrowers to get their money much earlier than otherwise would be the case, Mr. Stedman states.

Foot Hurt By Tractor

Charlie Barnett, an employee of the State Highway Commission, was the victim of a painful accident last Wednesday morning when one of the heavy caterpillar tractors used by the highway force ran over his foot. The accident happened near Helena, where some roads were being repaired. He was brought to Roxboro and the injured member dressed. No bones were broken, it was stated, and he is now getting along nicely, at the home of his father.

BIBLE COLLECTION EXHIBITED SUNDAY

Mr. Herbert Presents Interesting Display of Unusual Volumes

OVER FIFTY ON EXHIBIT

A most interesting feature of the services at Edgar Long Memorial Church last Sunday was the display of Bibles, both old and new, collected and arranged by the pastor, Rev. J. F. Herbert, supplemented by a display sent by the American Bible Society. The collection included more than 50 Bibles of all sorts, languages, age and condition.

Among those editions printed in foreign languages the following were noted: Portuguese, Arabic, Russian, Gaelic, Lithuanian, Italian, Canton Chinese, Welsh, Hebrew, Japanese, Spanish and Swedish. In the display also was a Bible belonging to the pastor, printed in Greek, which was the original language of the New Testament. Mr. Herbert stated in his morning sermon that the Bible has been translated and printed in 770 different languages or dialects. Another interesting copy of the Holy Book was a large volume of the Gospel of St. Mark for the use of the blind. The raised characters are read through the fingertips. There were many old volumes owned by local persons and loaned to the church for the display. These will always, of course, prove interesting. One of the oldest in this group is the property of Mr. Thad K. Jones. It was published in 1765, bound in old leather with hand-wrought decorations, and has been handed down from Mrs. Jones great grandfather. The old editions possess much family and historical interest. The collection was viewed during the day with a great deal of interest by the members of Mr. Herbert's church and other citizens of the town, all of whom expressed their appreciation to him for the unique display.

ROXBORO HIGH STUDENTS FORM ATHLETIC ASSO.

Officers Of New Organization Named At Meeting Held Yesterday

HAS MEMBERSHIP OF 134

At a meeting of the student body of the Roxboro High School yesterday morning an Athletic Association was organized with 134 members. The objects of this association are the promotion of athletics and a better school spirit. The membership will be confined to students of the high school, but the constitution provides that it may have associate members, who shall be patrons of this school or residents of Person County. It is the hope and desire of those responsible for the formation that a large number of associate members may be secured in the town and county.

The members elected as their officers the following: President, Bickford Long; Vice-Pres., James Abbott; Secretary, Billy Harris; Treasurer, Margaret Hannah Critcher; Members of the Board of Governors: Elizabeth Pulliam, Annie Long Bradsher, Bobby Michaels, James Hunt, H. K. Sanders, Jr.

Those fostering the organization of the association hope and believe that it will mean a renewed interest in making the Roxboro High School an outstanding institution in our State, and one of which everybody connected with it in any way may well be proud. They are very hopeful that every student of the high school will become a member of this association and lend their support to making the teams put out by this school winning combinations. They also hope that they will get a large number of associate members. The dues will be very moderate, being $1.00 per year payable one half in the spring and one half in the fall. They expect to put on a drive shortly, and trust that they will have the support of everyone interested in the development of the Roxboro High.

P. T. A. To Meet

The P. T. A. will meet at 3:30 Monday afternoon in the Central School. Founders Day will be observed and a social hour will follow. All members are urged to be present.

Eighty-five percent of the $8,662 loaned to 226 farmers in Alexander County from the Government seed loan fund has been repaid.

Important Change In Policy Formulated At Meeting Here Saturday

FEDERAL AID FUNDS MAY CEASE ANY TIME

Every township in the county was represented in a very important meeting at the courthouse Saturday afternoon of the County Relief Organization. The attendance included from three to five members of practically every township committee, in addition to the six members of the Central Relief Committee, S. G. Winstead, P. D. Long, R. L. Harris, J. A. Long, A. J. McKelway, and R. B. Dawes. Those from out in the county had to brave very inclement weather and bad roads. Chairman S. G. Winstead presided.

The primary business of the meeting was to lay plans designed to get the people of town and county "garden-conscious," with special reference to those who have been obtaining relief from the county committee. The members of the organization are not at all certain how long they may be able to continue supplying the wants of the needy; there is no definite assurance how long the aid from the Federal government will continue. In view of these facts, it was stated, it is absolutely essential that every effort to supply one's own needs will have to be made before an application for assistance later on can be considered. It is felt that a home vegetable garden for every family will be of inestimable value and will go far toward a solution of the problem.

After much serious discussion, the meeting adopted the following four methods of approach, each being intended to get the garden proposition before the people, as a necessary preliminary to the successful culmination of the plan:

That the county superintendent will submit the arrangement to the various schools in the county and obtain the active cooperation and support of all teachers and school patrons, both white and colored. This will include a large part of the population of the county and has the added virtue of enlisting the interest of those who have no need of outside help.

That the township committees instruct all applicants for relief that they will be required to comply with the conditions laid down in the garden program, in order to obtain further assistance. Mr. Crowell will also make the same demand of those applying directly to the central relief office.

That the county agent be asked to lend his valuable assistance and furnish any help possible, both in spreading the idea and giving information where needed as to the best methods to be employed in garden-making.

That landlords be requested to insist on the compliance of their tenants with the purpose and intent of the project.

Another meeting will be held Saturday, February 18th, at which time further ideas along this line will be discussed. Mrs. Campbell, district supervisor, will be present at this meeting and will probably include in the above program the canning of surplus vegetables and fruit. It is hoped that there might be made available certain idle land for the use of a community garden; it is also hoped that arrangements can be made to furnish seed and fertilizer, in the most extreme case. The whole plan appears both commendable and advisable. Applicants for relief must show that they have done all they could to help themselves; the committee will not countenance sitting down all spring and summer doing nothing in the expectation of being supported by the welfare office. All preliminary plans and rules must be made at once, it was pointed out at the meeting, since garden time is rapidly approaching.
