If you have entertained any doubts as to how the farmers feel of farmers here on Monday afternoon. The meeting was called by tend. Admission: children 25c, Mr. C. T. Hall, president of the growers association, and it was not possible to give the call publicity desired, owing to the fact that it was not definitely decided to hold the meeting until the latter part of the week. But the farmers got wind of the meeting, and they were here in large numbers, the court room being filled to capacity.

Mr. Hall explained the nature of the meeting in a splendid address, telling the farmers that for one time they had a chance to co-operate with the government, and if they would do so he believed they would see better days. It was a splendid address and was well received. He then introduced the speaker of the occasion, Dean I. O.
