Wide Changes in Game Laws Made by Assembly

Each County To Have Game Commission; State Divided Into Three Zones

CONSOLIDATE OFFICES OF STATE WARDENS

Raleigh, May 24.—The Legislature found game, fish and conservation laws a favorite subject and enacted more than two-score new laws on the subject.

Sport fishing was the subject of 23 laws and game regulations were changed in more than 20 acts. The commercial fishing industry and fishermen also were the object of some score or more laws.

Several efforts were made to materially change the set-up of the State Department of Conservation and development, which administers all game and fish laws, but only one major change was made.

The offices of State game wardens and commissioner of inland fisheries were consolidated into one office to be filled by a man "of scientific training and experience in the propagation and preservation of fish and game" whose salary will not exceed $3,000 yearly. He will be named by the conservation board.

Game Commissions.

The major changes in the State game laws were embodied in one new act. Under it a game commission is created in each county, to be composed of the chairman of the county board of commissioners, the clerk of the superior court, and the county game warden. The commission will direct the expenditure of a graduated percentage of the hunting license receipts for the control of predatory birds and animals.

New schedules for license fees will be: County resident, 60 cents; State resident, $2.10; State non-resident, $10.10. Former fees were: County, $1.25; State, $3.25, and non-resident, $15.25.

For the purpose of fixing open and closed seasons, the State was divided into three zones. The western zone includes all counties west of Alleghany, Ashe, Watauga, Avery, Mitchell, Yancey, Buncombe and Henderson. The central district includes counties beginning at the western boundary and extending eastward to a line formed by Warren, Franklin, Wake, Chatham, Lee, Moore and Richmond counties. The eastern zone contains all counties east of the line.

Lives On County, But Lends Money

Rutherfordton, May 22.—An unusual complaint grew out of the meeting last week of the Rutherford county board of commissioners.
The board ordered the county attorney to collect $120 from Blank Wallace, aged bachelor of the Westminster section of the county, for alleged lodging at the county home when he was solvent.

The order, charging that Wallace was self-supporting and even loaned money while an inmate of the home, instructed the county attorney, upon failure to collect the money, to bring suit.

Last Week For Tax Listing

This is the last week for listing every one to attend to it this week, certainly before the close of the will be a long list to report for failure. Please save both of us trouble and list today.

FRENCH PROPOSE POOLING OF ARMS

Would Turn Heavy War Machinery Over to League Instead of Destroying It

DESTRUCTION URGED UNDER BRITISH PLAN

Geneva, May 23.—France put a puzzling face to the disarmament conference today when Foreign Minister Paul-Boncour opposed the destruction of heavy war material and advocated its preservation for use by the League of Nations against an aggressor.

Destruction of heavy war material is provided by the British plan, which is supported by the United States, Italy and Germany as well as by its authors.

Thus did the foreign minister of France revive and give new emphasis to the old Tardieu scheme for the internationalization of heavy mobile guns, tanks and other offensive weapons.

A German spokesman, commenting afterwards, said that Paul-Bon-cour's announcement meant that France no longer accepts the British project, for which she has signified acceptance.

M. Paul-Boncour explained to the conference that the powers which are committed to give financial help

MRS. JANIE GILBERT PASCHAL SUCSUMBS

Mother Of Mrs. A. M. Burns Dies At Her Home In Goldston May 19th

WAS WELL KNOWN HERE

Mrs. Janie Gilbert Paschal, mother of Mrs. A. M. Burns of this city, died at her home in Goldston last Friday morning. Mrs. Burns had been with her for several days, as her illness had been critical for the past ten days, and the family here was not surprised when they received the message Friday that she had died. Mr. A. M. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. P. Burns and Mrs.
C. H. Oakley attended the funeral services. Mrs. Paschal will be remembered here by many, as she had frequently visited her daughter, and had many strong and lasting friends, for she was indeed a most lovable spirit.

The following account of her death and funeral we clip from the News and Observer's Sanford correspondent:

"Funeral services were held this afternoon at Brush Creek Baptist church, in Chatham county, for Mrs. Janie Gilbert Paschal, who passed away Friday morning, after a long illness, at her home in Goldston. Rev. E. W. Byerly, of Bonlee, officiated, assisted by Rev. L. A. Mc-Lamb, of Goldston. Interment was in the family plot in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Paschal, who was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Gilbert, of Chatham county, was early in life married to John T.
Paschal, of Chatham county, who passed away in 1924. A woman of many estimable traits of character, she drew to herself a wealth of love and affection from a large circle of friends. Mrs. Paschal was for a long number of years a faithful member of the Baptist church.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs.
A. M. Burns, of Roxboro; Mrs.
Charles L. Greaves, of Raleigh; Mrs.
Charles C. Cheek, of Sanford; Mrs.
O. G. Galt, of Canton, Ga., and Miss Rosa Paschal, dean of women, Limestone College, Gaffney, S. C.; three sons, John T. Paschal, Goldston; Maj. Paul Paschal, U. S. A., Washington, D. C., and Herbert Paschal, Roxboro; one sister, Mrs.
W. E. Lindsey, Mount Airy; two brothers, Richard and J. Bailey Gilbert, of Siler City, and a number of grandchildren.

will consist of one continuous program for the morning. Rev. O. W.
Dowd, former pastor, the leader who led in the building of both the present church and parsonage, will be the principal speaker of the morning and evening exercises.
Every member of the church and Sunday School is asked to be present at ten o'clock in the main auditorium of the church.

The department exercises will be in charge of Mrs. K. L. Street. Remember to come at ten instead of 9:45.

Senior Class Play Of High Order

The senior class of the Roxboro high school gave the play, "I'll Explain Everything," last Thursday Evening, and it was pronounced one of the best ever given here; the play was directed by Miss Texus Morris and Mrs. A. F. Nichols. The acting was all of a very high order, but we think especial mention should be made of the part played by Miss Morris. At the last moment one of the characters failed to appear and Miss Morris donned the attire of a young sport and acted the part to perfection. Other members of the cast were: E. N. Jones, John Merritt, Cliff Long, Elmore Raiff, Margie Stanfield, Lisette Allgood and Elizabeth Pullam.

MUSIC PUPILS OF MRS. H. W. NEWELL GIVE THEIR RECITAL

Eugene Thompson Presents Medals To Evangeline Fox
And Louise Walker

PROGRAM MUCH ENJOYED

Most commendable from beginning to end was the annual recital last night presented by the pupils of Mrs. H. W. Newell at 8 o'clock in the Central school auditorium.
The program was varied and included numbers to suit any musical taste. Each of the young ladies showed marked accomplishment and the precision and execution of the pieces reflected much credit both upon the performers themselves as well as their teacher. The annual recital of Mrs. Newell's class is always eagerly anticipated and the program rendered last night was fully up to every expectation.

For the most improvement shown during the work of the year, a medal was presented to Evangeline Fox. For the most excellent work during the year Louise Walker was presented a medal. Eugene Thompson, in a few appropriate words, made these presentations. Others who appeared in various numbers on the program were: Cornelia Satterfield, Evelyn Satterfield, Katherine Harris, Anne Margaret Long, Elizabeth Long, Sarah Winstead, Eloise Newell, Helen Thompson, Margaret Hannah Critcher, Frances Critcher, and two vocal numbers by Mrs. Newell.

Cherokee Scout Coun- cil District Meeting

Cherokee Council of the Boy Scouts met here last night and enjoyed luncheon served by the Woman's club. This council is composed of six counties, with Mr. John A. McLean president. All councils in the district were represented, and reports were heard from each council; Scout executive, Mr. Gorman, made his annual report, which was very encouraging, showing an increase in membership of more than one hundred since the first of the year. The present membership is 584, with a total membership of boys and men of 809; seven new troops are now under organization.
It was gratifying to know that Roxboro Council was the only one in the district which reported all dues paid in full.

Cotton, watermelons and cantal-oupes have been retarded by the recent cool weather in Hoke and adjacent counties.

Only one temple of ancient Persia has ever been discovered.

ROXBORO ROTARY HAS INTERESTING MEETING

Bedford Love, Jr., Presented With Prize For Best Paper On The Rotary

MRS. DAVIS MAKES TALK

The meeting last Thursday night of the Roxboro Rotary club was unusually interesting, and the president, Mr. W. A. Sergeant, did not fail to impress the fact that it was his program; and indeed, it was a program any one might have been proud to father.

For the past session the club has been having two of the members of the Roxboro high school senior boys as guests of the club at each meeting, and the boys were invited to submit papers on what they thought of the club; it was very much regretted that only four members saw fit to write their views, but the papers submitted were of a very high order, that of Bedford Love being declared the winner. Mr. J.
S. Walker presented the club prize.
Edwin Hamlin was announced as the second in the contest, with William Collins a close contestant.

Mrs. Numa Edwards told of some of the achievements of the Woman's club during the past year; of course, it would take a book to tell of all the fine things the club has done, but only the most outstanding were mentioned. She was followed by Mrs. S. B. Davis, president of the Woman's club, who addressed the club, telling of some of the things that are needed in Roxboro, mentioning first, a community building, with an auditorium seating eight hundred; then a swimming pool, then following the suggestion that a play ground for the children would be of great help, both to mothers and children, bringing her suggestions to a close mentioning that it would be of inestimable value if our bank could open. It was a fine paper and contained suggestions which will keep the citizens of Roxboro busy for some time if they decide to adopt any, or all, of her suggestions.

Mr. J. D. Mangum, of The Leg-get's, was elected a member of the club.

Death Of Mrs. Neal Gravitt, On Friday

Mrs. Neil Gravitt, age 54, died at the home of her husband, on Route 4, near Brooklyn church, at 6 p. m. on Friday, May 19th. She had been in her usual health until about 8 a. m., when she complained of a severe headache, and gradually grew worse until the end came.
She was a member of Mill Creek Baptist church, and had been for about fifteen years. She is survived by her husband, Neil Gravitt, and four daughters, Mrs. Carrie Morris of Cluster Springs, Va., Mrs. Roxie Shelton of Roxboro, Misses Ada and Nannie Gravitt of Roxboro, R. 4.

Funeral services were conducted at the Dave Yarboro family cemetery on Saturday afternoon at 2:30, led by Elder Lex Chandler. The pallbearers were, Sam Burton, L. R.
Jones, W. Kenny, Earlie Rudder, Joe Roy Burton and Bruce Burton.
The flower bearers were Robert Morris, Laura Mae Ford, Irene Jones, Bettle Day, Ruth Mae Huggins, Margaret Day, Hattie Flora Morris, Mary Anne Stone, Ada Francis Stone, Laura Jones, Frances Burton, Bedford Jones and John Jones. Friends composed the choir and sang "Amazing Grace," "When We All Get To Heaven," and "Asleep In Jesus."

tion to photography and art this firm will carry a line of pottery

WOULD PROVIDE 9 MILLIONS FOR N.C. HIGHWAY WORK

Public Works Provide 400 Millions For Road Construction In All States

WILL EMPLOY 380,000 MEN

Washington, May 22.—$400,000,000 appropriation for highway construction included in the huge public works bill now before congress, will provide work for 380,000 men, experts who assisted in drafting the measure said today.

The bill provides two highway building programs: One is similar to the federal aid system under which thousands of miles of important highways have been built, but it would not require the various States to match federal funds.
The second calls for construction or improvement of a system of secondary or "feeder" highways.

The allotment of funds would be made on a basis of population and on the apportionment of road building money used in the present federal highway act.

Under the proposed allotment, New York State would receive $26-407,000, Texas $23,919,000 and Pennsylvania, $21,005,000. Proposed allotments to other states include:

Alabama, $8,533,000; Arkansas, $6,740,000; Florida, $5,270,000; Georgia, $10,171,000; Kentucky, $7,781-000; Louisiana, $6,063,000; Mississippi, $7,040,000; Missouri, $12,361-000; North Carolina, $9,810,000; South Carolina, $5,782,000; Tennessee, $8,657,000; Virginia, $7,619,000.

The members of the seventh grade received their certificates of pro-will report to the high school next session. Mr. Robt. P. Burns addressed the class giving it some most wholesome advice. Prior to the address a group of grammar pupils rendered a selection, followed by "Invocation to Summer," a duet by Mesdames J. A. Long and H. W.

Newell, with Miss Katherine Hat-chett at the piano. Mr. W. D. Merritt, chairman of the board of trustees, also addressed the pupils.

The presentation of the certi-

On Friday night the exercises came to a close, the principal event being the address of Col. S. C.
Chambers of Durham. The first thing on the program was the Processional, as the seniors marched down the aisle, led by Miss Eunice Tapp, chief marshal. Invocation was by Rev. S. F. Nicks, pastor of Brookside Methodist church. Two groups of children sang four songs, "Water Lilies," "Sunshine in Rainbow Valley," "Come Where the Lilies Bloom" and "Venetian Love Song." The choruses being under the direction of Miss Hatchett, Mrs. Newell and Mrs. Street.

Then came the address by Col.
Chambers, and we do not exaggerate when we say it was one of the most interesting addresses delivered to the senior class at any time. The medals and other awards were made by J. W. Noell. To Miss Lishighest average for the entire four years, while the Research club Eng-banquet held Saturday night was a fitting climax. Plates were laid for
