PUBLIC'S CREDIT IS GOOD AS GOLD

Citizen Widely Assured He Need Not Produce Cash
To Fill His Wants

New York, March 7.—Business turned to the public prints today to tell the man in the street that he could trade as freely as he liked on his good name; eat on it, sleep on it, procure all the necessities of life on it, travel on it, even go to the theater on it and take along the folks.

The advertising columns of the New York papers were crowded with display announcements brimming with encouragement for the present and with optimism as to the future.

The ordinary pay-as-you-go family was told that money might be temporarily scarce, that scrip might not yet be available, but that credit was still the corner stone of commerce and that despite the present crisis it remained unshaken.

"If you haven't got a charge account, hurry in and start one," was the tenor of most of the department store advertisements.

Broadway went even further than the rest in extending a helping hand to the temporarily embarrassed customers and invited customers to use checks for their purchases and added that if checks were not available I. O. U.'s would do just as well.

With all this encouragement and reassurance that temporary shortage of cash wasn't going to mean corresponding shortage of necessities or even minor luxuries, the people continued about their business with untroubled calm.

GOV. EHRINGHAUS IS GRANTED FULL SWAY OVER STATE BANKS

Assembly Votes Governor and Insurance Commissioner Dictatorship Over Banks

INSURANCE DAYS OF GRACE IS GRANTED

Raleigh, March 6.—Another emergency bank law was enacted tonight by the North Carolina general assembly, giving absolute power to Governor Eprisinghaus and Commissioner of Banks Gurney P.
Hood in meeting the present banking crisis, but there was a tone of opposition in both houses as the measure required more than three hours to pass.

The senate, where the bill was introduced, debated the proposal for nearly two hours with Senator Mc-Duffie of Vance, asserting he was "not willing to give any man more authority than General Pershing had in France."

Everett Leads Opposition Representative Everett of Durham led the fight against the measure in the house, declaring "What if it has been approved by bankers; they have passed on other matters disastrously before?"

Proponents argued it was for the protection of depositors during the present banking crisis, Representative Doughton, veteran legislator from Alleghany, asserting a restoration of confidence was needed.

Friday both houses of the legislature swiftly enacted emergency legislation to authorize the restriction of withdrawals, without debate.
The measure passed both houses on oral vote.

Hill Backs Proposal Sponsoring the proposal, which would validate the banking holiday the governor proclaimed Sunday and would empower him to extend it at any time in the future, were Senators Rankin of Gaston, Hill of Durham, Clement of Rowan, and Hanes of Forsyth.

It had the approval of Governor Ehringhaus, to whom it was read over the long distance telephone.
The governor attended the conference with President Roosevelt in

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardul has helped thousands of women:
"I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of Roanoke, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back.
This pain unnerved me, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day."

"My mother had taken Cardul, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained in weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I had been in some time."

Cardul is sold by local druggists.

Provides For Scrip
The measure also paved the way for the use of scrip as a medium of exchange by empowering Commissioner Hood to "direct, require or permit" the issuance of clearing house certificates.

INSURANCE GRACE EXTENDED Raleigh, March 6.—After first refusing to suspend its rules and consider the measure, the house tonight reversed this decision and passed an emergency bill to enlarge the powers of the state insurance commissioner.

Under the proposal, which was sent to the senate by special messenger, Insurance Commissioner Dan C. Boney would be authorized to extend the days of grace for paying premiums, which would prevent policies from lapsing.

Introduced by Representative Johnson of Pender, chairman of the house insurance committee, the bill would apply to life and fire insurance companies, surety companies, fraternal societies, mutual societies and all other organizations writing insurance.

Johnson's original bill would operate until March 1, 1935, but the house amended the measure to restrict its effectiveness to 60 days.

All laws in conflict with its provisions would be suspended during this time.

To Limit B. and L. Withdrawals Raleigh, March 6.—The senate tonight received, passed and sent to the house a bill to require 30 days notice before funds may be withdrawn from building and loan associations.

It was sponsored by Senator Hart-sell of Cabarrus and approved un- der a suspension of rules.

DUKE CAPTURES TRACK HONORS

Winter Sport Season In Southern Conference Closes With Titles
Well Distributed

Charlotte, March 6.—The wrestling tournament at Lexington, Va., and the indoor games at Chapel Hill the past week-end wound up Southern conference competition in winter sports and a glance back over the results shows honors well scattered.

No school won top honors in more than one sport. Duke won the team trophy in the indoor games, Washington and Lee took major honors in wrestling, Virginia copped the boxing championship and South Carolina the basketball title.

Duke's victory in the indoor games was somewhat of a surprise as most of the experts had picked Virginia to top the field and take the title from North Carolina, the defending champion.

The Blue Devils, however, finished well ahead with 42 points against 34 for Virginia. North Carolina was third and Washington and Lee fourth. Fourteen meet records were broken.
